Foreword

Through long hours and hard work, we are at last able to present to you the BUCCANEER for 1960 — a new and different yearbook.

In using the theme "Many Different Worlds" we have tried to give you, the students and friends of Covington High School, an idea of the studies and happenings as they are performed and lived day by day. All are included in this one institution, Our School.

This year we are attempting something that has never been done in our school before, a fall delivery plan.

By this method, you did not receive your yearbook until August, 1960. In this way, we have been able to include the entire school year in the book. Because of this new delivery, some of the events from last year are excluded. We have, however, distributed some of the 1959 track pictures throughout the advertisement section.

We hope that you will enjoy the new and better coverage represented by the fall delivery.

Superintendent’s Message

Even though I have only been associated with the Covington Exempted Village School System for a few months, it has come to my attention that some fine work has been done by those who were responsible for the annuals which have been produced for at least a quarter of a century in this school system.

After surveying the work of this year’s annual staff, it appears to me that a great effort is being put forth toward producing even a better annual.

I definitely feel the 1960 Yearbook is a great help toward the continuance of good student Character, Health, Scholarship, and Sportsmanship. It indeed reflects a general improvement of the school system.

The staff and advisor are to be congratulated for their leadership and efforts in behalf of better public relations in regard to all activities of the school.

It is a privilege to wish to all 1960 graduates the best of success and happiness in the days ahead. May each of you enjoy long lives of usefulness and continue to Live Most and Serve Best.

A. O. GROSS, Superintendent

ADMINISTRATION
In order to maintain the high standards of education which the schools of Covington have enjoyed in the past, the Board of Education and the Administration is faced with the problems of immediate need as well as those of longer range.

The Board of Education realizes that more classroom and laboratory space is essential to high standards of education in the very near future. The science, industrial arts, home economics, business and language areas need to be expanded now. Heating equipment and plastering must be replaced soon. Perhaps art experience should be enlarged in the elementary school and expanded into the high school. More adequate transportation must be provided before next year, and room for additional classes on the elementary level cannot long be delayed, or young people will suffer educationally.

The young people of our community are its future, and we cannot plan well for the future unless we plan to give them the best education possible. It will cost more money to educate adequately for the Space Age than it did for the Horse and Buggy Age. It is the sincere wish of the Board of Education that sound educational practices may continue to be the desire of the Board and the community as they work together for continuing high standards of education for our youth, both today and tomorrow.

CURRICULUM
Many new additions and corrections have been made in the curriculum of the school system this year. New teachers and many new pieces of equipment have been added to the different departments, making for better education and more enjoyable learning.

Possibly the biggest change has been made in the English department. The English staff now includes four teachers as compared to the two teachers of previous years. Seniors who plan to attend college have been put into a special class to give them a better chance to learn the basic English requirements needed for college. This also gives the other senior English students a better chance to grasp the English they will need for their future lives.

Approximately $2,000 has been spent for new pieces of equipment and a general redecoration of the science department. This money was spent in the laboratory, where they have added various items for experiments in radio electronics. In addition, new sink drains were purchased.

New Teachers, Books, and Equipment

Future homemakers learn to perform the activities necessary in managing a home.
Big changes have also taken place in the vocational departments. The most noticeable improvements have been made in the industrial arts or shop courses. Seniors this year, for the first time, were offered a nine week's course of instruction in electricity. Textbooks on machine metal and woodworking were also put into use for the first time. Some of the new equipment that has been purchased includes a new metal former, bench shears for trimming metal, and numerous new hand tools.

A station wagon was purchased by the school board and then turned over to the farm shop classes, where a few minor repairs were undertaken. This station wagon is available for all high school activities.

Physics students observe a demonstration on fractioning distillation.

Newly Formed Science Club...

Interests Students in Scientific-Minded World

Newly organized this year, the Science Club has a total of twenty members. Officers elected at the beginning of the year were as follows: president, Doug Murray; vice-president, Roberta Deeter; secretary, Sandy Leeper; and treasurer, Mike Vogt.

One of the many functions of the club this year was to sponsor Covington’s First Annual Science Day. The fair consisted of exhibits, movies, and demonstrations of new equipment by members of the club.

First prize went to Nancy Stump for her project on “Soils and Minerals from the U.S.” Second prize was awarded to Barbara Powell for her project on “Our Smallest Servants – Microbes.” For their project, “The Study of the Effects of Colored Light on Brine Shrimp,” Virginia Apple and Sharon Sink were awarded third prize.

Whether conducting an experiment in lab, listening to scientific speakers, or viewing exhibits at a science fair, Science Club members will be found hard at work.

ORGANIZATIONS
Clubs Ranked High...

TRI-HI-Y

Working hand in hand with the Y.M.C.A., the girls undertook these projects: studying Youth and Government, taking part in the morning devotions for the student body, helping in the drive for the Heart Fund, and presenting a Thanksgiving program to the students.

Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y members sponsored a Parent's Banquet in November. As a part of the program, "Teenagers and Dating" was discussed by a panel composed of students, parents, and advisors. In addition to this, a tea was given in April for the mothers of the forty-five Tri-Hi-Y members.

Induction of new members and installation of officers was held at the Lutheran Church in October. The officers installed were: Linda Feeser, president; Linn Purdy, vice-president; Bonnie Catterlin, secretary; Pam Shields, treasurer; and Tonia Goble, chaplain.
HI-Y

Twenty-one boys from the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades were members of Hi-Y. These boys worked together as a service organization through the Y.M.C.A. As members of Hi-Y, the boys learned to become better citizens both in the spiritual and material realms.

Officers of Hi-Y were: Charles Nickel, president; Mike Vogt, vice-president; Bruce Beener, secretary; Paul Althoff, treasurer; Randy Higgins, chaplain; and Mr. Ralph Banes, advisor.

Four projects were undertaken by the boys this year. They were in charge of the Christmas Chapel, which is an annual affair at Covington High School. A Christmas basket was prepared and presented to a needy family in this community. As a service to students and parents, the boys sold programs at the basketball games. The big project of the year was their Bundle Day Clothing Drive.

Hi-Y boys also competed with the F.F.A. boys in their annual basketball game. For the first time since they have started these games, Hi-Y lost to F.F.A. Aside from this defeat, the Hi-Y members had a very successful year.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

With leadership and scholarship in farm life as its goal, the Future Farmers of America plunged into another year. Thirty-six boys took part in this training under the leadership of the following officers: president, Bill Wirrig; vice-president, George Finfrock; secretary, Nelson Apple; treasurer, Roger Clark; chaplain, Dale Hunt; sentinel, Jim Rike; historian, Danny Kisner; reporter, John Spruance; and advisor, Mr. Dwane Runyan.

Two special projects were undertaken this year. A team made up of the F.F.A. officers attended the District Parliamentary Procedure Contest at Monroe High School. The boys also participated in livestock judging.

Highlighting the social activities was the annual trip to Chicago to see the International Livestock Convention on November 15, 1959.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Future Homemakers of America have chosen "Youth Grows Through F.H.A." as their theme and "Toward New Horizons" as their motto. The girls have accomplished their aim by receiving the Award of Merit, an award given to outstanding chapters in the state.

Officers this year are as follows: Joyce Bailey, president; Cheryl Byers, vice-president; Dorothy Mader, secretary; Janice Gaver, treasurer; Sharon Sink, parliamentarian; Marilyn Smith, historian; Bonnie Wise, chaplain; Ann Sink, reporter; Janet Barga, county officer; and Miss Margaret Rothermel, advisor.

F.H.A. has taken the responsibility of baby sitting at the P.T.A. meetings. It has also planned devotions for two of these meetings.

Outstanding program of the year was their presentation of a style show at one of the P.T.A. meetings. The girls modeled the outfits they made in home economics this year.

The Plans We Made...

VARSITY "C"

Earning a letter in any sport and pledging for six weeks is how to become a member of the Varsity "C." Nineteen boys met with these qualifications and were active members in the organization this year.

Varsity "C" was organized in Covington High School in 1955, and since that time has become a very influential club in the high school. It has gained its influence under the capable leadership of the officers: president, Fred Davis; vice-president, Phil Iddings; secretary, Jack Manning; treasurer, Doug McRoy; chaplain, Bob Hartley; and advisor, Mr. Blair Irvin.

Two projects were handled by the boys this year. They had a hayride, a picnic, and several pizza parties. The most outstanding activity of the year was the initiation of the pledges. These five boys went through the trying process: Jim Cassel, Gordon McMaken, Larry Henry, Tom Iddings, and Sam Bashore. All five came out on top and became active members in Varsity "C."
FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Twelve students, interested in the teaching field, are active members of the Future Teachers of America. Through the club and its activities, a person has the chance to decide if he wants a teaching profession.

Officers of the F.T.A. club are: president, Darlene Nishwitz; vice-president, Virginia Apple; secretary-treasurer, Tonia Goble; librarian, Sandra Emery; historian, Kay Nickel; advisor, Mr. Louis Apwisch.

The club was organized in 1948. Since then, fifteen of its former members have gone on to college, and have then taken a teaching position in a school system.

FOURTH ROW: Carol Thompson, Janet Forsythe, Beverly Laughman, Esther Chappie, Barbara Powell, Sandra Brant, Cheryl Byers, Nancy Oakes, Jean Rudy.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

When you hear the bouncing of a ball, the scream of a girl, and the shrill blow of a whistle, don't get excited. It is just the Girls' Athletic Association being called to order by their advisor, Miss Fern Frey.

Thirty-six girls were members of G.A.A. this year. These girls worked and played together under the able leadership of their officers: Gladys Orndorff, president; Jo Anne Moreland, vice-president; Charlotte Orndorff, secretary; and Keytha Carroll, treasurer.

G.A.A. had two special projects this year. It prepared a Christmas basket for a needy family in the community and had a fall cook-out.

Important activities of the year were: an ice skating party, hiking, and the learning of new and different games.
KEY CLUB

As a service organization, the Key Club has carried out its purpose very well in its many and varied projects. Several of their community projects included helping the Kiwanis Club paint the local park wading pool and cooperating in the Bread Drive for polio. The boys also helped a neighboring community, Arcanum, by collecting books for that library which was destroyed by fire.

To get the money to help in these projects, the club sold ballpoint pens and foam-rubber cushions. They also sponsored a Snowball Dance on February 12, 1960, at which Sue Shipley was chosen Snowball Queen.

All of this could only have been accomplished by willing followers and these able leaders: Jim Cassel, president; Ronnie Ruhl, vice-president; John Mutzner, secretary; Jay D. Wackler, treasurer; Mr. Larry Hillman, advisor.
Outstanding Students...

STUDENT COUNCIL

Homecoming, Career Day, Special Programs! Shouldering these responsibilities and many more, the Student Council made its presence known at Covington High. Four seniors, three juniors, two sophomores, and two freshmen were elected to this organization to direct the activities of the students and clubs.

Student Council affairs were carefully carried out under the able supervision of their two advisors, Miss Fern Frey and Mr. Ralph Allmann. Officers of the Student Council were Tom Carder, president; Carolyn Peters, vice-president; Roberta Deeter, secretary; and Ronnie Ruhl, treasurer.

These students met every Wednesday with their two advisors to discuss and iron out some of the problems of the school.

Two movies were shown to the student body as a money-making project in order to make an annual payment on the school's intercom system.
Who Competed for Honors

One hundred and ten seniors from Covington, Bradford, Newton, West Milton, and Bethel met at Covington on January 15, to take the Senior General Scholarship Test. This test consisted of five parts: English, history, mathematics, science, reading, and language. Ronald Ruhl received honorable mention in the county, while Robert Buchanan received honorable mention in the county, the Miami district, and the state. These two boys also received admission with honors at Miami University.

On May 7, twenty-six students who had rated first and second in the Preliminary District Scholarship Tests, took the Final District State Scholarship Tests. For the first time, these tests were given at Piqua, rather than at Miami University.

At the District tests, Division II, Loretta Warner placed sixth in bookkeeping, Janet Brumbaugh placed sixteenth in algebra, Robert Buchanan placed fifth in physics, and Dennis Meyer placed tenth in chemistry. Loretta Warner and Robert Buchanan also received honorable mention in the state.
COVINGTON HIGH SCHOOL

Covington High School Band, under the direction of Mr. Larry Hillman, participated in many outstanding events this year. During the summer of 1959, the band members attended the Firemen's Convention at St. Mary's and won second place honors. They also went to band camp at Sabina, Ohio, where they worked to create their well-organized marching group.

Band Day at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, gave our band, along with many others, an opportunity to participate in the half-time show of the Miami University vs. Villanova University Game.

Although the band presented colorful shows at all Covington Football games, the two most outstanding during the season were: The Homecoming Game, in which a formation of a crown was made for the Queen and her attendants to walk through; and the "Farewell to Seniors" show, which honored all senior band members. Mr. Hillman solemnly shook hands with all the seniors and then presented each girl with a beautiful mum.

Many special events took place during concert season. Positions in concert band were awarded to members according to how well they performed in their try-outs. The band had the honor of having Vic Hyde as their guest at the Spring Concert. Superior honors were won at the District Contest, which enabled the participants to take part in the State Band Contest at Springfield. A number of groups also participated in the State Solo and Ensemble Contest, where many high ratings were received.

Annual Candy Drive was conducted to raise funds for another week at band camp this summer.

Fourteen Dance Band members presented special concerts at the Varsity Show and several P.T.A. meetings.

The following band members have served as officers this year: president, Kathy Zimmerman; vice-president, Jay Wackler; and secretary-treasurer, Sandra Van Hise.

HIGHLANDERS

The Highlanders of Covington High School go into action as the high-stepping girls march onto the field in their bright uniforms.

Led by their captain, Sandra Leeper, and co-captains, Keytha Carroll and Lavona Cissner, twenty-three girls spent hours practicing routines and drilling for those Friday night football games. Band camp was also attended this year.

Working right along with the band, the Highlanders gave us some very enjoyable entertainment during half-time activities of all Covington football games, at Miami University on Band Day, at the Bradford Pumpkin Show, and in the Annual Variety Show.

Mrs. Virginia Miller is to be credited for working out the routines and helping the girls get organized.

Highlanders and band members prepare to march onto the field for half-time activities at the Homecoming game.
CHORUS

Take fourteen sopranos. Add seven second sopranos. Blend fifteen altos with seven basses. Out comes an aggregation known as the Covington High School Chorus, which even the director, Mr. Larry Hillman, was proud.

For the first time this year, the choruses had their own officers. The officers for the eleventh and twelfth grade chorus were: Kathy Kimmel, president; Keytha Carroll, vice-president; Lavona Cissner, secretary-treasurer. The officers for the ninth and tenth grade chorus were: Bonnie Wise, president; Mary Jo Barga, vice-president; Kathy Yoder, treasurer; Donna Miller, secretary.

The girls' chorus gave a short concert at the annual Christmas chapel services given for the high school students. Both choruses gave two other concerts. They were: a winter concert held in February, and a Spring Musical Festival held in May.

Yearbook Staff Works Vigorously

Having started busily working at the opening of the school year, the 1960 Buccaneer Staff faced many problems. Soon class pictures, alphabetizing, and checking names consumed their time, their thoughts, and their energy.

Copy writers searched for material. Editors reread copy, rewrote it, stretched it, proofread it, and finally printed it.

Plenty of paper work was waiting for the business staff. Numbers were juggled about and finally balanced so that transactions could be settled.

Members of the senior class filled the treasury by their efforts. They pounded the pavement and smiled as merchants agreed to be their advertisers once again.

After the completion of months of struggling, the entire staff felt relieved. They smiled as they recalled the pleasant memories of good times enjoyed as they prepared the 1960 Buccaneer for all Covingtonians.

Jerry Shields, Varsity "C" member, presents roses to Homecoming Queen, Linda Feeser.

Several hundred football fans turned out to see Miss Linda Feeser, Varsity "C" candidate, crowned as Covington High School's Homecoming Queen for 1959-60.

Queen's court consisted of Gladys Orndorff, nominated by F.A., escorted by Roger Clark; Jeannie Eichelberger, nominated by F.A., escorted by Jim Rike; Darlene Nishwitz, nominated by F.T.A., escorted by Jack Manning; Keytha Carroll, nominated by G.A.A., escorted by Bill Wirrig; Sandra Leeper, nominated by Hi-Y, escorted by Don Creager; Linda Yeamans, nominated by Tri-Hi-Y, escorted by Doug McRoy; and Sue Shipley, nominated by Key Club, escorted by Hershel Hunt.

Election, conducted by the Student Council, was held on the morning of October 23, 1959. The queen was elected by the upper four grades in the high school building.

Later in the evening, during halftime activities, the Band and Highlanders presented their version of the 1959 Homecoming. They then formed a crown, which the attendants and their escorts walked through, while the band played "Tammy." After the last girl and her escort came through the crown, a representative of the Student Council announced the name of the Homecoming Queen. The football team then presented the queen with a dozen red roses.

Following the game, a dance in honor of the queen was held in the high school gymnasium. Music was furnished by Newton High School's Rhythm Teens.

"Every Family Has One," the 1960 Senior Class Play, was presented on November 20, 1959, with the following cast members:

Mrs. James Parker ............................................... Kathy Kimmel
Penelope Reardon .................................... Sue Shipley
Laura Reardon .......................................................... Carolyn Peters
Nana Reardon .......................................................... Sandra Emery
Reginald Reardon ................................................. Ronnie Ruhl
Marcia Reardon ...................................................... Gloria Ellis
Warry Reardon ..................................................... Dwaine Shawver
James Parker .......................................................... Jim Cassel
Sherwin Parker ....................................................... Bill Wirrig
Lily Reardon .......................................................... Sandra Leeper
Todd Galloway ....................................................... Roger Clark
Essie ............................................................... Darlene Nishwitz

The play, based upon a typical American family whose eccentricities, if hilarious, were only normal. Laura, the mother, was deliriously happy because she had engineered a match between her daughter, Marcia, and wealthy Sherwin Parker. The youngest Reardon, Penelope, was a demon with a slingshot and the piano. Warry, the only son, was positive he was the coming Eugene O'Neill. Reginald, the father, would rather tinker with the automobile than ticker tape; and Nana, the wise-cracking grandmother, was only concerned with Elvis Presley records and getting rid of the Parkers. Nana succeeded in doing this with the help of Cousin Lily, an adorable liar from down home with stage aspirations. Lily, arriving unexpectedly, agreed to impersonate another Cousin Lily if Nana would help her get an acting job. Her performance as the skeleton in the Reardon closet was so convincing, and the lurid facts she revealed so hilariously shocking, that the mighty Parkers took to their heels in a hurry; and Marcia was reunited with the boy she really loved. Nana returned to her Elvis Presley records with the satisfaction of a job well done; and Warry decided that even though his distant relative was a bit on the daft side, she was the only girl for him.

Dreamy music, that one and only date, and a beautiful setting, all add up to a wonderful evening which is exactly the description of the 1960 Junior-Senior Prom.

To start the evening, a dinner, prepared by the mothers of the Juniors, was served cafeteria style in the elementary building multi-purpose room. At 9 p.m. all adjourned to the gym of the high school where we entered a wonderful land of enchantment. Using a theme of “Carrousel,” the Juniors had turned the gym into a magic land of blue and silver, class colors of 1960. As we chose our partners for the first dance to the music of Vert Agenbroad’s orchestra, we, the seniors, came to realize that this was our reward for twelve long years of hard work and study.

This year, after the last dance had been danced, we were to do something different. It had been arranged for us to attend the movies at Schine's Theater in Piqua, where we saw one of the newest hit shows of the year, “Who Was That Lady?” starring Tony Curtis and Janet Leigh.

However, the end was not yet in sight. At 3:30 a.m. we returned to the elementary building where we were served a delicious breakfast of eggs and sausage. After breakfast, a drawing was held and thirty door prizes were awarded to persons bearing the lucky numbers.

Thus ended our “all-night prom” — the first such experience for Covington High School. Let it go down in school history as a night enjoyed and remembered by all.

and Their Dates

Make a Night of It.
The 1960 Graduating Class presented their own Commencement Program on May 24, 1960. The seventy-seven members of the graduating class were led into the high school gymnasium by the juniors, who formed a candlelight archway. The seniors entered the gym to the tune of "Pomp and Circumstance."

The program consisted of speeches by the valedictorian, Loretta Warner, "Life's Dividends"; and the salutatorian, Janet Barga, "The Sky is the Limit."

Sandra Emery played an organ solo entitled "Traumerei and Romanzi," and Linda Stocker played an oboe solo entitled "Sonatines."

A senior sextet consisting of Loretta Warner, Janet Stickelman, Gladys Orndorff, Judy Brumbaugh, Sandra Leeper, and Carolyn Peters sang "May You Always."

Pam Shields, Sue Shipley, Kathy Zimmerman, Linda Yeamans, Linda Feeser, Kathy Kimmel, Bonnie Catterlin, Lavona Cissner, and Janet Forsythe sang "Graduation Day."

Mr. A. O. Gross, Superintendent of Schools, gave the program introduction and Mr. Louis Apwisch, High School Principal, presented the awards.

The entire class sang the "Alma Mater" and "No Man Is an Island." Miss Helen Holfinger was the organist.

Invocation was given by Reverend Donald R. Morgan, while Benediction was given by Reverend George M. Stadler.

Concluding the evening was the presentation of the diplomas to the seniors by the Board of Education President, Mr. Howard Buchanan.

Thus ended the commencement of the largest class ever to graduate from Covington High School.

Bernadine and Betty Lou head for the window fearful that they are about to be discovered.

First-Time Actors... Real Success

“Happy Daze,” a three-act comedy, was presented by the Junior Class on March 18, 1960. The play was under the direction of Mr. Harry Howarth and Mrs. Connie Ecklar, co-director. The cast consisted of the following people: Mr. Maxwell, Jay D. Wackler; Mrs. Maxwell, Sandra Van Hise; Wilbur Maxwell, Denny Lavy; Connie Maxwell, Mona Rank; Betty Lou Maxwell, Janice Gaver; Bernadine Smith, Linn Purdy; Hercules Nelson, John Mutzner; Mrs. Brown, Nancy Stump; Aunt Mary, Barbara Powell; Mr. Mallory, Mike Vogt; Elmur and Muggsy, Tom Fenner and Bruce Yarian.

One of the most hectic stages in a girl’s life is that heart-rending time when she finds herself too old to do what she used to do, but too young to do what she wants to do. That was exactly what was staring Betty Lou Maxwell square in the face.

In order to get some attention drawn to herself, Betty Lou and Bernadine planned a kidnapping. All ended in confusion and excitement when real kidnappers took Wilbur. The tables were turned on Betty Lou, and Wilbur received all the attention.

Betty Lou is really kidnapped by those two ferocious characters, Elmur and Muggsy.

The whole family rejoices over the return of Wilbur.

Brisk breezes are blowing and the stands are crowded with excited fans, ready to cheer the Buccs on to victory. As the Buccs come onto the field, the air is filled with excitement, and the confidence of the team is evident as they prepare to meet their opponents. The team warms up and gets ready for action, then everyone stands at attention for the National Anthem. The Buccs form a huddle and have a moment of silence before they are ready to play.

Twenty-six players began the season with the Buccs but, because of injuries, they had only 20 to 22 eligible. They didn't let that stop them! They practiced every evening after school until 5:15. Who said, "Practice makes perfect"? Well, he certainly was right, because we had the next best thing to a perfect team. The Buccs were defeated once, and they set a new offensive record of 386 points. They also broke their defensive record with only 42 points scored against them.

Some of the games that caused the Buccs the most worry were: Versailles, Dayton Kaiser, and West Milton. Covington met Versailles on their field and won 40 to 14. It was the first time in five years the Buccs had beaten Versailles. Later, Covington met Dayton Kaiser at Smith Field and shut them out 32 to 0. When it came to West Milton, though, the Buccs had their work cut out for them. Covington met West Milton at Memorial Stadium and lost 6 to 14. This was the last game of the season for the Buccs, and the only one they lost.

Community members have good reason to be proud of their Covington Buccaneers as this was an exceptionally good year for them. The cooperation of the boys and the capable coaching of Mr. Irvin, head coach, and his assistants Mr. Dunn and Mr. Banes can be credited for the success of the team.

So On, On, On...
Approximately twelve boys made up the Varsity team. Even though they were small in number, they did not let anything stop them in the Non-County Tournament held at Bradford. They won over Sidney Holy Angels and then went on to beat Bradford, bringing home the Non-County Tournament Trophy.

Only two senior boys were lost this year, Fred Davis and Tom Carder. The starting line-up usually consisted of Fred Davis, Captain, forward; Steve Wells, forward; Bob Hartley, center; Jerry Fessler, guard; John Holsinger, guard. The boys had the backing of their fine coaching staff: Mr. Frank Dunn, assisted by Mr. Blair Irvin.

The players admitted that basketball was a lot of fun and there was great satisfaction in it. But, along with the fun and the excitement of the games, there was a great deal of hard work and a training schedule to keep. The Buccs deserved a great deal of credit in keeping up their morale, increasing their skill both defensively and offensively by each game's experience until they hit their peak by winning the Non-County Tournament.

Fight to the End...

Shortly before the game, the boys gather round Coach Dunn for last-minute instructions.
Sam Bashore tries for basket as a Bethel player blocks his shot.

Both teams anxiously wait for the ball, which seems to be in a state of suspended animation.

You Must Win...

Upon looking over the Reserve Basketball Team, coached by Blair Irvin, it appears that they had a little more luck than the Varsity. They were able to win half of their games, and a few of the others were very close. There were a couple of games that were lost by a very few points, which can be heart-breaking for a squad with the drive that ours had.

Composed mostly of sophomores, the reserve team possessed plenty of drive and determination. They had both height and weight. Each boy on the team was playing for the others and the school, not for himself. If this persists through the next two years, basketball should be on the upswing at Covington High School.

Being a member of the basketball team didn't mean just playing on Friday and sometimes Saturday night. It meant being at practice every evening after school and getting a hard workout.

Each boy is already looking forward to next year's season, and hoping to do better than this year. It doesn't have to be mentioned either, that each boy is trying and hoping for that one chance to be a member of the Varsity Team.

So Fight, Fight, Fight, for Covington High

The Buccaneer Track Team has had an exciting season for both the team and Coach Blair Irvin. Coach Irvin has had good reason to be proud of his team. One of the highlights of the season was the winning of the District Track Meet; it was the first year Covington ever placed first in the district. The Buccs also placed third in the Little Buckeye League, second in the Covington Invitational Meet, first in the Stillwater Valley League, and second in the Miami University Meet.

Three records were broken this season. Bob Hartley set a new shot-put record with a distance of 53 feet, 7½ inches. He also broke the discus record with a heave of 149 feet, 4 inches. Jack Manning broke the record of the 880 yard run, setting a new record to the time of 2 minutes, 8.6 seconds. Larry McKenzie pole vaulted to a height of 10 feet, 7¾ inches, breaking the old record of 10 feet, 6¾ inches.

Covington High School will certainly cheer the team on to victory in the State Track Meet at Columbus.
Baseball Team Has Incentive to Win

Given the incentive to win, which may have been due to the new baseball diamond, the baseball team tromped six out of eight of their opponents. Three games caused quite a bit of excitement. Winning by a margin of only one point, the Buccs came out on top.

Six seniors leave the team this year: Bob Livingston, left field; Don Creager, catcher; Bob Buchanan, second base; Fred Davis, center field; Paul Althoff, left field; and Ronnie Ruhl, right field.

Coached by Frank Dunn, who for the first time tried his hand at coaching baseball at Covington, proved the season to be a successful and rewarding one.

Senior Year Ends With a Kid Party

Fred Davis, Don Creager, Jerry Shields, Jim Sampson, Paul Perrine, Doug McRoy, and Jack Manning look like a gang of "Little Rascals."

The kid party gave the seniors a chance to go back to their childhood.

and Trip to

Dwaine Shawver really goes for that Coke! Who wouldn't with Sue Shipley holding the bottle.

Linda Stocker, Darlene Nishwitz, Vickie Levy, Judy Foureman, and Larry Clouse visit the Lincoln Memorial.

Seniors return to their bus after having viewed Mirror Lake and Washington's Monument.

Alma Mater

Our strong band can ne'er be broken formed in Covington High,
Far surpassing wealth unspoken
Sealed by friendship's tie.
Alma Mater, Alma Mater
Deep graven on each heart
Shall be found unwavering true
Till we from life shall part.

As we Seniors go out from Covington High School, we take with us some very dear and precious memories — some of them good, some bad.

We will always remember how wonderful and new everything seemed when we became freshmen. It was hard work at first, but the four short years went by in a hurry and here we are — Seniors.

Some of us are going to look back with regret and wish we had tried a little harder and made better grades. All that is past now, so we must be content with what we have accomplished thus far. But no matter where we go or what we do, we will always remember our dear old Alma Mater.
