A Message From the Editor

As years go by, we add precious links to our chain of memories. Many of these memories are added to this chain during our high school days through different events and activities. After our four years are over and we go out into a new kind of life, some memories of past happenings tend to slip into the back of our minds. We have hazy recollections of when they occurred and the people who were connected with them. We may forget names and remember only faces, or possibly we remember names and forget faces. A yearbook provides a lasting memory by linking past and present. As we look through this 1965 annual from time to time, we may be able to relive those occasions that meant something special to each of us.

12 YEARS OF COVINGTON ATTENDANCE

These 38 students can be called the “OLD FAITHFULS” of Covington High. They have attended Covington School from the first grade to the twelfth. We are very proud to have their pictures in the 1965 yearbook.

Karen Longenecker
It is with a deep feeling of loss that the Class of 1965 dedicates the 1965 Buccaneer to Phil McCroy, who was tragically taken from us on November 9, 1961. Because of his warm smile and easy-going way, his fellow classmates will long remember him.
THE CHARMS THAT GUIDE OUR BRACELET ARE THE ADMINISTRATORS

Congratulations to the Graduating Class of 1965 on the production of an outstanding yearbook.

Your efforts have provided a graphic record of the outstanding events, personalities, and classroom activities which may be reviewed in retrospect for the school year 1964-65.

We extend our best wishes to the Class of 1965 and we hope your success will motivate others to reach the goals you have achieved.

C. S. Phillips, Superintendent

Take energy and patience and mix them well together. With plenty of good nature thatlaughs in cloudy weather; add earnestness of purpose in everything you plan, and as much determination to do the best you can. Do this with conscientious care, and I think you will confess you've never found a better rule for making a success.

Congratulations to the staff and advisor for a job well done on this annual of memories. To the graduating class, best wishes for success and happiness in your journey through life.

L. A. Apwisch, Principal

Administration
The United States of America:

What do these words mean to you? They represent a nation that is free and beautiful. You are free to roam the countryside and see the beautiful lakes and trees, to see the wheat rustle in the wind as if it is saying: "We are free in our country, Aren't you proud to live in America?"

As an American, you have a voice in the government, enjoy freedom of speech, and freedom to worship God in any way you choose. You are given every opportunity for an education.

An education is a most treasured possession. Once you have acquired knowledge, no one can take it away. Each of us is offered an education here in Covington High School. Aren't you glad that you can attend a fine school like ours?

 Aren't you glad that you live in the United States of America?

The Senior class presented the play, "Pick-A-Dilly," on November 13, 1964. The play was under the direction of Miss Doris Trost.

The plot was centered around the arrival of the heirs of the late Jason Strong, deceased proprietor of the Shady Dell Funeral Home.

Jason Strong was a rich man, and all the heirs were like buzzards at the reading of his will. All of the different characters and their habits made a very humorous comedy for the evening.

In the fall, the Hi-Y refereed the powder puff football game which was sponsored by the Tri-Hi-Y. During all home basketball games, they operated a coat check. For an extra project this year, the Hi-Y held a car wash. To round out the year the members went swimming at the YMCA in Piqua.

OFFICERS: Kent Thompson, Rick Lavy, Rick Francis, Bill Kenworthy, Mike Beireis.
The main project of the FHA this year was to work toward the Award-of-Merit which was received by them from the State organization.

Their meetings were based around their theme "Education Builds a Nation." To end the year the girls took a weekend trip through Southern Ohio to see the natural wonders of that area.

To start off the new year, the FFA boys took their annual trip to Michigan where they spent their time water skiing.

The FFA had a very successful year at the Miami County Fair. Marion Rogers won the Grand Champion Boar, while Gil Carroll won the Grand Champion Gilt. John Reichman had the Grand Champion for Beef Breeding.

With the money earned from projects, the boys purchased a new tractor, plow, corn planter, and cultivators. This year the FFA is farming 80 acres to finance new equipment.

One of the biggest responsibilities of the Student Council is to organize the activities surrounding Homecoming. For the dance this year the student council got Mike Farrell, disc jockey from WING.

At Christmas time, the student council showed the movie "Gigi" to the student body. They also prepared Christmas baskets for the shut-ins.

Once again the student council was in charge of co-ordinating plans for the All-Club Formal held in the spring. It was their job to see that all the clubs did their part.

It is the tasks of the student council to decorate the goal posts at football games, fix up the bulletin boards, and clean the trophies. These tasks are carried out by the different committees.

For their main money-making project this year, the council sold sweatshirts to the student body.

The officers of Student Council were: President Barbara Etter, Vice-President Bill Kenworthy, Secretary Pat Oakes, and Treasurer Linda Weikert. Their advisors were Mr. Allmann and Miss Trost.

Varsity "C"

Varsity "C" is an organization composed of boys who have earned a letter in some phase of the high school athletic program at Covington.

Before being inducted into Varsity "C", the pledges serve a two week probationary period. During this period, they take orders from the old members.

The Varsity "C" is served by its officers: Kent Thompson, President; John Flory, Vice-President; Bill Leeper, Secretary; Ted Hartley, Treasurer. Their advisors were Mr. Garman and Mr. Steele.

OFFICERS were: (KNEELING) John Flory, Bill Leeper, Ted Hartley, (STANDING) Mr. Garman, Kent Thompson, Mr. Steele.

Connie Carroll takes a shot in the reserve basketball game.

Track, their last sport of the season, turned out to be their greatest success. They were undefeated in three track meets. By winning the West Milton Invitational, the GAA was entitled to keep the trophy which they had won the two previous years.

The 1964 Marching Band under the direction of Mr. John Palmer spent a week of concentrated marching at band camp at Sabina, Ohio. During this week, the band learned the shows which they performed at the halftime of the football games. One of the highlights of the marching band was the attendance of the marching band at the Miami University Band Day on October 3. At the last home game, 18 seniors were honored for their work in band over the past years.

After the completion of marching season, the band began working toward their annual winter concert which was held on November 20. The concert band then began preparation for District Contest. The band worked hard to prepare the three numbers which they were to play at contest. On March 19 the band held its spring concert in co-ordination with the chorus. The time had come for District Contest. The band journeyed to Troy on March 27 for the competition. They received a II or excellent rating from the judges. The final appearance of the 1964-65 band was the Memorial Day Parade.
The members of the Band Council were elected at band camp by their fellow bandmen. It is the duty of the council to govern the band.

Again this year, the chorus joined the band for the Spring Concert. A highlight of this concert was the solo "America" sung by Marty Ruhl. This number was written and arranged by Conrad Clippinger.

The chorus attended District Contest where they received a III or a good rating.

Vicki Woods shows the emotion she felt when named 1965 Homecoming Queen.

Below are pictured the candidates and their escorts at the 1964-65 Homecoming game.
Many preparations precede the festive occasion of Homecoming night.

Many students were victims of the annual Homecoming "quiet day." As a consequence, they were forced to wear M's on their foreheads showing loyalty to Miami East, the opposing team.

In Lasting Friendships

Covington High School welcomed the alumni to the Homecoming celebration.

Many signs were used in the campaigns of the candidates who were competing for the title of Homecoming Queen.
Disc jockey from WING was present to make the evening a success.

The All-Club Formal

The annual All-Club Formal was held on March 6 from 8:00 to 11:00 p.m. Jerry Kaye, from WING, was the disc jockey.

All the clubs sponsored this annual occasion whole-heartedly. Everyone worked hard to make this year's dance a success.

"Storybook Land" was the theme of the dance. Pictures of storybook characters added much to the enchantment of the evening.

The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Neil Mong and other teachers.

An Evening in "Oriental Gardens"

Toastmaster, Bill Kenworthy, introduced the program.

The fathers of the Juniors served a delicious ham dinner.

An entertaining program - Chinese style - was presented by some of the members of the Junior Class.
The music was furnished by the Dave Bryniak Quartet. During intermissions, Sandy Etter, John Reichman, and Jim Adams filled in.

Juniors and Seniors and their dates danced from 8:30 until 11:30 in "Oriental Gardens."
Everyone enjoyed a fine night of dancing.

After leaving "Oriental Gardens," the night continued on. There was entertainment galore offered at the bowling alley.

A band, The Raging Winds, provided music and song to dance by. Everyone had a wonderful time bowling, playing pool, and dancing. Breakfast was then served from 2:00 a.m. to 4:00 a.m.

This party was sponsored and chaperoned by the Junior Class Parents.

Kent Thompson was the 6th man on the selections for MRVL All-League in Basketball.
Kent caught the defense off-guard with this shot.

A Northeastern player blocks Kent's attempt to score on this play.

In trying to score, Mike was fouled in the act of shooting.
The 1965 Track team completed a very successful season this year. The Buccs won the Covington Invitational over the other 11 schools participating.

The most outstanding star of the track team was Bill Leeper, a senior. Bill participated in the mile run and 880 yd. run in the track meets. Bill was undefeated in the mile run in regular season. Bill broke the 880 yd. record for Covington at the MRVL meet at Springfield. He already held the mile record at Covington. Bill became the top mile runner in the district when he won first place at District Track Meet on May 15. At this meet, he also placed 3rd in the 880 yd. run.

Two other boys placed in the district this year. Ted Peacock tied for third in the pole vault and Steve Folkerth received 5th in the shot put.
