As we, the Class of "55", leave Covington High School, we take with us many pleasant memories of our school days together.

"Today We Follow, Tomorrow We Lead," is our class motto, and with a well rounded class like ours which ranks high in scholarship, leadership, music, and athletics, we shall be the leaders of tomorrow. Sky blue and white are our class colors with the white rose as our flower.

During our four years in high school we have participated in many activities to raise money for our class treasury. Every year we took part in the magazine sales, and in our Sophomore and Junior years we were high salesmen of the school. Also in our Junior year, we sponsored bake sales, sold pencils and license plates, had a scrap drive, sold refreshments at the home basketball games, and held dances after football and basketball games. In the fall of "53" we presented a mystery comedy, "Aunt Cathie's Cat," and the highlight of the spring was honoring the seniors at a "Mardi Gras" reception.

In our final year our money making projects were the publishing of the Yearbook and the presenting of the class play. These projects helped finance our class trip to Washington D. C. and New York City. Also in our Senior year, we welcomed to our class Peter Zackenfels, an exchange student from Bremerhaven, Germany.

On May 24, 1955, forty-eight seniors will receive their well earned diplomas. Of these forty-eight seniors, thirty-one have gone through twelve years of school together.

It is with a tinge of regret and with a feeling of anticipation in our hearts that we leave to become a part of a new and wider world of learning and understanding.

Minutes of the First Student Council Meeting
October 4, 1950

The first Student Council meeting of 1950-'51 was called to order fifth period in the auditorium on October 4, 1950 by the president, Norman Purley. Since there were no previous meetings, the secretary then called the roll.

After this, Mr. Barrett spoke to the council. He said that the Student Council is a representative governing body. The council we have now was reorganized in 1947. He also spoke to the council about the need for a good council to have a good school.

Our new sponsor, Mr. Gavin, spoke to the council. He suggested that we elect a parliamentarian. He also gave some rules on how to run the council. He suggested that we elect a parliamentarian. He also gave some rules on how to run the council.

Carol Moody moved that we elect a parliamentarian. The motion was seconded. It was voted upon and the motion carried. Darwin Butcher Kelly, and Carol Moody were nominated. The council then elected parliamentarian.

Student Council

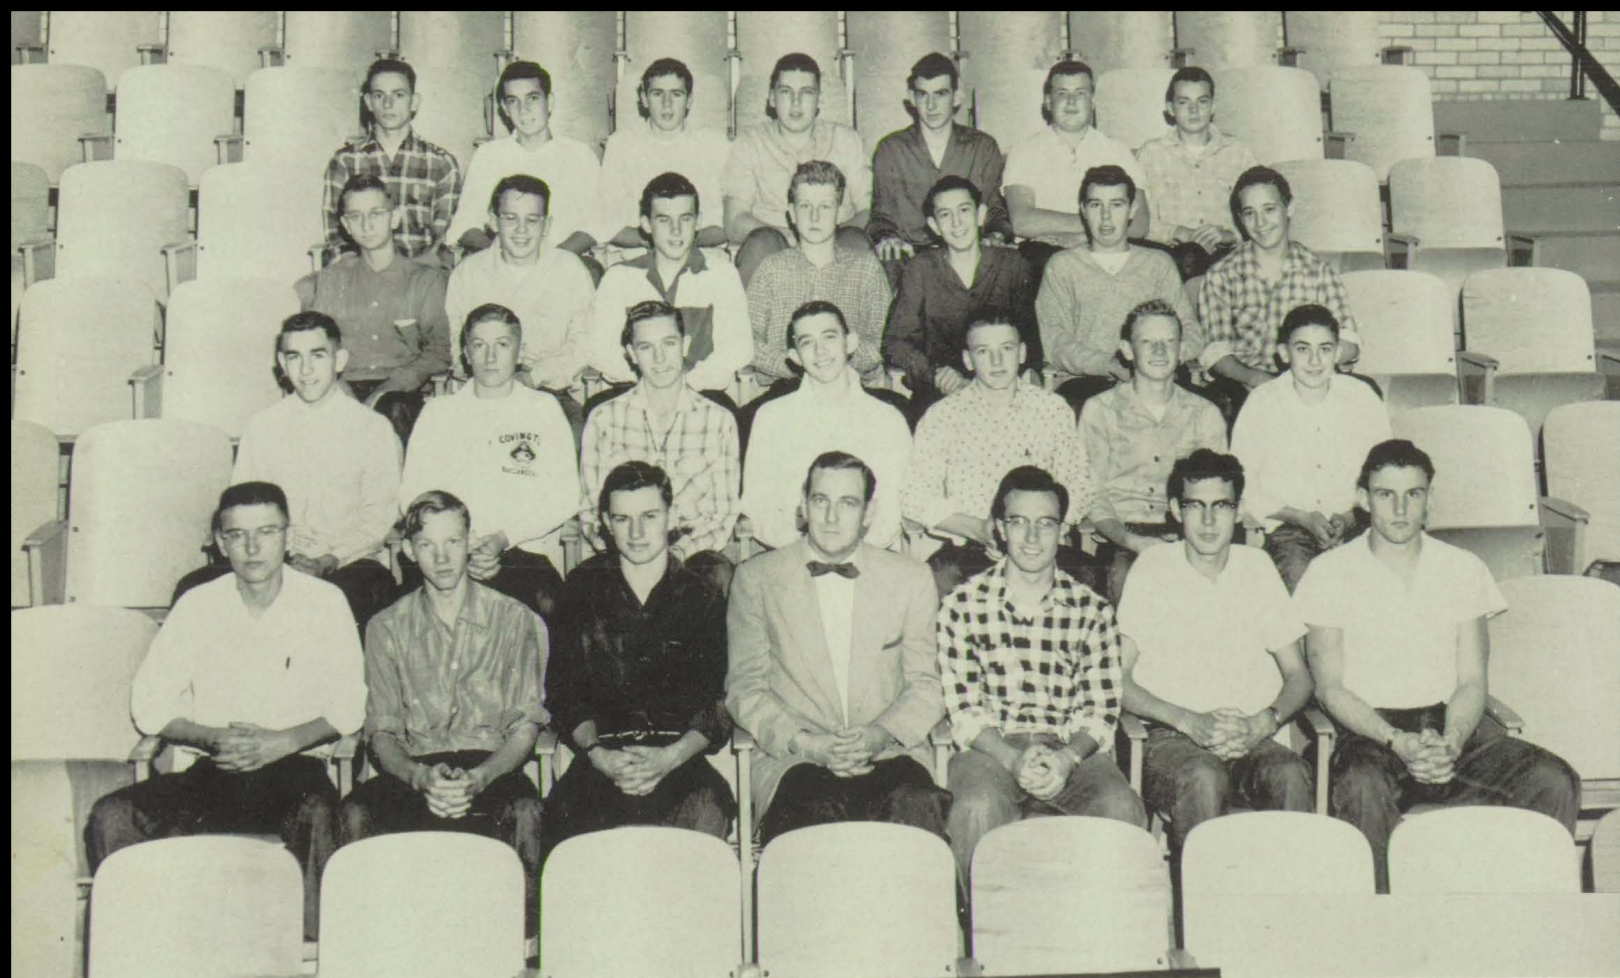

Representing the student body as a whole, the Student Council strives to promote and foster school spirit, to cooperate with the faculty and initiate measures for the welfare of the student body, and to sponsor and promote student activities.

Membership numbered fifteen with four seniors, two juniors, two sophomores, two freshmen, and one representative from each seventh and eighth grade home room.

This organization, a good example of a working democracy, sponsored the magazine sales, the football homecoming, Junior Red Cross campaign, TB Spangle Sale, the March of Dimes, and a paper pick-up campaign. It also constituted the Varsity "C" Club and the Scholarship Club. At Christmas time members of the Council decorated the landing between the first and second floors and was in charge of the Christmas program. One of the major projects was the purchasing of a movie projector for the school with the profit from the magazine sales.

Officers of this active organization were Jim Carder, President; Larry Via, Vice President; Judy Mutzner, Secretary; Pat Fanning, Treasurer; Sharon Smith, Parliamentarian; Barbara O'Roark, Reporter; and Miss Sargent, Mr. Allmann, and Mr. Apwisch, Advisors.

Hi-Y Club

Affiliated with the Dayton Town and Country YMCA, the Hi-Y's platform is "Clean speech, clean living, clean sportsmanship, and clean scholarship." Its purpose is the same as that of the Tri-Hi-Y Club.

Programs for the Hi-Y meetings included an orientation on "What is Hi-Y?", a movie on racial and religious prejudices, a boys' dating opinion poll, Rev. Michel as speaker on boy and girl relationships, a youth and government program with 1954 model legislature slides and John Huffaker as speaker, a program on Germany with German exchange student Peter Zackenfels as speaker, film strips and information on narcotics, speakers on comparative faiths, the armed services and you, and vocations and colleges.

Outstanding activities were the sponsoring of the annual basketball game between the faculty and the Uptown All-Stars, the Hi-Y Foodless Banquet and Hi-Y workday for world service, and the New Year's Eve Sock Hop. George Mendenhall and Peter Zackenfels were the Hi-Y representatives who attended the Model Legislature in Columbus.

Advisors this year were Mr. William Stubbs and Mr. Howard Buchanan. Officers were Jim Carder, President; John Reck, Vice President; George Mendenhall, Secretary; Jim Rench, Treasurer; and Jim Looker, Chaplain.

Tri-Hi-Y

"To create, maintain, and extend, throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character," is the goal of the Tri-Hi-Y Club. Its slogan is "Pure thoughts, pure words, and pure actions."

Guiding the many activities this year were Mary Sue Wilk, President; Barbara O'Roark, Vice President; Judy Miller, Secretary; Marilyn Davis, Treasurer; Sharon Smith, Chaplain; and Miss Holfinger, Advisor. Other assistants were Lynn Crawford, photographer; Edna Mae Wolf, reporter; and Diedre Wells, who kept the club scrapbook.

As the theme "Living Together" was carried out, the different programs consisted of a panel discussion on "the future of our schools," a joint meeting with the Hi-Y on youth and government, a speaker and movie from the Goodwill Industries, a movie and discussion on narcotics, program with Peter Zackenfels as speaker, a United Nations program, the Mothers' tea, and the annual Parents' banquet.

A scavenger hunt in which the Tri-Hi-Y girls collected food for needy families proved to be a great success. On New Year's Eve, many students spent a gay evening at the Sock Hop sponsored by the Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y Clubs.

Youth and government representatives who attended the model legislature in Columbus were Pat Fanning and Edna Mae Wolf.

Future Farmers of America

Learning to Do, Doing to Learn, Earning to Live, Living to Serve—This motto of the Future Farmers of America shows the true viewpoint of farm youth, the “backbone” of our nation. Think of the satisfaction the FFA boy must get, knowing that he is working at one of the most necessary jobs in the world, the feeding of the multitude.

Out of the thirty boys in the Vocational Department this year, twenty-three of them were members of FFA. The chapter also had one graduate member, Jerry Millhouse.

Officers of this organization were Roy Sink, President; Bud Feeser, Vice President; Bob Fenner, Secretary; Larry Slade, Treasurer; Don Filbrun, Reporter; Tony Spillers, Sentinel; and Neil Clark, Chaplain.

With Mr. H. L. Adkins as their advisor, the Future Farmers carried out a busy program. Some of the activities were promoting better farming programs, encouraging leadership training with participation in parliamentary procedure and public speaking contests, promoting better scholarship by giving awards for achievement, setting up cooperative buying and selling plans, serving the community through improvement programs and church work, promoting thrift and wise use of money, and developing a more wholesome social and recreational life.

In connection with the farming program the boys received experience and training in showing their projects at the fair, and their public relations program included radio and television appearances. They celebrated National FFA Week during the week of February 22.

Future Homemakers of America

As Future Homemakers of America, these girls realize the importance of being fully prepared to run their future homes with skill and efficiency. Their meetings were planned around the state theme, "The Homes of Tomorrow Are in the Hands of Its Youth."

Among the outstanding activities of this organization were the FHA Parents' Banquet, the radio program, a parliamentary procedure program, and the National FHA Week program which included a window display, a speaker for the school, services to the teachers, and the initiation of the freshmen. This chapter was also active in the county organization by participating in the county rally, leadership training meeting, and being hostess to the county FHA dance in March.

This year for the first time the Covington FHA was honored to have a state officer, and because of this it took an active part in the state and national program of work. Edna Mae Wolf represented her chapter last summer at the National Leadership Training Meeting in East Lansing, Michigan, and at State FHA Camp. The State Fair booth and demonstration were outstanding, and as a climax to the year, the members helped with the State Convention.

Capable leaders of this worthwhile organization were Pat Spillers, President; Lois Robbins and Barbara Rike, Vice Presidents; Doris Anderson, Secretary; Virginia Flick, Treasurer; Linda Cool, Historian; Patsy Bergman, Parliamentarian; Shirley Ely, Reporter; Dixie Wise and Eileen Fisher, Recreation Leaders; Edna Mae Wolf, State Vice President of Public Relations and County Historian; and Miss Margaret Rothermel, Advisor.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association, more familiarly known as GAA, carried out one of the most active programs of any organization at Covington High. Meeting twice a week, the girls enjoyed playing softball, volleyball, and basketball. They also went hiking, swimming, and bowling as a group.

Members of this organization who received 150 points were given special awards: the Freshmen, numerals; Sophomores, an emblem; Juniors, a letter; and Seniors, a pin or a letter. Points were earned by attendance, bicycling, hiking, bowling, roller or ice skating, horseback riding, and assistance in gym classes.

Purposes of this group are to foster a spirit of good sportsmanship, provide wholesome individual and group recreation, and encourage and promote the development of desirable health practices, attitudes, and ideals.

Varsity "C" Club

Established just this year, the Varsity "C" Club was formed with the purpose of creating and maintaining a high standard of physical and educational morals among athletes. All boys who have earned a letter in any of the major sports are eligible to belong to this organization.

Varsity "C" officers were Jim Minnich, President; Howard Anderson, Vice President; Larry Via, Secretary-Treasurer; and Mr. Robert Wion, Advisor.

Since this is the club's first year, it has not had too many activities. Most important was the sponsoring of the basketball game on February 22, between the Varsity "C" and the National Guard of Covington. "C" members also sold booster ribbons at the football games to help boost the CHS team.

Although this club is still new, it has already proved to be quite successful, and by next year it will be in full swing.

Varsity C Club

This organization, begun last year, has planned an active program for this year under Mr. Wion's supervision.

The group has elected Jim Min-nich, pres.; Howard Anderson, vice pres.; Larry Via, treas.; and James Carder, sergeant-at-arms.

To finance the club, the boys sold gym bags last year and now are selling booster flowers.

Not all their interests are confinied to sports, for they have quite a repertoire of hill-billy and cowboy ballads which they sing to the accompaniment of guitars played by Coach Wion and Bill Knick.

First row: Mr. Apwisch, Bonnie Root, Judy Mutzner, Dixie Wise, Emily Fessler, Ann Looker, Sharon Smith, Judy Murray, Deanne Gish, Marilyn Davis, Sue Jinks, Diedre Wells, Judy Fogt, Marcella Mader. Future Teachers of America

They're the Future Teachers of America! This organization, one of the largest in the school, aims to develop an interest in the teaching career. Since America's school enrollment is increasing rapidly and more teachers are needed every year, it is important that students be encouraged along this line. Perhaps at least some of these members will be future teachers.

Under the leadership of Marilyn Davis, President; Judy Murray, Vice President; Sharon Smith, Secretary; Deanne Gish, Treasurer; Ann Looker, Historian; Sue Jinks, Parliamentarian; Emily Fessler, Reporter; and Mr. Apwisch, Advisor, the club carried out various projects.

A trip to Miami University proved enjoyable as did their project to run the school for half a day. Members acted as substitute teachers for the elementary and high school with many of them receiving valuable experience in teaching.

Junior Band

Regarded as a training group, the Junior Band has done well on its own. With a membership of fifty, they presented a joint concert with the Senior Band in the spring of 1954, and received a I rating in the Junior High Contest in March, 1955. During favorable weather the members developed into a well regulated drill team.

Buccaneer Band

Chipped reeds, cracked lips, broken drum sticks . . . all these are characteristic of the C.H.S. Band. But despite these things, there is music . . . music created by a group of eighty-three students who have worked together for a long time. It was worth every bit of time and practice, though, for if they had not put that effort into their tasks, there would not be those first place records, the trophies, and the inner satisfaction of a job well done.

Under the very capable direction of Mr. Wesley Haines, the band had a very successful year with top honors coming its way. They took first place at the Bradford Pumpkin Show and at the Brookville Firemen's Convention.

Braving chilly weather, they made ten football performances and several pep band appearances at the basketball games. Besides presenting two public concerts this year, they also gave an exchange concert at Urbana. A special project of the members was purchasing their new band jackets.

In March, they attended the District Band Contest. About twenty-five members participated in the Solo and Ensemble Contest, also held in March. All soloists, ensembles, and the band as a whole obtained outstanding ratings in these events. Ensembles competing were the trombone quartet, clarinet quartet, sax trio, flute trio, woodwind trio, and the drum ensemble. On May 13, 1955, Covington was also host to the Western Ohio Festival.

Massed Chorus

Each day the sound of music comes ringing through the halls of C.H.S. Sometimes it rocks the rafters and sends the classes to "jumpin'," and other times, a far-away look can be seen in the eyes of the students as they listen to a sentimental number, a Negro spiritual, or a religious anthem.

Vocal music is divided into four groups, freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior. Although they do not meet at the same time, most classes enjoy singing the same songs.

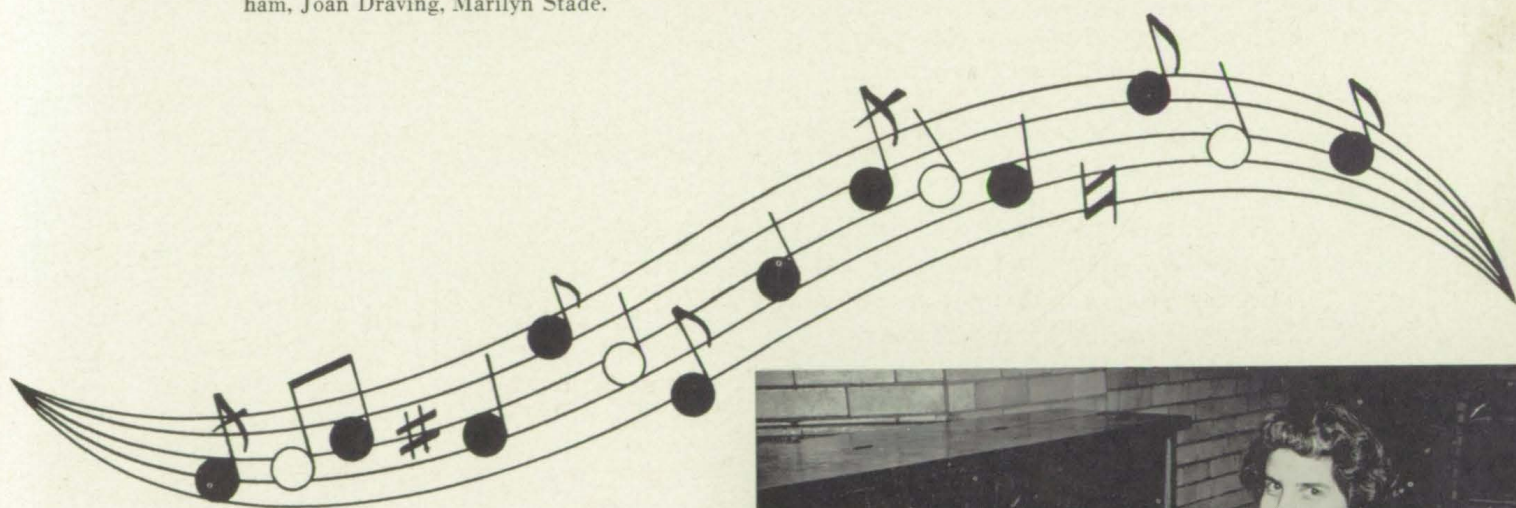

Presenting the Ninth Black and White Minstrel Show was the most outstanding activity of the combined massed chorus. People came from far and near to enjoy the musical talent of C.H.S. students and to shout with laughter at the antics of the black end men. A spring concert was also given by the entire group.

Another accomplishment of the chorus was the competition in the District Chorus Contest in which a mixed group of sophomores, juniors, and seniors took part. Several ensembles which developed from this group also entered the District Ensemble Contest, as well as singing for special activities at our school.

No little credit goes to the vocal music director, Mrs. Faythe Limp, who helped to make this choral group what it is. Recognition also goes to the pianists who accompanied the different groups. They were Virginia Flick, Deanne Gish, Marilyn Stade, and Gordon Wilson.

Scholarship Team

The Scholarship Team is made up of those who took the Preliminary Scholarship Test on March 31, the District Scholarship Test on May 7, at Miami University, the Senior Scholarship Test, and the State Agriculture Test on January 29.

SENIOR SCHOLARSHIP TEAM

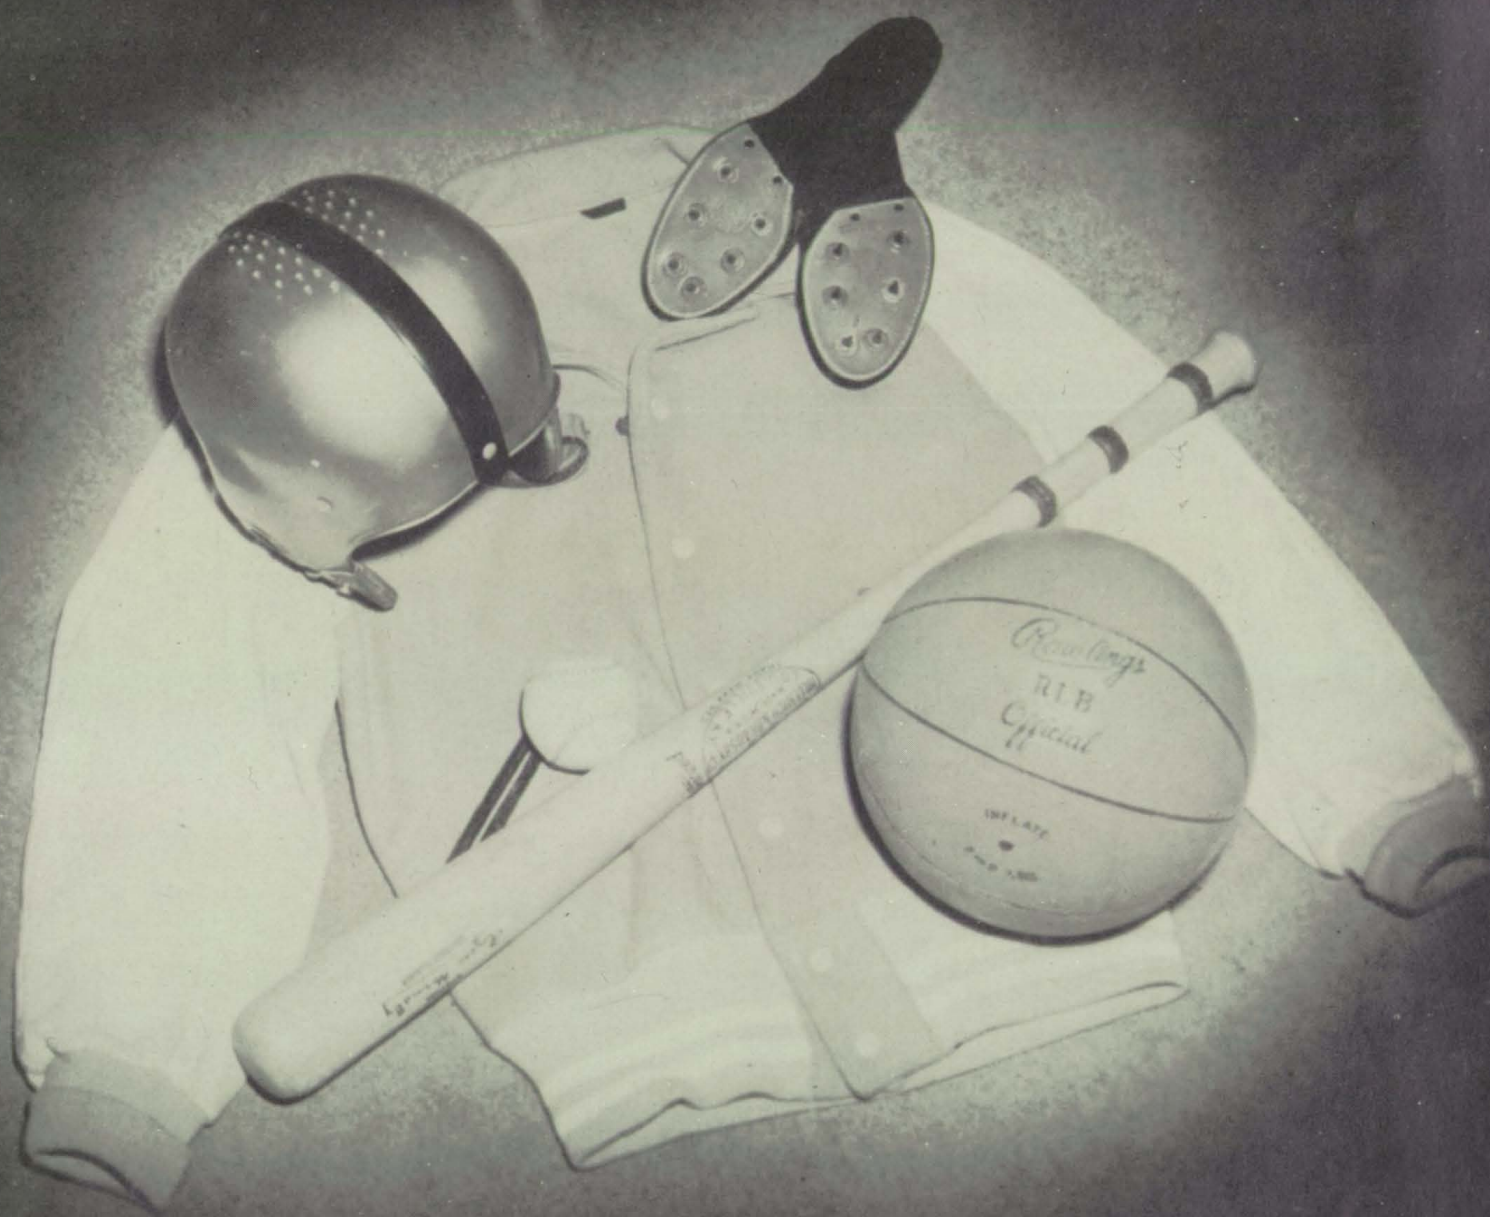

On January 29, eight seniors traveled to Troy High School to take the Senior Scholarship Test. They competed with 150 other seniors in Miami County.

Placing in the upper 15 per cent of the county and highest in Covington were Don Nead and John Reck.

Bud Feeser and Tony Spillers took the State Agriculture Test the same day and tied for third place in Miami County.

First row: John Reck, Bud Feeser, Tony Spillers, Don Nead. Second row: Elaine Arendall, Judy Mutzner, Edna Mae Wolf, Diedre Wells, Lynn Crawford, Marilyn Davis.

Athletics

Buccaneer Football Team

The Buccs, under the direction of Coach Bob Wion and Assistant Coach Blair Irvin, turned in a fine season, in this, their last year of independent ball. Next fall they plan to enter the "Little Buckeye League." During the past season the Buccs played two teams from this league, defeating one, Centerville, 13-12, and losing to Brookville, 19-27.

Among other accomplishments this year, they won the new traveling trophy presented by the American Legion to the winner of the Bradford-Covington game. It is planned that the team winning the most times in a five-year period will receive this trophy permanently. Other honors presented by the American Legion were won by Howard Anderson, back of the year, and Jim Minnich, lineman of the year.

Seniors playing their last season for C.H.S. this year include Minnich, Owen, and Ringelspaugh at tackle; Feeser and Helman at guard; John Rench, center; Anderson, quarterback; Knick at end; Jim Rench, fullback; and Bemus playing halfback.

Buccaneer Basketball Team

The Buccs, after getting off to a slow start, came up with a fairly good record this year. Winning five and losing nine would not seem to be a very good record, but the improvement from the start to the finish showed that the boys had worked hard and had the fighting will to win.

Coach Irvin in his first year of coaching did an excellent job of building a team. Since there were only three seniors, experience gained by the juniors, sophomores, and freshmen should help C.H.S. build a stronger organization during the next few years. Seniors on the team this year were Jim Minnich, guard; Howard Anderson, forward; and Rodger Mote, forward.
