

THE BUCCANEER

BUCCANEER

1963

Through the Looking Glass

*Volume XVI
Covington High School
Covington, Ohio*

Foreword

Reflections of the past are constantly creeping into our minds. As years and experiences progress, these memories become a living part of us. Looking back over this past year, we find many of the same happy memories. Because our lives are not intended to be rosy paths, we also suffer hardships. As we grow older, we learn to live with our joys and sorrows. Memorable activities which will be remembered by all who are leaving Covington High School are many. The sorrows, we hope, are few. As you glance through this book and recognize close friends, also seek to find reflections of years gone by.

Editor

Dedication

The Senior Class of 1963 proudly dedicates this, the 1963 Buccaneer, to its former classmate, Cordelia Stephens, who departed on June 17, 1962. She is sadly missed by her fellow classmates and teachers.

While in school, she participated in extracurricular activities serving as editor-in-chief of the newspaper, member of the National Honor Society, chorus, scholarship team, science club, highlanders drill team, and the yearbook staff. She would have served as editor-in-chief of this year's Annual.

Principal's Message

Every now and then, a summing-up of our lives serves a useful purpose. Even though a decade may have passed, we realize the value of this retrospective view.

The "Buccaneer" over the years has revealed the accomplishments, the associations, and fond memories of those high school days always to be cherished, whether young or old.

It affords me great pleasure to extend congratulations to the staff and advisor of the 1963 Annual for their leadership and effort in presenting the activities of the school.

It is a privilege to extend to all 1963 graduates, best wishes for success and happiness in the days ahead.

L. A. Apwisch
Principal

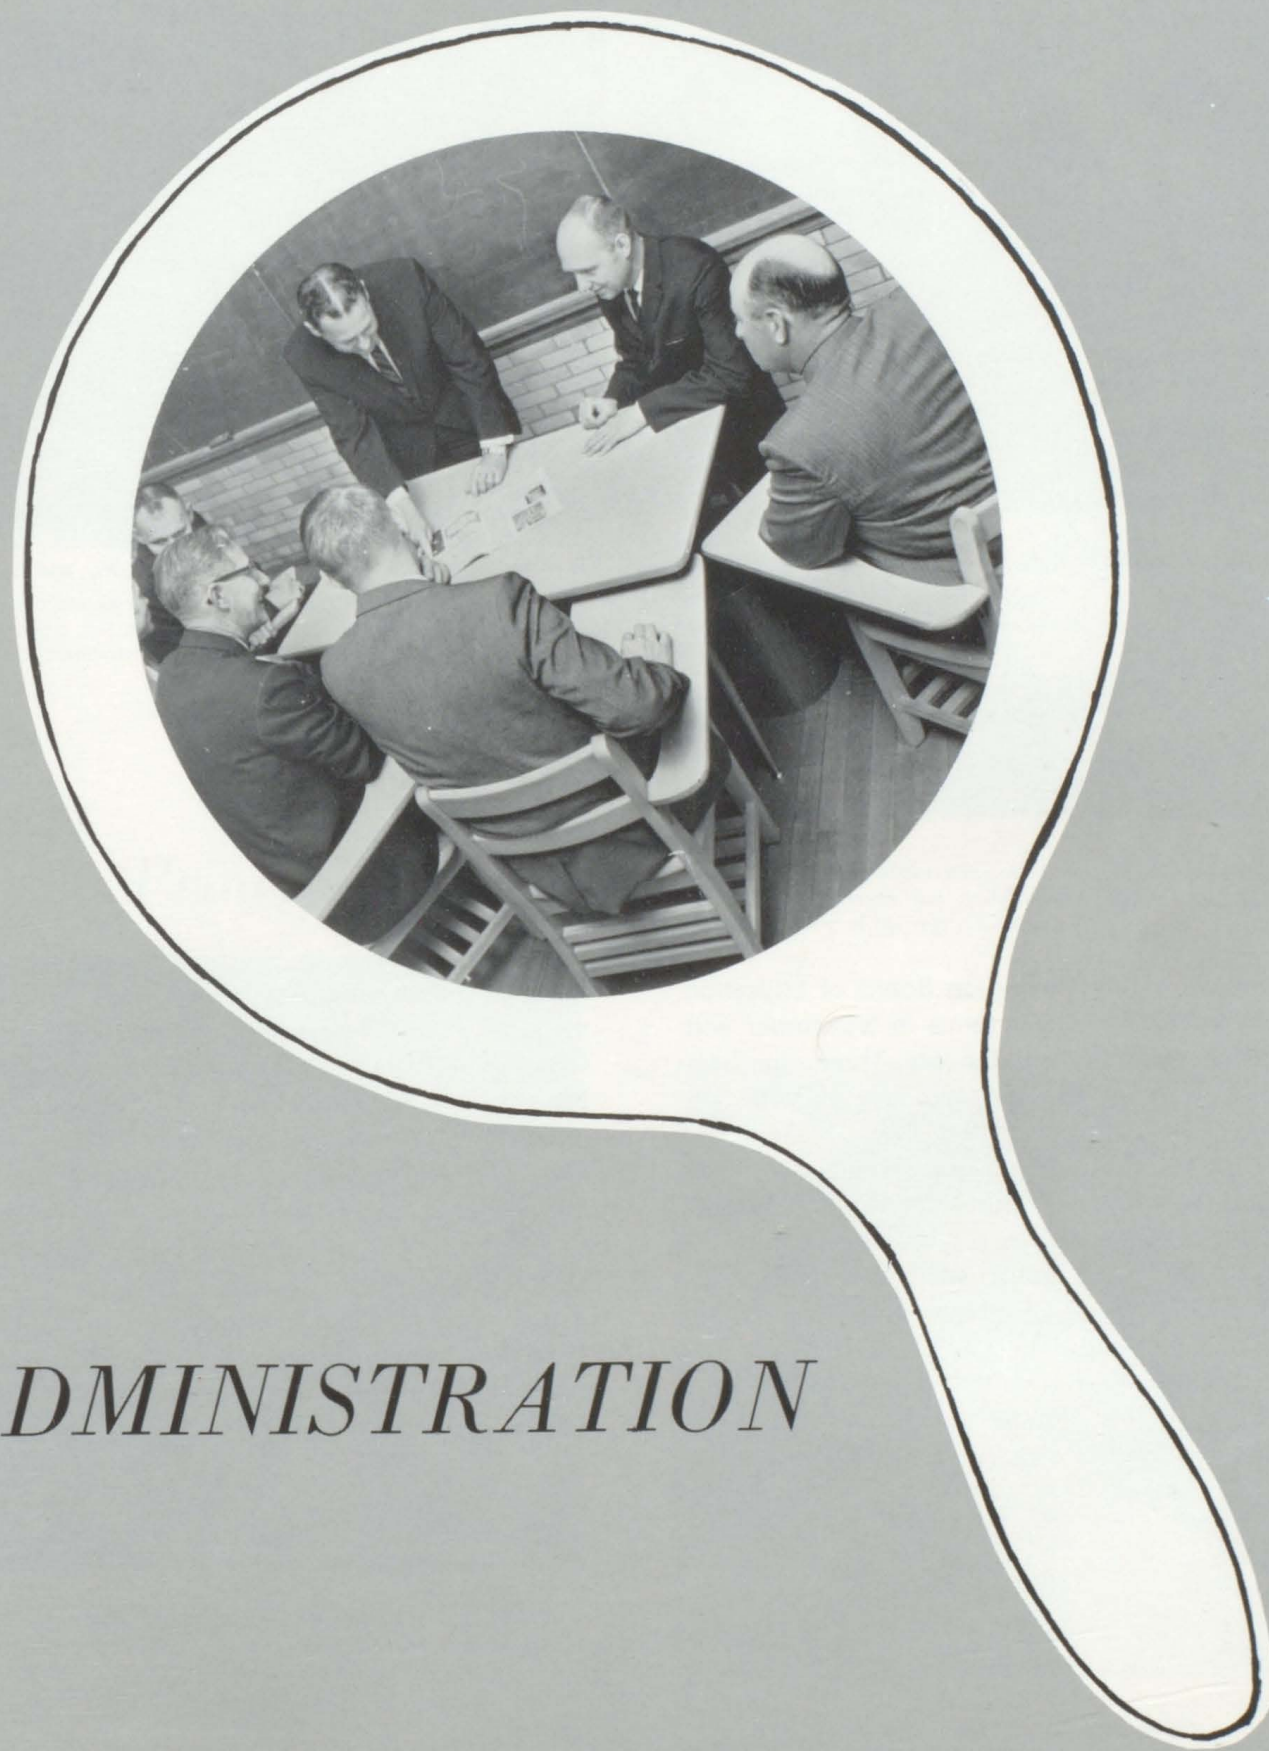

Superintendent's Message

The Seniors, who are responsible for the '63 Buccaneer, herein attempt to capture for posterity the things which, to them, make Covington High School memorable.

The record springs from the attitudes and ambitions of people and the goals to which they aspire. If this publication stirs within you a measure of pride, a spark of enthusiasm, a desire to excel or to continue your education, then it is indeed worthy of the many hours of hard work devoted to the creation of this book.

This image of the 1962-63 school year provides much that we can regard with pride and pleasure and we congratulate the Class of 1963 on the production of this review in retrospect.

C. S. Phillips,
Superintendent

ADMINISTRATION

Board of Education

Members of the Covington Board of Education are elected for four year terms in November and take office the following January. Three members are elected one year and two are elected two years later.

Present members of the board hold prominent positions within our community. Paul Finrock, president of the board, is a successful farmer.

J. Robert Carder, District Manager of the Dayton Power and Light Company, serves on the Finance Committee, Building and Grounds Committee, Transportation Committee, and is also a representative to the Athletic Board.

Raymond Garst is employed as a supervisor of the plastic department of Hobarts in Troy. He is a member of the Planning Committee, Building and Grounds Committee, Transportation Committee. He also is a representative to the Athletic Board.

Bill Zimmerlin works as an assistant cashier and Farm Representative for the Citizens National Bank. He serves on the Finance Committee, Planning Committee, and the Building and Grounds Committee.

Frank Miller, Jr., is associated with Kinney's Men's Shop and serves on the Finance Committee, Planning Committee, and the Transportation Committee.

Our Citizens of Tomorrow

Superintendent

Papers on the desk attest to the fact that our superintendent, Mr. Phillips, has plenty to keep him busy; but he's always informed about the activities of the school.

Administration

As secretary to the superintendent and clerk of the Board of Education, Mrs. Hayes has quite a task before her. Signing checks is just one of her many duties.

Principal

Mr. Apwisch, high school principal, maintains a busy schedule. Students seeking advice are often found to be at conferences in his office.

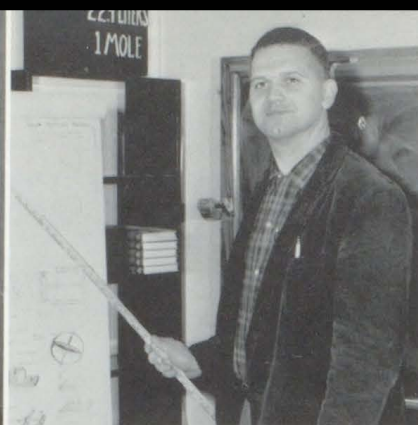

Mrs. Sweigart leads a highly active day as secretary to the principal. She has helped many students with small problems.

Bus Drivers

Students rode to and from school on busses driven by Mr. Charles Boyer, Mr. Vernon Flick, Mr. Robert Shellabarger, Mr. Clarence Millhouse, Mr. Carroll Whitmer, Mr. Harold Hess, and Mr. Charles Reiber.

Custodians

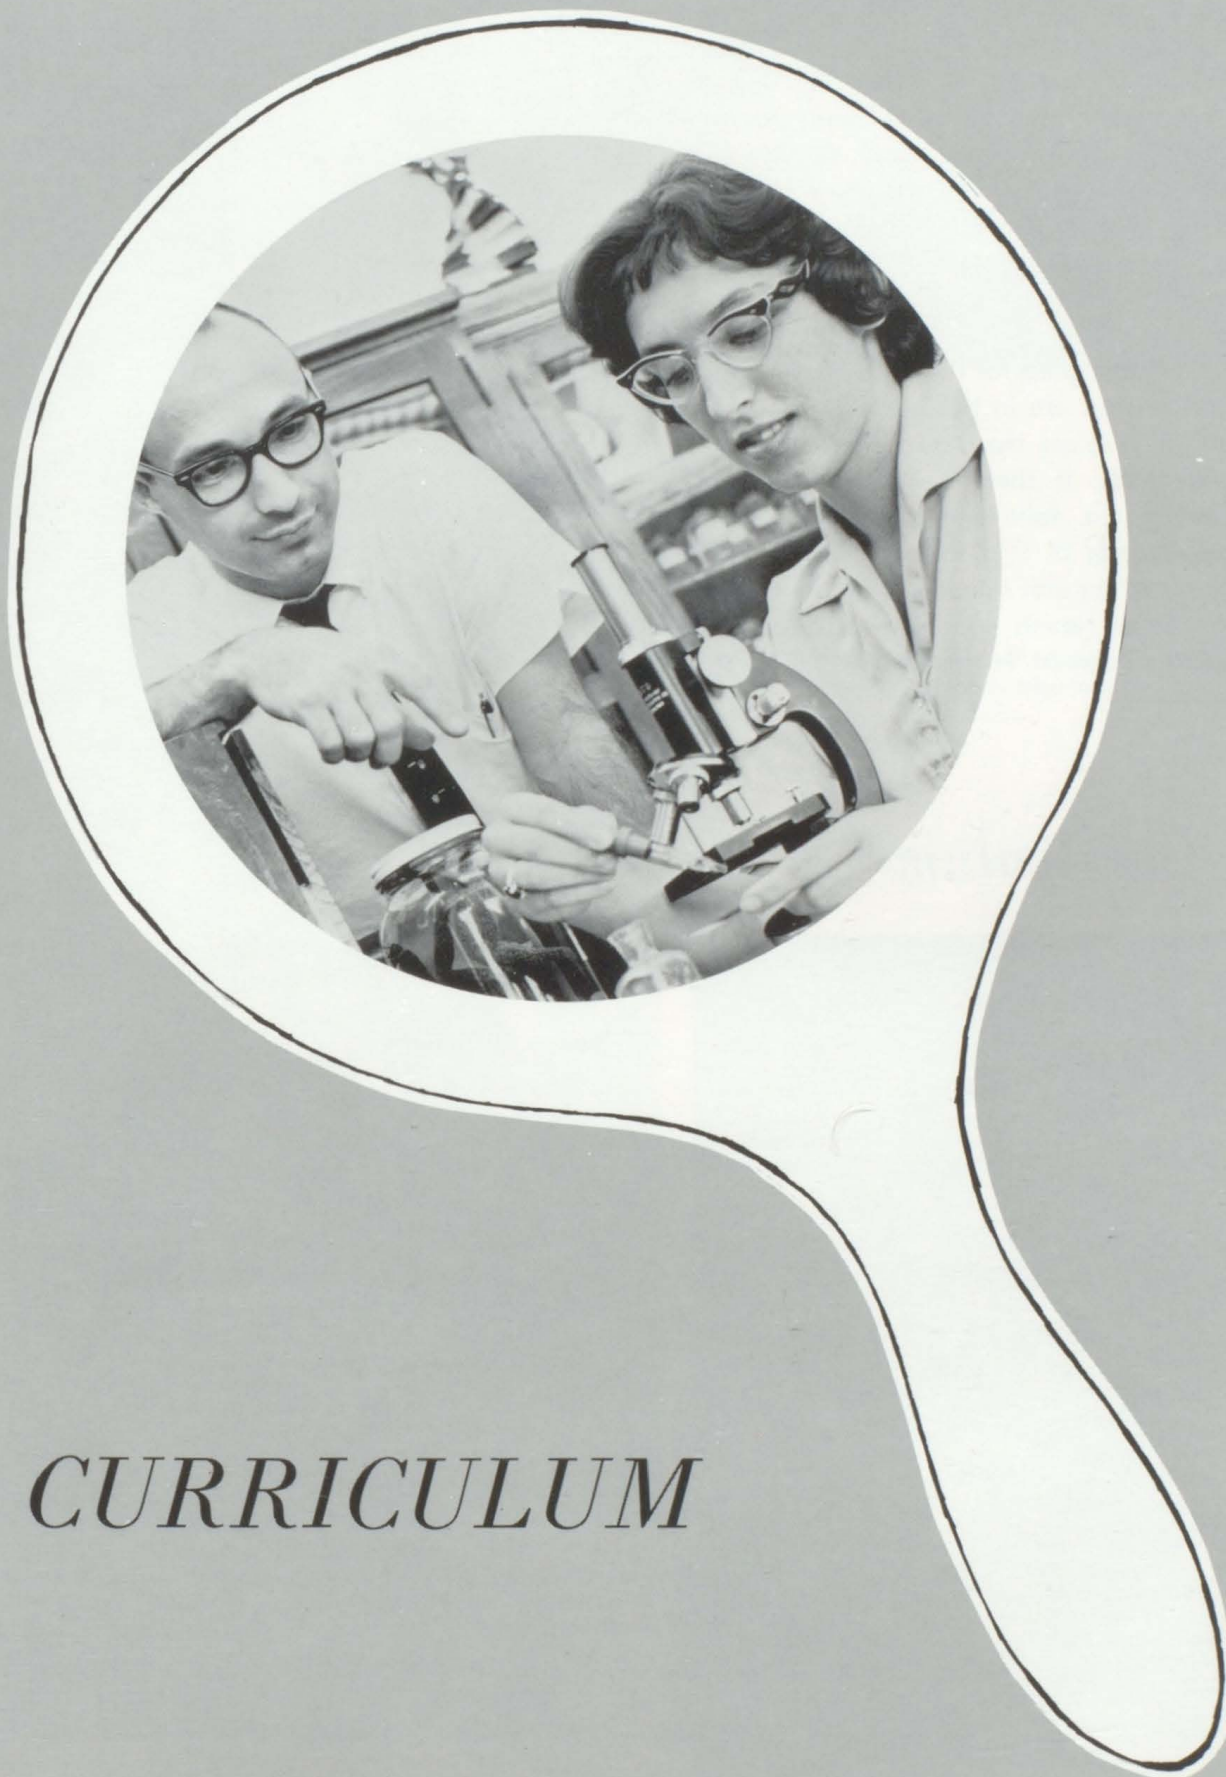

Mr. Carl Locker, Mr. J. L. O'Roark, and Mr. Paul Puterbaugh, serving as custodians, did a nice job on the maintenance of the school.

Cooks

Lunches were prepared and served in the cafeteria by Mrs. Betty Franke, Mrs. Wayne Wilk, Mrs. Eileen Helman, Mrs. Harold Deeter, and Mrs. Ruby Stickelman.

CURRICULUM

Classes Now Prepare

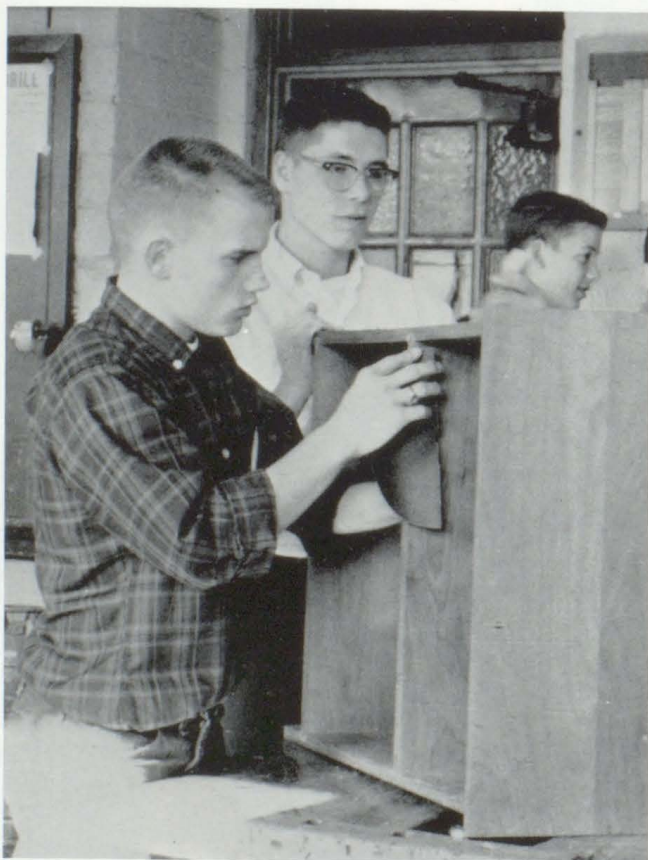

Covington High School has six plans from which students may choose: College Preparatory, which is required of those students planning to enter college; Home Economics for girls to prepare themselves for happy personal, family, and community living; Vocational Agriculture for boys interested in farming, or some other phase of agriculture; Industrial Arts, although still not expanded to its fullest capacity, is designed to meet the personal needs of the individual pupil; Business Education, designed for those students whose occupational wishes are in business.

Students may select their own plan of study, General Academic, if they wish, provided they keep in mind the following requirements for graduation: 3 units of English, 1 unit of mathematics, 1 unit of natural science, 2 units of social studies, 1 unit of Health and Physical Education, adding up to a total of 16 credits.

This is Mrs. Stadler's first year at Covington as guidance counsellor and librarian.

Curriculum

Bud Weer and Terry Byers are busy at work during Industrial Arts class on their wood working assignment.

Marilyn Pearson, Doris Ellis, and Peggy Mutzner are learning to use the equipment loaned to the department by the Dayton Power and Light Company.

College preparatory students study Latin to give them a broader knowledge and a better understanding of the English language.

Civics classes worked and gathered information in preparing for their political projects.

Us for the Future

Preparing for a secretarial career, girls in shorthand classes work to improve their shorthand speed and accuracy.

Boys in vocational agriculture classes work on various projects to gain knowledge in the agricultural field.

Special

Mr. Finkam presents the John Philip Sousa certificate and desk plaque to Sharon Eidemiller for her outstanding participation in band.

Marjorie Finrock proudly displays her trophy for being the outstanding girl in home economics. Janet Brumbaugh holds her salutatorian trophy.

Achievements

Vivian Hollopeter received the Athena Club award for the outstanding senior girl.

National Honor Society

Covington's Chapter of the National Honor Society is in its third year. Students maintaining at least a 3.0 average are admitted to candidacy for membership. Eligibility is then considered as to service, leadership, and character by the faculty members of the school. One induction was held this year in the fall. Those students inducted were: Sharon Carney, Judy Whitacre, Susan Deeter, Dennis Edwards, and John Schmidlapp. An award was given to the senior with the best average increase in grades during his four high school years. Probationary members have been done away with, and the organization now has only active junior and senior members.

Janet Brumbaugh was president, and Lolita Huffman served as the secretary-treasurer.

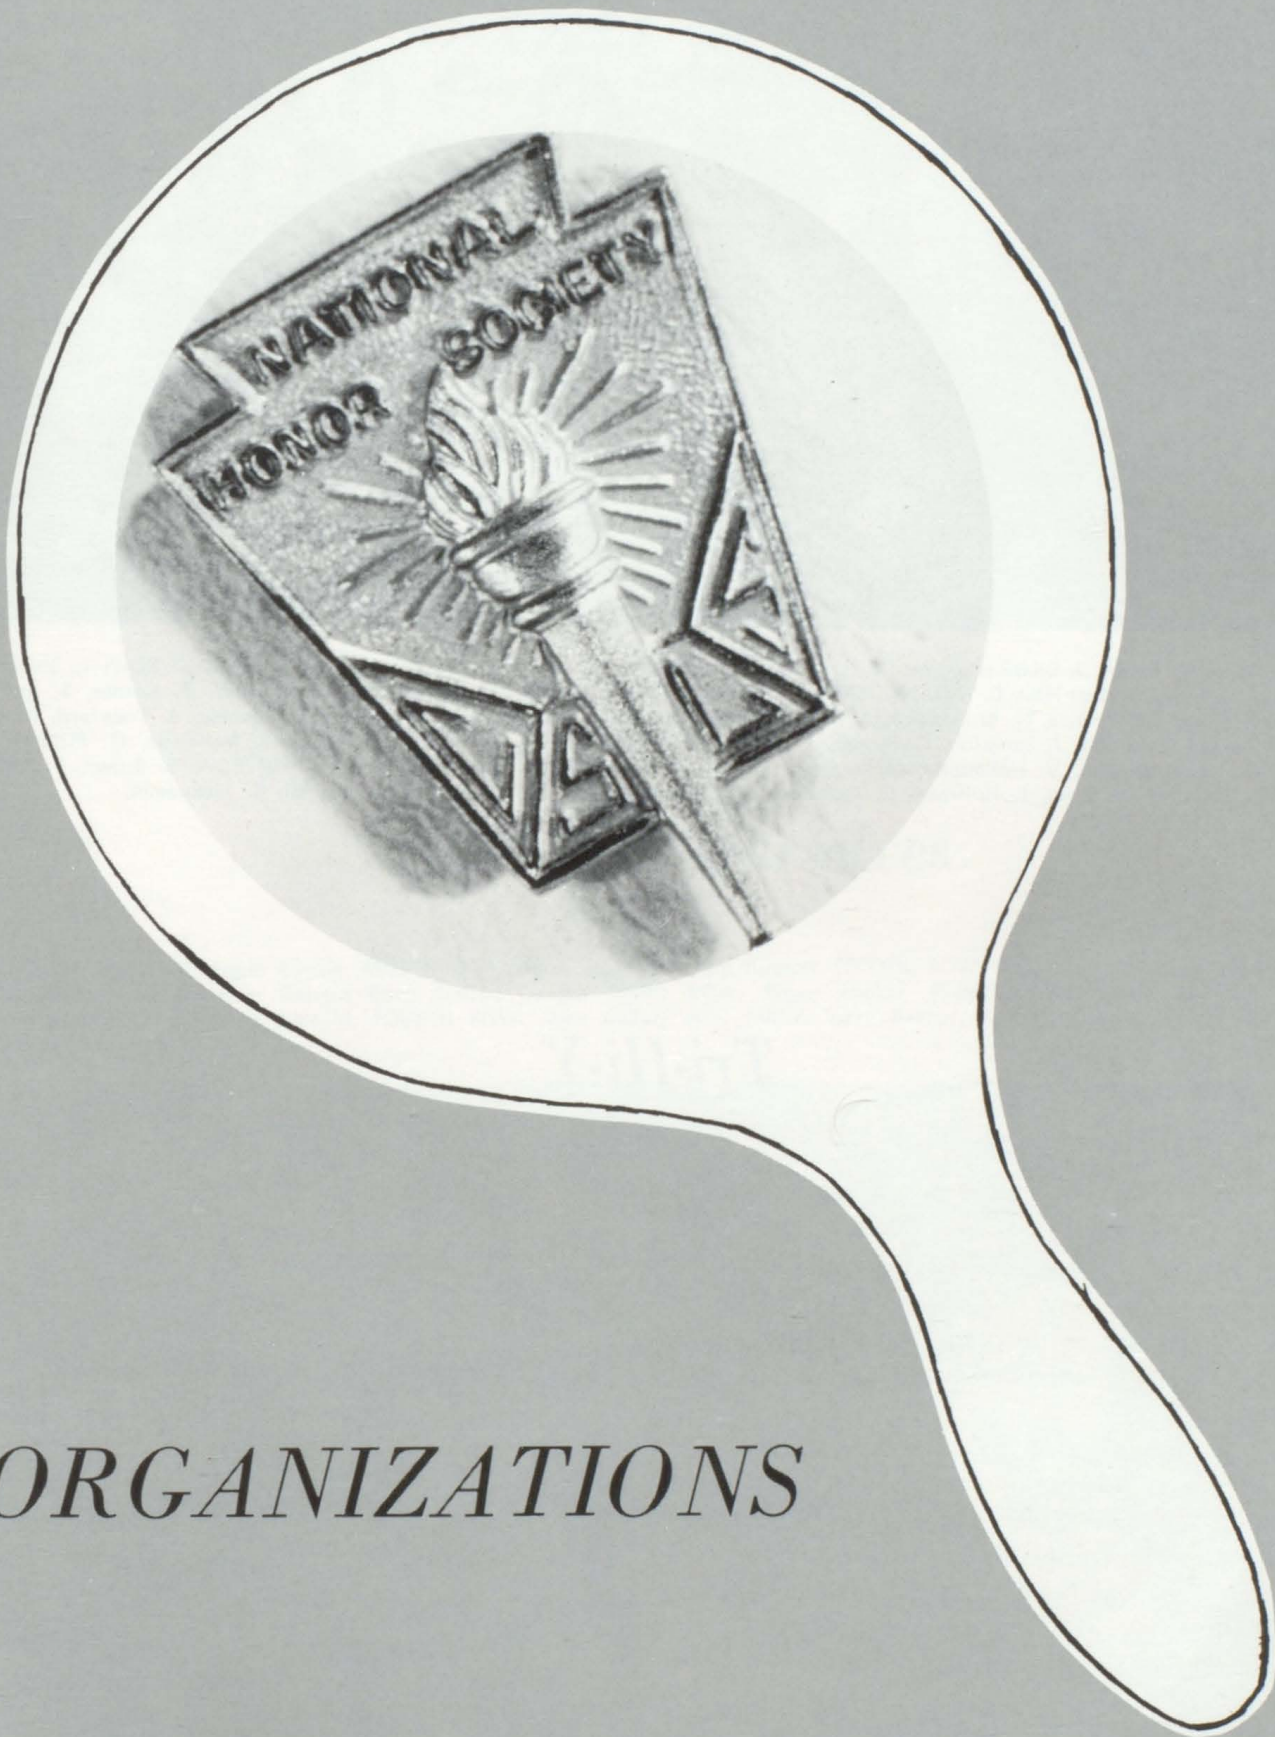

President, Janet Brumbaugh, conducts the meetings which are held in the school library at noon.

Tri-Hi-Y

Tri-Hi-Y opened its 1962-63 year with a potluck picnic at the home of Connie Peters. Honored were the seniors who graduated the previous spring. The new "members-to-be" were also invited.

Annual induction of new members into the Tri-Hi-Y Club was held at the Congregational Christian Church. Twenty-one were inducted making a total membership of 59 girls in Tri-Hi-Y.

Karen Ingle was hostess for a Halloween party on October 22, at which the girls dressed as nursery rhyme and fictional characters.

The Tri-Hi-Y Club was started in 1946 under the advisorship of Miss Helen Holfinger, who has done an outstanding job in that capacity during the entire sixteen years.

Hi-Y

Roger Batson and Gene Laughman represented the Hi-Y Club at Model Legislature in Columbus in April 1963.

Finances, a problem long plaguing Tri-Hi-Y, received a boost by the sharing of profits of the coat check at basketball games and Hi-Y Faculty Basketball Game with Hi-Y Club.

Annual Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y Parents' Banquet was held on November 27, 1962 in the Elementary Building. The speaker was Reverend Vernon Powell who spoke on fatalism. The mixed ensemble sang "It's a Grand Night for Singing" and "Moments to Remember." Benediction was given by Reverend Clair Beatty.

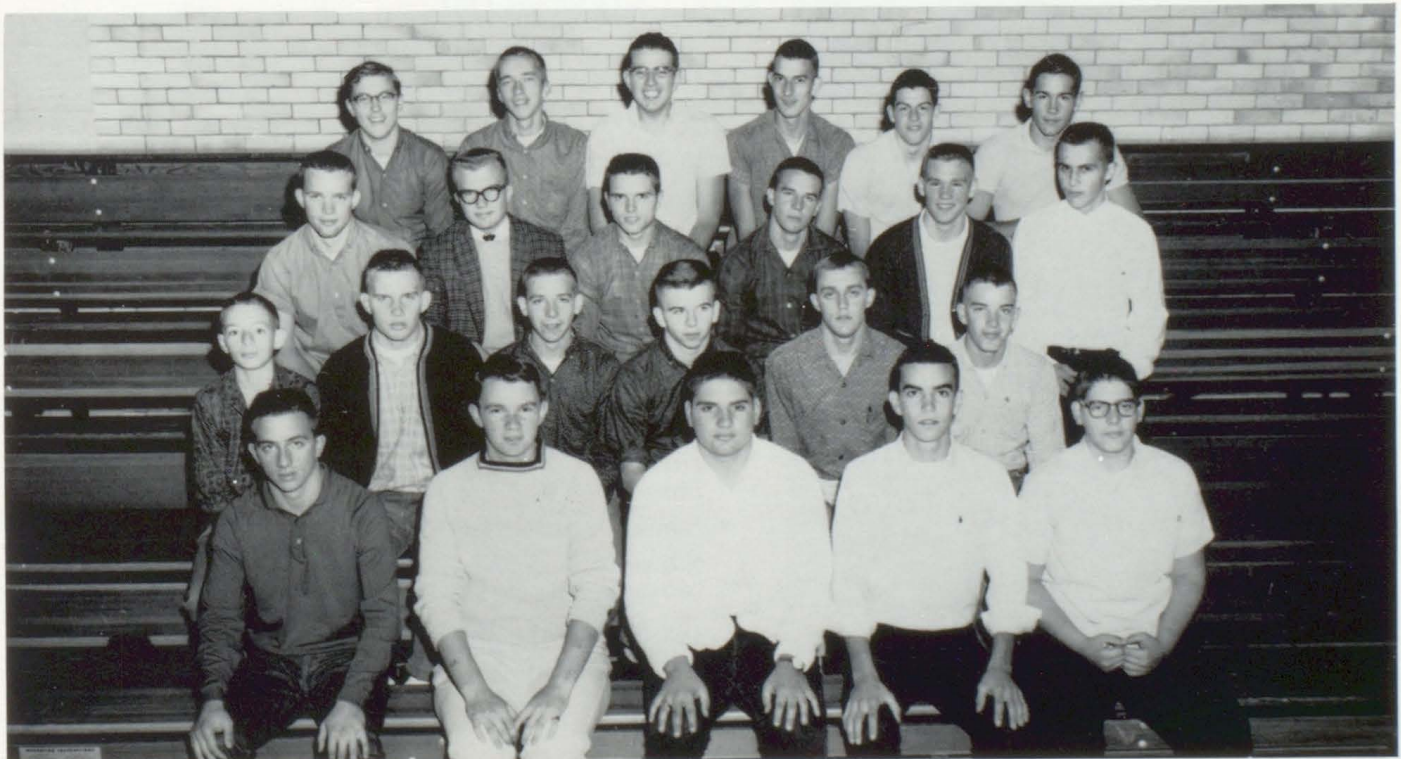

Hi-Y officers for the year 1962-63 were: Roger Batson, president; Gene Laughman, vice president; Jim Ruhl, secretary; Tim Hudson, treasurer; Mike Hudson, chaplain. New to the staff this year was their advisor, Mr. Tom Steele.

Looks like a busy night at the coat check for these two Hi-Y members.

Much Better Citizens

Jeanette Sampson posts one of the many signs which boost the athletic teams.

Under the advisorship of Mrs. Lewis Dewey, the Pep Club does its best to support the school athletic teams in sports. The Club's members attended the home games in basketball and football. They made many signs which were very inspiring to the teams. Several projects, including bake sales, were carried on to earn money for a banner which they hope to present to the school the year of 1963-64.

Officers were: Gloria Minnich, president; Marsha Garst, vice president; and Connie Fenner, secretary-treasurer.

Student Council

Landscaping plans for the front of the high school building, as drawn up by Mr. Jim Montgomery at the request of last year's Student Council, are now being headed by the Board of Education.

New to the Student Council this year was a library fund. This fund is for purchasing new books requested by students.

Black and white felt pennants were sold by the Student Council at basketball games as well as at the school. Bookcovers were again sold to students for the protection of school books.

Student Council collaborated this year with the American Legion in distributing Christmas baskets to needy families.

Student Council officers were as follows: Susan Crawford, president; Vivian Hollopeter, vice president; Barbara Etter, secretary; Tim Martin, treasurer. Advisors were Miss Fern Frey and Mr. Ralph Allmann. Mrs. Wine substituted in the absence of Miss Fern Frey.

Among other duties of the Student Council is to care for the new bulletin board given to the school by last year's Student Council.

Future Homemakers of America

FHA had a meeting for the grandmothers of the members. Each member told what her goal in life was. Another meeting was devoted to Safety and Civil Defense.

Marjorie Finfrock, president of the club, was the one member who worked for the State Homemaker Degree. This is the highest honor in FHA.

All members of the Covington Chapter worked for the Award of Merit.

Covington FHA hosted the County Rally this past year.

Bake sales were held in the high school before each holiday.

Officers were: Marjorie Finfrock, president; Kathryn Mader, vice president; Nancy Oakes, secretary; Edna Lyons, treasurer; Sue Spruance, chaplain; Billee Hartley, county officer; Nancy Robinson, parliamentarian and historian; advisor, Miss Rothermel.

Future Farmers of America

Covington Future Farmers have expanded from three acres of corn in the past year to a partnership in the farm of Mr. Johnson, as well as additional farm land. The reason for this expansion was to provide opportunities for more boys to participate in the program. This expansion was financed by grass mowing, garden plowing, etc.

Their farm program grossed $1,200, which was used to pay expenses and buy new equipment.

These boys do not spend all their time farming. On the social side, they play basketball and baseball. The big event of the year is their parents' banquet. This meeting was opened with parliamentary proceedings. Mr. Runyan then presented the awards that were earned. Talks on their trips to Kansas City and Michigan, taken during the summer, were given by members of the club. The meeting and banquet was brought to an end with a speech given by an officer of the State Chapter about his farming program.

FOURTH ROW: Bob Feeser, Allan Chaney, Dennis Edwards, Edward Musser, David Miller, Harry Moore, Tom Stahl, Joe Cornor, Bob Sellman.

Science Club

The big event of the year for the Science Club is the Science Fair. For this, club members spent at least five months preparing projects to be displayed in this annual exhibit held March 13.

Organizations to which the local science club is affiliated are: Science Clubs of America, Future Scientists of America, and Ohio Academy of Science.

Field trips taken by the club were to Tennessee where they visited the National Museum of Atomic Energy at Oakridge. In Gatlinburg, they enjoyed a picnic in the Smoky Mountains. Visits closer to home included the Aullwood Audubon Center and the National Museum of History in Dayton.

Officers were as follows: Cheryl McMaken, pres.; John Schmidlapp, vice pres.; Sue Schmidlapp, sec'y; Roger Batson, treas.; and advisors were Mr. Richard Lyons and Mr. Delmar Moyer.

Future Teachers of America

Mrs. Stadler spoke to the Future Teachers of America on being a guidance teacher. Mrs. Janice Meyer also spoke to them, but her subject was that of kindergarten teachers.

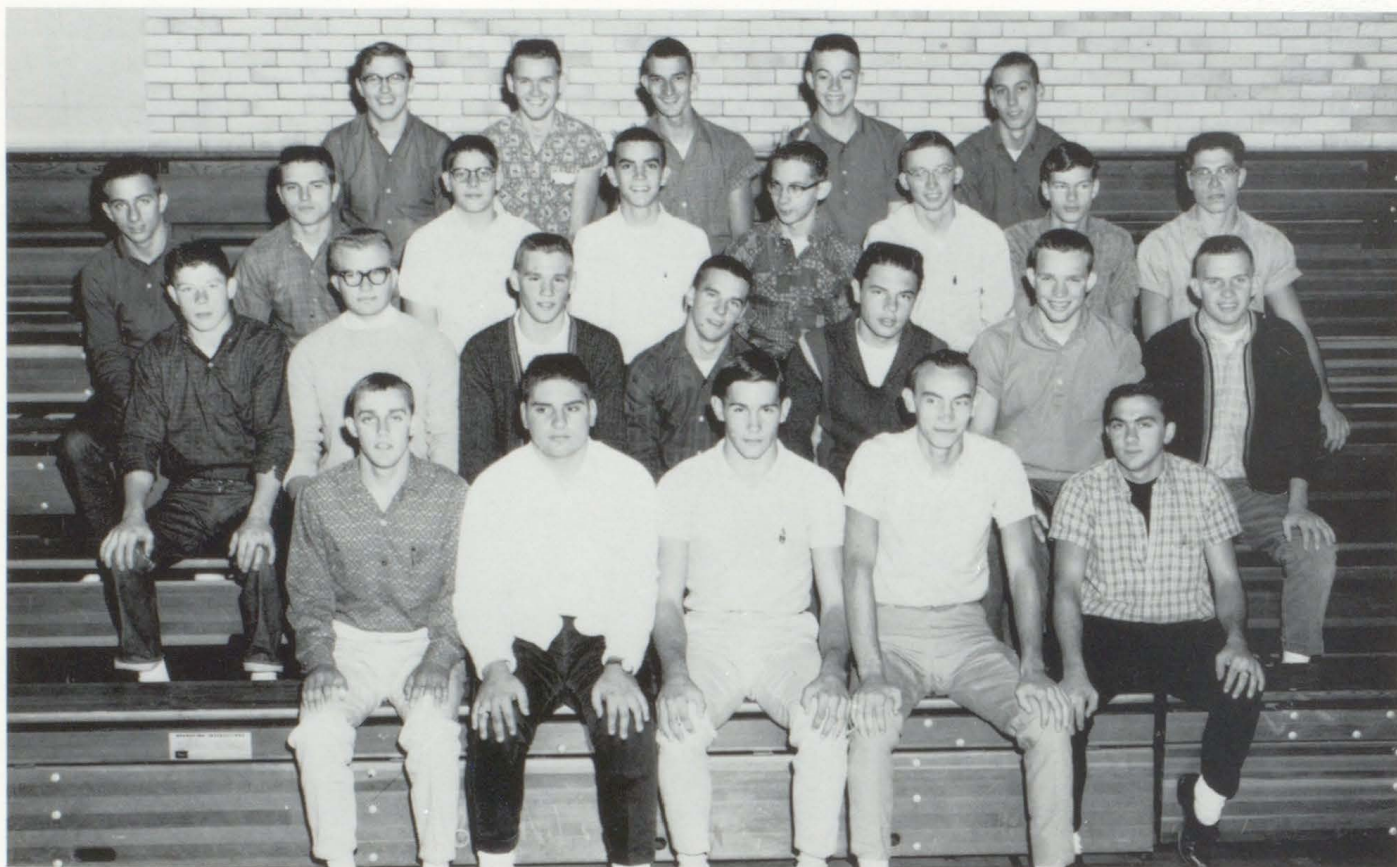

Members of the club made use of the lessons taught at their meetings by substitute teaching. At one period of time, many teachers were absent; and the members of F.T.A. took over their various jobs.

Offices were held by: Lolita Huffman, president; Helen Beatty, vice president; Marjorie Finfrock, secretary-treasurer; Susan Deeter, historian and librarian.

Lolita Huffman served as president of the F.T.A. throughout the year. She planned meetings and did student teaching.

Varsity "C" officers were: Mike Hudson, president; Carl Angle, vice president; Bob Nishwitz, secretary; and Rich Etter, treasurer. Howard Allman served as their advisor throughout the year.

Girls' Athletic Association

For the second consecutive year, G.A.A. girls participated in interschool sports, which included six volleyball games and seven basketball games, with various girls' athletic clubs in the area. An addition to the G.A.A. activities this year was a track and field schedule.

Among the projects undertaken by the group were a chili supper, preceded by a three-mile hike, and a St. Patrick's Day Shamrock Hop.

The officers were: Connie Peters, president; Elsie Knutsen, vice president; Jill Eshleman, treasurer; Jane Manning, secretary; Linda Weikert, reporter; and Mrs. Lewis Dewey was both advisor and coach. The club consisted of thirty-three girls.

Jennie Van Hise, Jane Thompson, Sherry Longendelpher, Nancy Franke, Connie Fenner, Dana Schilling, and Carol Hitchcock were the 1962-63 Highlander Drill Team.

Attending band camp at the Sabina Camping Grounds in Sabina, Ohio in August, 1962, the marching band and Highlanders learned new marching steps as well as new and different drills.

During half-time at football games, the Highlanders performed routines while the marching band played music for them. Competing in the Tipp City Mum Festival in October, the marching band and Highlanders received first place in Class B.

After football season the Highlanders disbanded; and the marching band reorganized into a concert band, which participated in these events: the Winter Concert, the Spring Concert, the District Band and Chorus contest on March 23, and the July 4 celebration.

Officers were elected by the Highlanders for the first time this year. Elected were: Jennie Van Hise, president; and Dana Schilling, secretary-treasurer.

Band officers were: Sharon Eidemiller, president; Roger Batson, vice president; and Vivian Hollopeter, secretary-treasurer.

Chorus

This year's chorus was the largest ever organized at Covington High School. There were 72 members.

They sang at several different churches, for their parents, at a PTA meeting, for the student body; and they attended the District Band and Chorus Contest which was held at Piqua on March 23.

Parents of the chorus members formed a committee to see about the purchasing of choir robes. Mr. John Miller was the president of the committee. Money was gained by soliciting.

Twelve chorus members attended a Music Festival at Ohio Wesleyan University in Delaware, Ohio on February 9.

Officers were: Connie Peters, president; Roger Batson, vice president; Sharon Eidemiller, secretary-treasurer; and advisor was Mr. David Finkam.

Tim Martin, Lolita Huffman, Roger Batson, Mike Hudson, Gene Laughman, Barbara Etter, Joyce Rhoades, pianist, Martha Ruhl, and Donna Miller made up the Octette.

and Helped Our Community

Key Club, a service organization for boys under the sponsorship of the Kiwanis, was led by the following officers: Dennis Edwards, president; John Schmidlapp, secretary-treasurer; Dave Miller, vice president; Mr. David Finkam and Mr. Forrest V. Miller, advisors.

Nine Key Clubbers attended the Ohio District Conference for Key Clubs at Ohio State University on November 3, 1962. Many different and interesting facts about what other Key Clubbers in the state are doing, and some of the responsibilities of a Key Club to their community were learned.

Projects successfully completed this year were the Snowball Dance, when Junior Jane Ann Hartley was crowned queen, and the selling of Key Club cushions at football and basketball games.

to the Best of Our Ability

Reporting events of this year's school activities were Jennie Van Hise, organization's editor, John Schmidlapp, sport's editor, Sandy Hayes, curriculum editor, and Shirley Cornwell, activities editor.

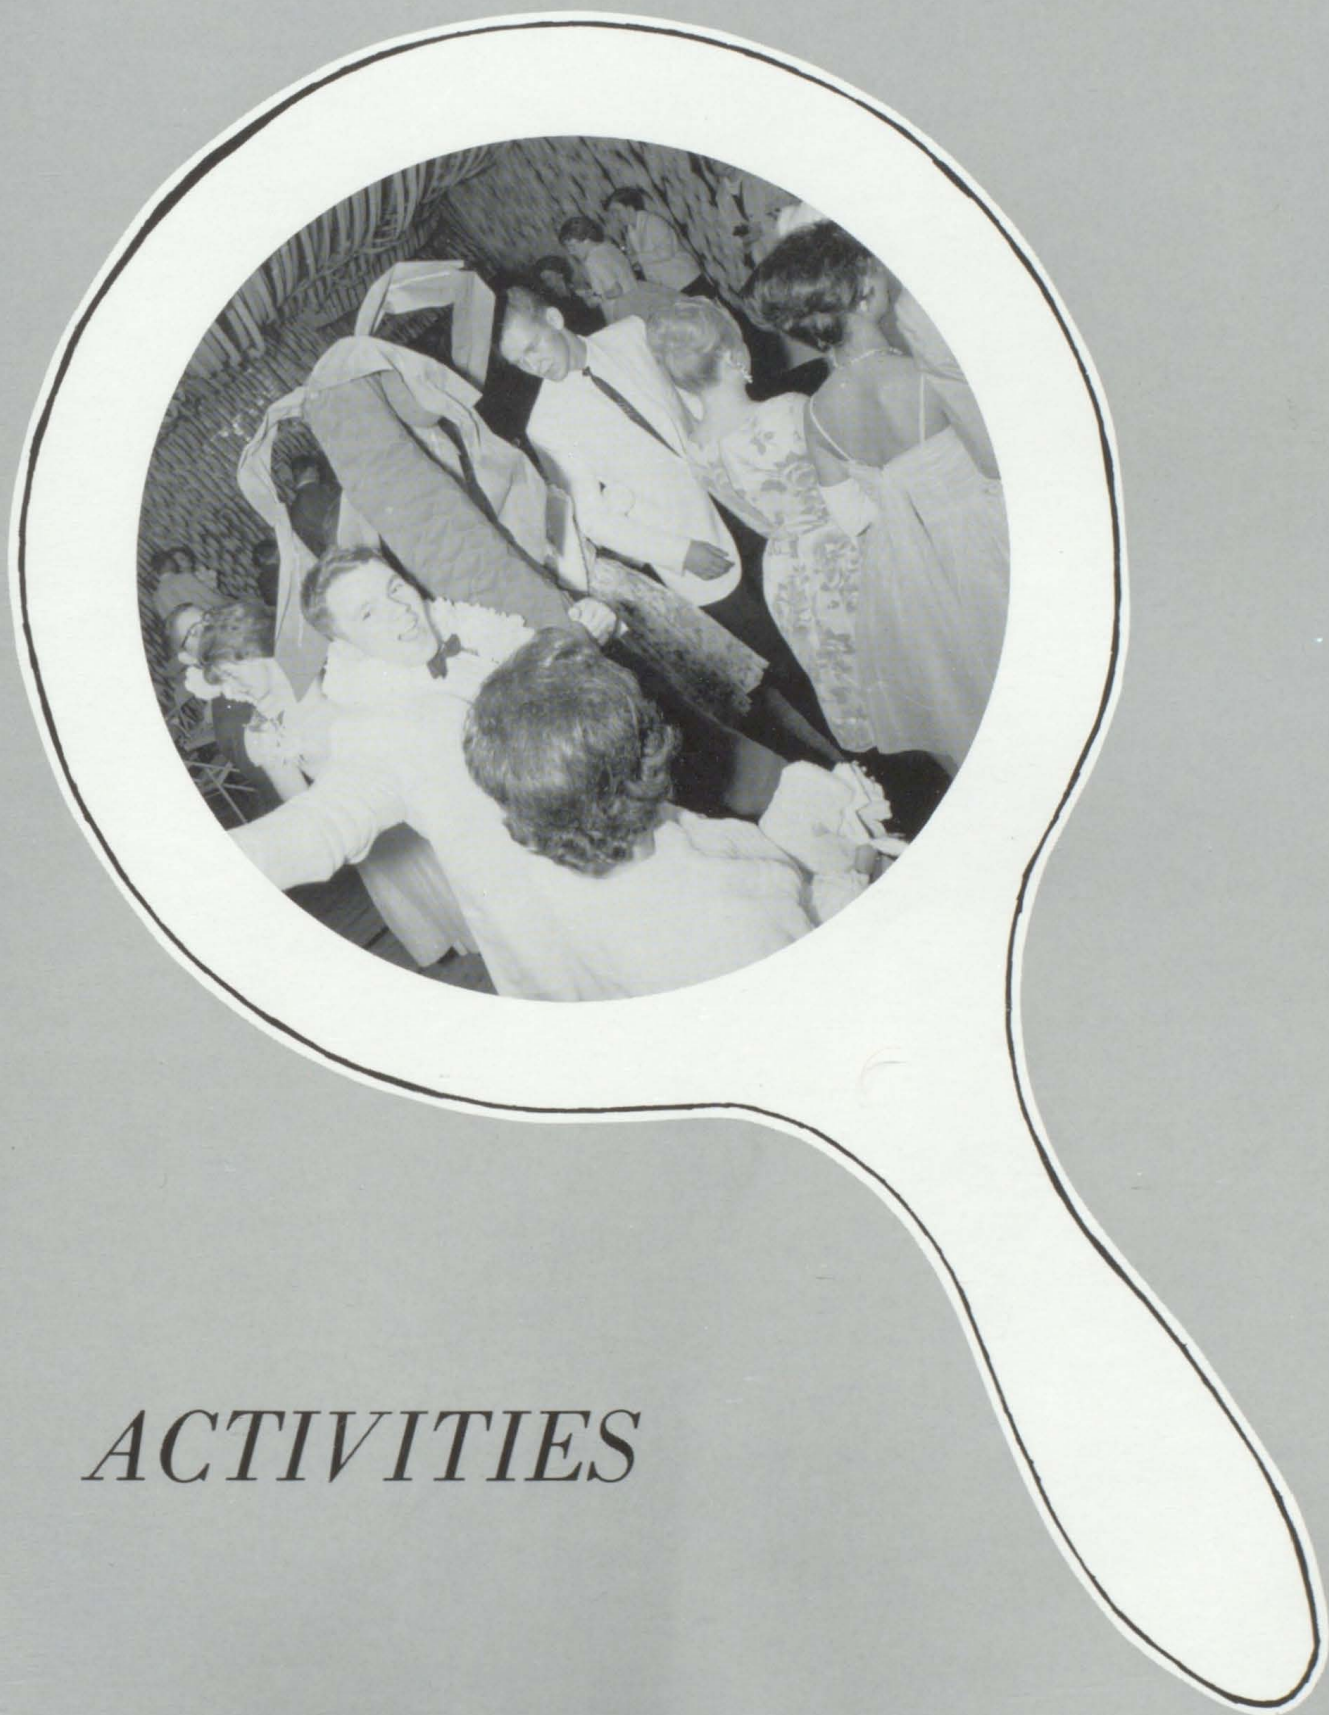

Layout editor, Becky Van Tilburg, editor-in-chief, Judy Whitacre, and advisor, Mr. Ralph Allmann, go over layouts to be prepared at the meetings which are held twice a week.

Serving as business manager, Sharon Brown was in charge of all the business transactions for the yearbook.

ACTIVITIES

Homecoming Queen

Homecoming . . . A Time of Fun,

Homecoming

Homecoming day of 1962 was one of excitement. Some students turned teachers, and everyone dressed in his Sunday best. These events provided a pleasant change to the everyday school life.

A procession preceded the Covington-Wayne football game. It consisted of the band followed by the five queen candidates and their escorts riding in shiny new convertibles.

At half-time, the band, performing under the direction of David Finkham, formed a floating diamond through which the queen candidates were escorted to the front of the home bleachers. Here an anxious crowd awaited the announcement by Bob Nishwitz, master of ceremonies.

Lolita Huffman was chosen 1962 Homecoming Queen by popular vote of the student body. She was crowned by her escort, Carl Angle.

After the game, a dance was held in the queen's honor in the high school gym. Decorations were of lavender and white, the senior class colors. Music was provided by Bob Wertz combo.

Johnny and Jody Montgomery, twin children of Mr. and Mrs. James Montgomery, walked through the floating diamond formation preceding the announcement of Homecoming Queen.

Festivity and Excitement

Unknown to her, Lolita Huffman, sponsored by the Varsity "C" is about to be crowned queen.

Candidate of the G.A.A., Connie Peters radiates a pleasing smile.

Accompanied by crown bearer, Johnny Montgomery, Sandy Hayes, candidate of Key Club, proudly rides by.

Janet Brumbaugh, candidate of the Hi-Y, calmly expresses her excitement. She is accompanied by Jody Montgomery, bearer of roses.

Janie Rudy, sponsored by the F.F.A., possesses a smile distinctly hers.

Senior Class Play

Members of the Senior class presented a three-act comedy, "Time out for Ginger," on the night of November 9, 1962.

"Time out for Ginger," was written by Ronald Alexander and directed by Miss Barbara Jane Peyster with the assistance of Cheryl McMaken and Lolita Huffman, student directors, and Carl Angle and Bob Nishwitz, stage managers.

The setting was in the home of the Carol family. The confusion started when Ginger's father, Howard Carol, made a speech about etiquette to the high school student body. This prompted Ginger to review basic individual rights. She insisted that girls and boys were equals, and girls should be allowed to play football and other boys' sports.

Ginger's boyfriend, Tommy Green, wanted her to be a cheerleader. But no, Ginger wanted a position that demanded more fighting for personal privileges, such as a football player. Since there were no grounds to declare her ineligible, Ginger made the scrub team.

Ginger was allowed to play in the last two seconds of a football game. She was humiliated because her team was already leading thirty-four to nothing! Then and there Ginger decided that it was much more fun to be a girl and be treated as one, than to be on the boys' football team and be laughed at.

Members of the cast were:

Howard Carol	Mike Hudson
Agnes Carol	Susan Crawford
Joan Carol	Sandy Hayes
Jeannie Carol	Carol Linn
Ginger Carol	Renee Cornor
Eddie Davis	Rich Etter
Tommy Green	Roger Batson
Mr. Wilson	John Lyle
Ed Hoffman	Tim Martin

Miss Peyster "makes up" Donna Miller and the other cast members just as real actors and actresses do.

Ginger, the center of attention, relates to her mother the details of her first football game.

Carol Linn finds she needs some assistance in getting ready for her "big scene."

The little grass hut at the center of the gym formed the main attraction for the "South Pacific" scene. Palm trees were "planted" at various intervals further creating the atmosphere.

Junior-Senior Prom

"South Pacific"—Land of Captivation and Beauty

Friday, May 17, 1963, members of the junior and senior classes entered the land of the "South Pacific."

Beginning at 6:30 p.m. was the banquet which was held in the multi-purpose room of the elementary school. Recollections of the past four years were presented by Gene Laughman, junior class vice president.

Decorations in the gym creating the "South Pacific" atmosphere were palm trees centered around a hut.

Dancing to the music of Vert Agenbroad and his orchestra was from 8:00 to 11:30 p.m. Cars then assembled to make the trip to the Schines Theatre in Piqua where the movie, "Whistle Down the Wind," was shown.

Breakfast was served by parents of the juniors at the elementary school at 4:00 a.m.

Janet Brumbaugh and Linda Shields decided to sit this dance out as they took pictures of their last Junior-Senior Prom.

Prom, "South Pacific"

Couples dance to the music provided by Vert Agenbroad and his orchestra.

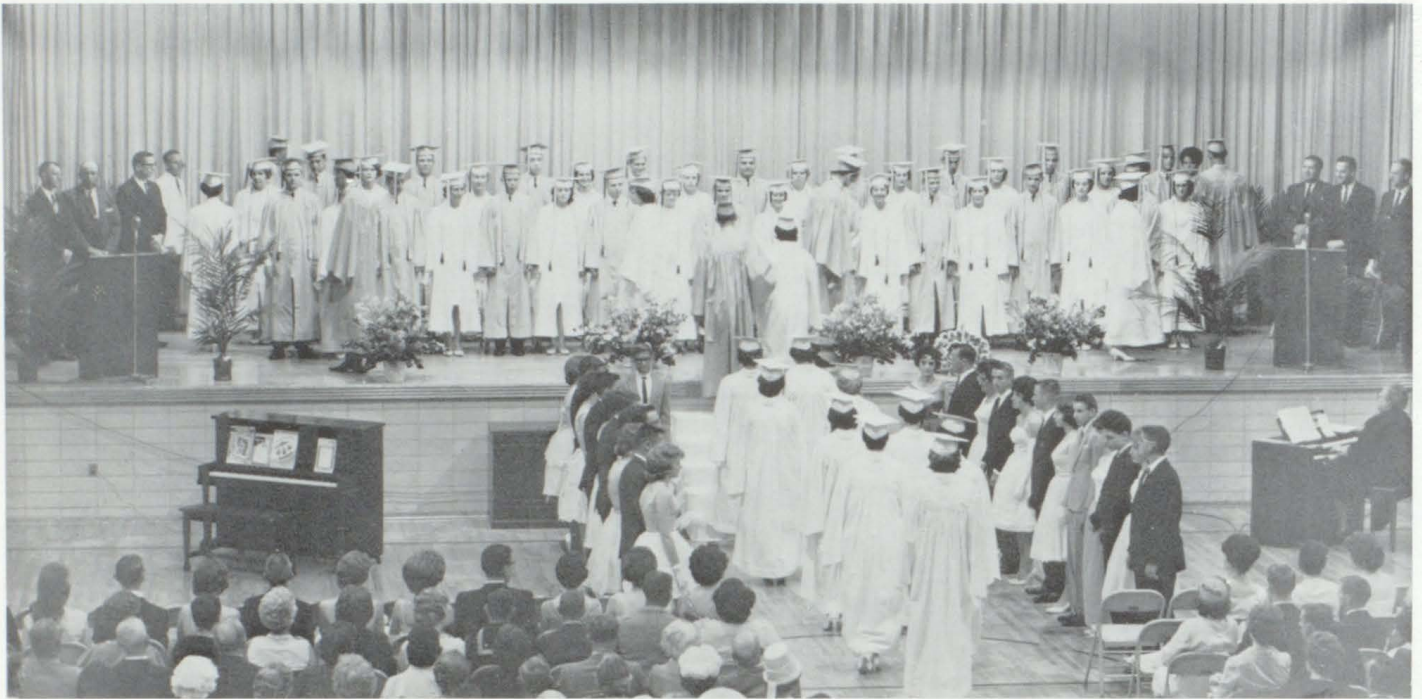

Parents of the juniors serve punch to "thirsty" guests during the dance.

Seniors Jennie Van Hise and Bob Byers pause as they prepare to leave the dance and begin the next phase of their last Junior-Senior prom.

Graduation Is

Seniors of 1963 march to the stage to receive their diplomas.

a Beginning . . .

This year Commencement and Baccalaureate were scheduled for Sunday, May 26, with Baccalaureate at 2 p.m. and Commencement at 8 p.m.

Rev. George N. Stadler, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, delivered the Baccalaureate sermon. All other proceedings were under direction of St. John's.

The prelude to the Commencement was given by organist, Mrs. Onda O'Roark. Invocation was given by Reverend R. K. Higgins.

C. S. Phillips, Superintendent, introduced the program. Immediately following, a flute solo was presented by Sharon Eidemiller.

Jane Rudy, valedictorian, gave her address, "Launching Pads," after which "Moments to Remember" was presented by the ensemble.

Janet Brumbaugh, class salutatorian, then gave her address, "Commencement is a Beginning and an End." Roger Batson then played his cornet solo.

Senior Class president, Richard Etter, spoke on the seniors' past years in school in "Looking Back." Connie Peters sang a solo, "I Believe."

Marjorie Finfrock chose "Graduation Hour" for her speech. "You'll Never Walk Alone" was sung by the Class of 1963.

L. A. Apwisch then presented the Senior Class, and Paul Finfrock awarded the diplomas. Special awards were also presented.

Rev. Clair E. Beatty gave the benediction, and the recessional was played while the class departed from the stage.

Miss Jane Rudy, valedictorian, gives her address, "Launching Pads."

and an End

The ensemble, Tim Martin, Rich Etter, Donna Miller, Linda Shields, Susan Crawford, Barbara Apple, Roger Batson, and Mike Hudson, sang "Moments to Remember" at the commencement exercises.

Here the graduates join for the last time to sing their "Alma Mater."

The day they have all been waiting for has finally arrived.

Juniors Present

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

The Junior Class presented the play, "Father of the Bride," March 8, 1963. It was written by Caroline Francke based upon the novel "Father of the Bride." The play was directed by Miss Barbara Jane Peyster with Sally Rudy and Susan Schmidlapp assisting.

Stanley Banks is a very startled father when Kay, his daughter, makes her marriage plans known. He still pictures his daughter as a pig-tailed, blue-jeaned girl. The wedding preparations begin and the biggest headache of all is the card file. Then, two hours before the wedding, the movers are still clearing the house of furniture for the reception.

At the last minute Kay's younger brother, Tommy, can't find a shirt or his cuff-links, and Kay is not sure she wants to get married.

THIRD ROW: Mr. Garman, Mr. Steele, Mike Miller, Terry Byers, Thomas Kimmel, Gene Laughman, Rick Lavy, Dale Kenworthy, Roger Looker, Tim Hudson, Mr. Wise, Mr. Allman. FOURTH ROW: Donald Weer, Thomas Carroll, Roger Batson, Robert Feeser, Mike Shaffer, William Leeper, David Gallagher, Gilbert Carroll, Teddy Hartley. FIFTH ROW: Mike Beireis, John Laughman, Kent Thompson, Douglas Minnich, Dennis Rhoades, Ricky Minnich, Douglas Stengel.

1962 Football Highlights

Larry Wise throws a block, as Dave Wimmer twists his way for yardage against the Tipp City Red Devils.

Gallantly attempting to defend their Little Buckeye League Crown, the Buccs placed third with a record of five wins, and two losses in the league.

Coach Howard Allman in his second year as head coach was ably assisted by Tom Steele and Don Garman.

The Buccaneers compiled an overall record of seven wins and two losses. The offensive and defensive teams performed a commendable job by scoring 249 points against the opposition's 151. Dave Wimmer led the Buccs' scoring with 78 points. Tim Martin followed with 54 points; John Laughman with 50, and Larry Wise with 40.

Missing from next year's team will be backfield men Larry Wise, Dave Wimmer, Tim Martin, Roger Batson; ends, John Laughman, Denny Rhoades, and Tom Carroll; linemen, Rich Etter, Mike Hudson, Jim Ruhl, and John Thompson. These players have formed the nucleus for the teams in the past and will be sorely missed in the future.

for Victory

Covington's Buccaneer football team placed four men on the 1963 Little Buckeye All-League team. They were Dave Wimmer, offensive half-back; Gene Laughman, defensive safety; Mike Hudson, defensive tackle; John Laughman, offensive end. Larry Wise and Tim Martin gained honorable mention.

In Attaining

Tim Martin gets away for a big gain against Carlisle. This scene was repeated many times this season much to the dismay of our opponents.

Dave Wimmer is about to be brought down by a Carlisle player. Rick Lavy (65) is moving up to throw a block.

Dave Wimmer breaks loose for a gain against Tipp City.

a Successful Record

A Covington defensive player spills a Dixie half-back after short yardage during a 32-0 whitewashing by Covington. Terry Byers (84) is moving up to aid the tackle.

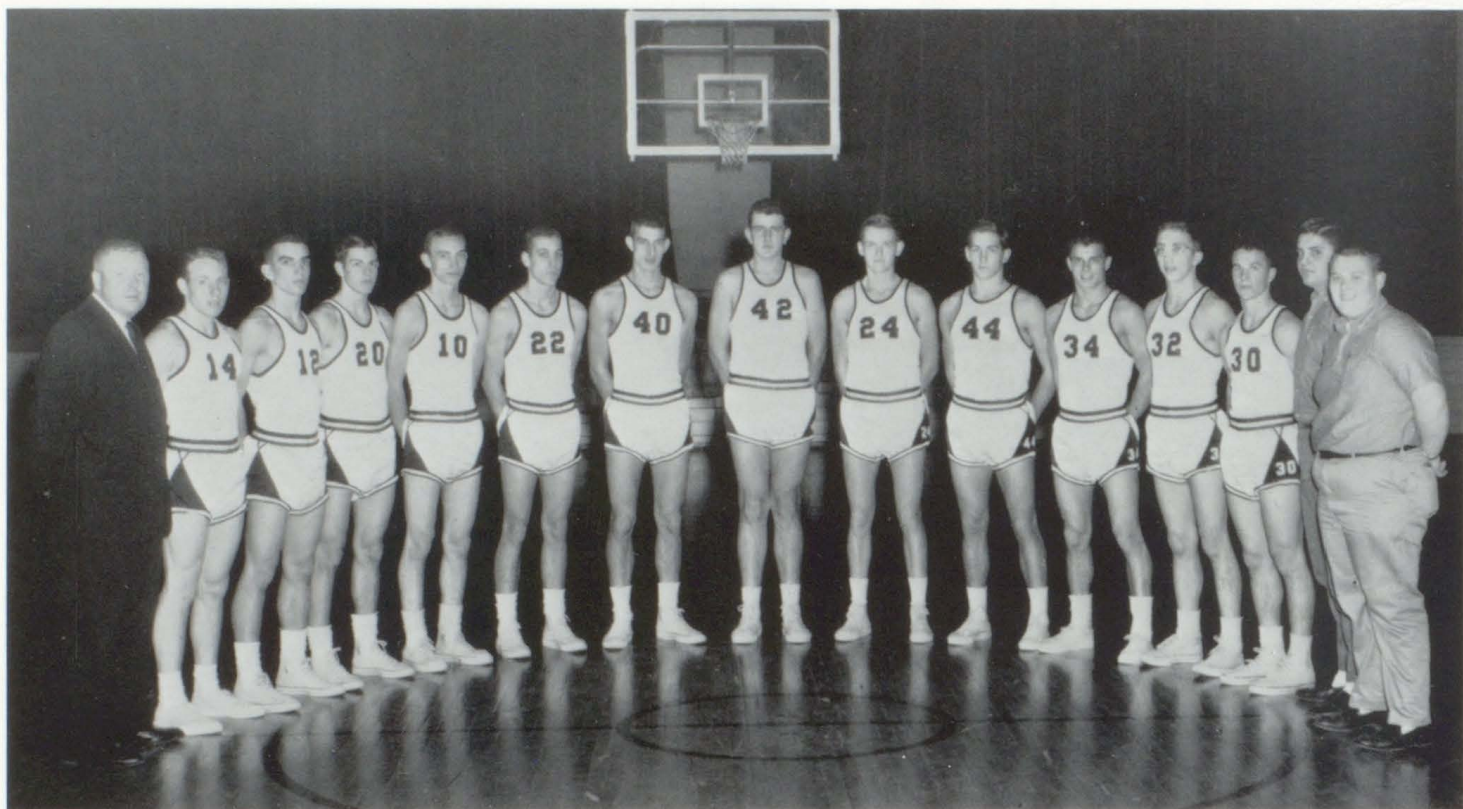

Mike Hudson crashes through the victory banner enroute to a Homecoming win over Carlisle.

Buccs Win SLV Championship

Successfully defending their Stillwater Valley League Championship for the third consecutive year, the Buccaneer basketball team retained permanent possession of the Piqua Daily Call's SVL traveling trophy. The Buccs were guided this year by Don Garman in his first year as head coach at Covington. Covington was also able to win second place in the Non-County Tournament in March, and therefore qualified for the District Tournament at Springfield. However, the Buccs were defeated in their first game by Riverside 69-66, after a long hard test of basketball. Covington finished the season with an excellent 13-4 record.

Gene Laughman had the highest scoring mark for one game with 26 points against Riverside. The Buccs averaged 58.4 points per game while holding their opposition to only 52.1 points per game.

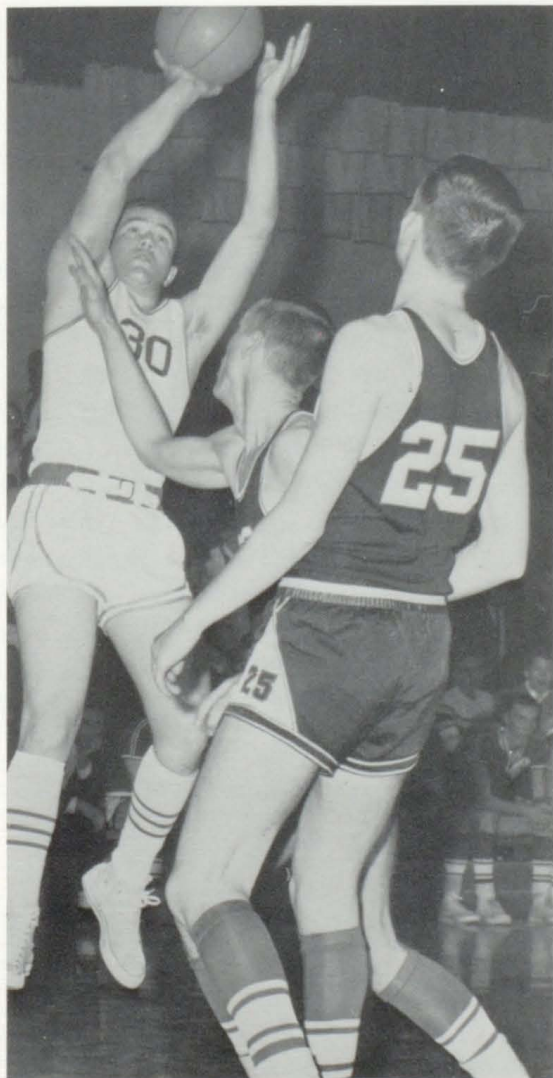

Three of their five starters were on the SVL's All-League Team, Gene Laughman, Tom Kimmel, and John Lyle, plus John Laughman who was named honorable mention.

Striving for Varsity Positions

Reserve Basketball

Composed mostly of underclassmen, who lacked experience, the reserve team ended with a mediocre record of eight wins and nine losses, although a few of the games were close. High scorers of the team were Dale Kenworthy, sophomore forward, and Kent Thompson, freshman guard.

Other members of the first string were Allen Chaney, forward; Walter Knapp, center; and Earl Biederman, guard. A score of substitutes were called on for needed help in many games.

Coach Thomas Steel provided these reserve players the experience needed for use on the varsity teams of the future.

*Stillwater Valley League games

Freshman Basketball

Howard Allman, in his second year as freshman head coach, led his freshmen into the Stillwater Valley League. The team finished with a record of four wins and six losses in the league, and had to settle for a fourth place finish in the league standing.

The overall record of the team was six wins and seven losses. Many wins came towards the end of the season, proving that the players were gaining necessary experience. The members of the team worked extremely hard in mastering fundamentals and gaining experience.

First-string members were Tom Deeter, John Flory, forwards; Jim Buchanan, center; Ted Hartley, Mike Beireis, and Jim Montgomery, guards.

Jim Buchanan and John Flory were the high scorers for the season.

Gain Needed Experience

Buccs Win Invitational

Track Team

Coach Howard Allman's track team established a fine record this season, while capturing two championships. The team won the Covington Invitational Track Meet, the Stillwater Valley League Meet at Troy, and placed second in the Little Buckeye League at Dayton.

The team placed in a tie for third place at the Springfield Relays. Covington set a new two-mile relay record of 8:41 with Tom Carroll, Bill Leeper, John Thompson, and Jim Manning running this event. The track squad placed fifth in the Class A Springfield District Track Meet.

Four school records were broken this year and one tied. Tim Martin set records in the 120 yard low hurdles, high jump, and 440 yard dash. He also tied the 100 yard dash record. Bill Musser set a record in the pole vault with a vault of 11' 11½".

The Buccs qualified three members for the State Track and Field Meet at Columbus. They were Bill Leeper (mile run), Tim Martin (440 yard dash and high jump), and Bill Musser (pole vault). Tim Martin placed fifth in the 440 yard dash at Columbus while Bill Musser tied for third in the pole vault.

Senior track members were: Tom Carroll, Tim Martin, John Thompson, and Bill Musser.

SVL Champions

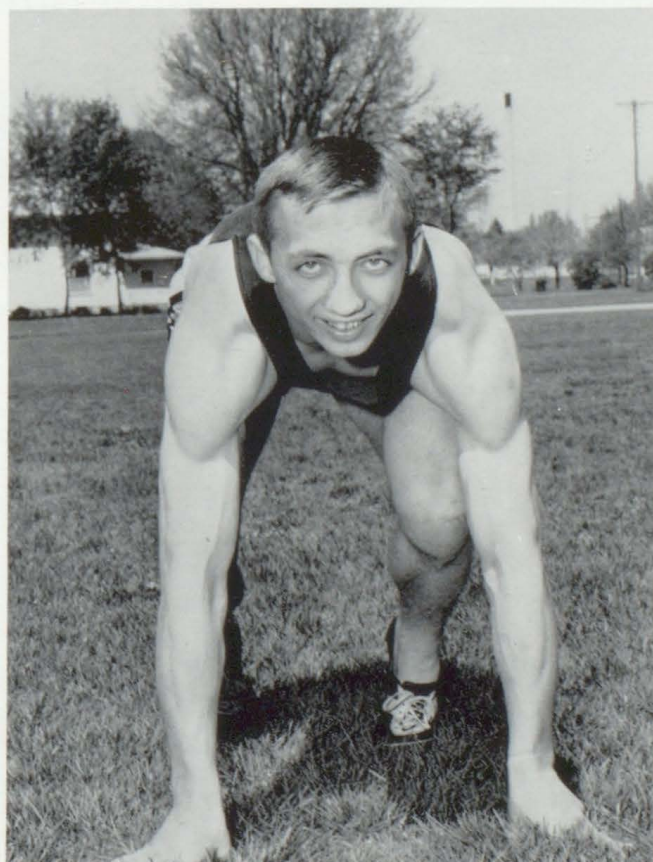

Tim Martin running hard around the final bend of the 440 yard dash in a practice session.

Coach Howard Allman smiles with delight at his pole vaulter who set a new school record of 11' 11½", Bill Musser.

Place Two in State

Tom Kimmel is in a "get set" position ready to practice running the 70 yard high hurdles.

Buccs Finish Second in SVL

Baseball Team

Hoping to improve upon last year's record, the new Covington baseball coach, Thomas Steele, led the Buccs into the 1963 season. The Buccs improved greatly over last year's mark, and almost won the Stillwater Valley League Crown. The Buccs compiled an overall record of eight wins and four losses with an excellent record of eight wins and two losses in the SVL. Although even with this fine record in the SVL, the Buccs finished second behind Miami East.

The pitchers Terry Byers, Jim Ruhl, and Dennis Edwards, combined to establish this fine record. Terry Byers, in fact, had a total of seven wins and four losses.

The graduating seniors, Bob Byers, Jerry Taylor, Bob Nishwitz, Mike Hudson, Rich Etter, and John Galley, will truly be missed at the start of next year's season.

Cordelia

Tall and willowy like a tree,
Never better a friend
could be,
That was Cordelia.
She always wore a friendly smile,
Being happy was her style.
That was Cordelia.
She loved nature
She loved the world
She hated trouble and strife,
Yet, the one who was loyal,
And the one who was true,
Was given the shortest of life.
Perhaps God was ready for her just then.
Perhaps she had work to do.
Whatever she's doing way
up there,
She wouldn't want us to be blue.
Just to remember the fun
we had,
Living and learning to love,
And to always remember
she's with us
Watching from heaven above.

Our strong band can ne'er be broken,
Formed in Covington High.
Far surpassing wealth unspoken,
Seal'd by friendship's tie.
Alma Mater, Alma Mater,
Deep graven on each heart.
Shall be found unwavering true,
When we from life shall part.
