THE 1968

BUCCANEER

VOLUME XXI

Photos by Wogaman Studios - Artistic Effects by Karen Ingle

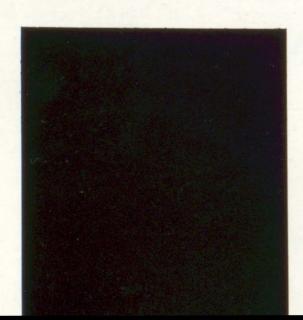

The 1968 BUCCANEER is a chronicle of this school year. We have tried in this publication to relate the events in such a way that as we grow older, we will be able to leaf through this annual and refresh our memories of the events that occurred during this year.

The theme of this book is quite simple—Covington High School, 1968. We have developed this theme in many ways. We have emphasized the school colors, black and white, from cover to cover. We have tried to recreate in picture form the students, their spirit, and their activities during this school term. These main factors, plus the many small details which are included, work together to show the pride we feel for CHS.

WE SALUTE . . .

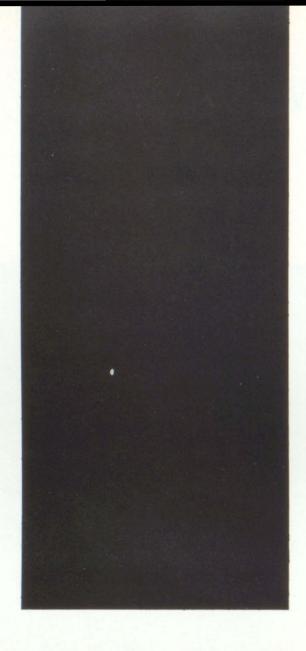

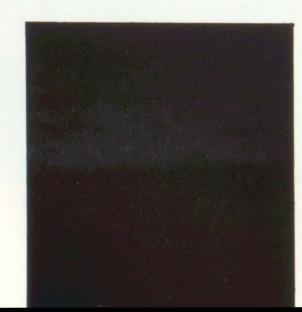

MR. DWANE I. RUNYAN

Mr. Dwane I. Runyan completed his eleventh year an instructor in the Covington school system this year. During his ten years, Mr. Runyan served as vocational agriculture teacher, and recently switched his teaching field to mechanical drawing and industrial arts. He has been advisor to many classes as well as advisor to the Class of 1968. For his outstanding guidance and instruction to the students of CHS, we dedicate the 1968 BUCCANEER to him.

MR, C. S. PHILLIPS SUPERINTENDENT

"It is a pleasure indeed to extend sincere congratulations to the staff and all who have had a part in the production of the 1968 BUCCANEER,

"The publication of a yearbook demands more than observation and comment. Much hard work, initiative, planning, and cooperation were involved to produce this publication. We thank you for this leadership and dedication.

"Your efforts will stir many memories and also serve as a valuable communications link between the school and the public."

MRS. MARY HAYES -- SECRETARIES -- MRS. PAULA BOLLENBACHER

MR. LOUIS A. APWISCH PRINCIPAL

"Youth is not a time of Life-For you are as young as your faith,
As old as your doubt,
As young as your self-confidence,
As old as your fear,
As young as your hope,
As old as your despair.
Youth is a state of mind.

Congratulations and best wishes to this graduating class. May the future hold the fullest reward that each of you may seek in life."

OFFICERS: Linda Maier, Secretary; Paul Kenworthy, Vice President; Jane Sellman, Treasurer. Absent - Ralph Van Kirk, President.

INDUCTS 19.

The main activity of the National Honor Society this year was the induction of new members. This year's induction was a simple ceremony in which the officers explained Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service - the four areas that are the membership requirements. The tapping ceremony for new members followed this.

STUDENT COUNCIL SPONSORS HOMECOMING

A great success!

The Student Council sponsored many activities this year. Some of which were the homecoming festivities and the Christmas program.

The Student Council maintained school postal service during Christmas and Valentine's holidays.

The Council also sponsored many activities to promote spirit, among these were: Color Day, Quiet Day, Car Caravans, and the making of signs boosting the Buccs.

The officers of this year's Council were: Linda Maier, president; John Weikert, vice-president; Kay Angle, secretary; and Paul Kenworthy, treasurer.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Covington High School Quill and Scroll includes in its membership students who have excelled in the editorial, literary, business, and art departments of The Buccaneer, and Bucc-a-News. Journalism is far-reaching in its aims. Its followers carry obligations to society as Quill and Scroll stands for Truth, Loyalty, Enlightenment, Opportunity, Initiative, Leadership, and Friendship.

The new members of Quill and Scroll are Marilyn Palsgrove, Jane Sellman, Patti Peacock, and Joyce Sirch. The advisors are Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. Culbertson.

SCHOLARSHIP TEAM

The scholarship team rated high in the state, with the following students placing in District competition and some in State competition. Sharon Leeper, Kris Langston in Biology; Mike Robinett, Doug Riffel, Chemistry; Jeff Frantz, Linda Crist, Algebra; Connie Kauffman, Advanced Algebra; Rick Frantz, Plane Geometry; JoAnn Brant, Jane Sellman, Bookkeeping; Leland Carney, American History; Paul Kenworthy, Senior Social Studies; Deb Schilling, English 12; Mary Ellen Schultz, English 9.

TRI-HI-Y

TO CREATE, MAINTAIN, AND EXTEND THROUGHOUT THE HOME, SCHOOL, AND COMMUNITY HIGH STANDARDS OF CHRISTIAN CHARACTER.

1967-68 was a very active year for the Tri-Hi-Y. They prepared and presented the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter Assemblies for the student body. The club brightened the Christmas of a local family by buying gifts for them. Memorable events were the Parents' Banquet, Mothers' Tea, and Senior Farewell.

The Powder Puff football game was sponsored again with the Sr. and Soph. team defeating the Jr. and Soph. team. Vicki Moist and Jane Sellman were this year's delegates to Youth in Government in Columbus. The girls also enjoyed swimming and working out in the Piqua YMCA gym, as well as many educational and entertaining programs.

A dedicated President!

Led by their duty-bound advisor, Mr. Roland Stockland, the Covington Chapter of American Hi-Y organization had a rather successful year. The night before Homecoming, they took charge of a bonfire, which turned out to be a big success. They maintained the coat-check during the basketball season. They also helped out when a local home burned down. Among the many distinguished awards gained by members of the club, was the "Hen-Pecked" award. This year's winner was Tim Feeser.

The officers for this year were: Chuck Winkle, President; Bob Homan, Vice-President; Bob Phillis, Secretary; Doug Riffell, Treasurer; Fred Kenworthy, Chaplain.

SCIENCE CLUB

Interesting field trips and interesting speakers made this the best year the Science Club has had. Losing their advisor is a disappointment, but the members plan to go on working for the betterment of their club and the field of Science.

The highlights of the year have been the variety of trips the club members have taken. The trips, Fort Ancient, Institute of Science and Technology, Cincinnati Museum of Art and Botannical Gardens were some of the interesting spots toured by the Club. A picnic and hike at Fort Ancient, to which the eighth-graders were invited, was the grand finale of the year.

FHA

"FHA Stars You and Your Family" was the theme carried out by this year's FHA members. Several interesting meetings were held during the year. The May meeting, featuring a Chinese Mystery Supper proved quite entertaining. The most enjoyable event for some members was the State Convention in Columbus. The FHA girls are also eagerly preparing for the Miami County Fair this summer.

CONCERT

Mrs. Canedy.

The 1967-68 season of the marching band was off to a good start at camp at Sabina, Ohio. Mr. Denny Lavy put the band through their paces and the hard work was shown on the football field during the year.

Concert band members were busily preparing for the concert season, under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Canedy. The annual Holiday Concert and Spring Concert were given and attended by the community. Thirty-seven students entered Solo and Ensemble Contests and the band received an excellent rating at contest. The year was topped off with a Hoe-down party combined with the members of the chorus.

HOMECOMING NIGHT

The Homecoming activities this year were set off by a bonfire pep rally Thursday evening prior to the game. A snake dance, led by the marching band and followed by the classes in succession, made its way to the football field. After listening to a few words from the team and coaches, everyone gathered around the blazing fire to cheer our Buccs on to victory.

Friday night, after a grueling struggle against Greenon, our Buccaneers went down to defeat. Following the game, students and alumni attended the Homecoming dance, featuring the "Kingsmen." The theme of the dance was "Queen of Queens." The gymnasium was decorated in a variety of shades of green and white. A huge gold crown screened the front of the gym, forming a background for the Queen and her court.

The orchestra made the dance successful with everyone dancing until 1:00 a.m. When the dance finally broke up, all grabbed souveniers of the dance. Homecoming 1967 was one never to be forgotten.

POWDERPUFF

On October 29, 1967, the girls of the Tri-Hi-Y combined their efforts into two so-called football teams. "The Dirty Dozen Minus One" composed of senior and sophomore girls took on the juniors and sophomore girls, "Born Winners". The weather was quite cold and windy but the girls kept warm mainly by their vigorous attempts to make a touchdown. As the last quarter ended, the scoreboard read 22-12, with "The Dirty Dozen Minus One" out in front.

CHRISTMAS

The main attraction was the skit of "The Night Before Christmas" which was directed by Mrs. Evelyn Canedy. Every faculty member took part with Mr. Apwisch playing the leading reindeer of Santa's team before red-nosed Mrs. Swiegart stepped in as Rudolph.

Music by Mrs. Canedy provided the background as the actors said their lines. The faculty program was paired off and sang "The Twelve Days of Christmas".

On November 10, 1967, the Senior Class presented to a recordsetting attendance, "Tune In On Terror."

Jane and Ellen Arkwrite, sorority pledges spend an evening in a deserted house as an initiation stunt. Suddenly, to their surprise, Jikki, a run-away bride-to-be, her maid Afadilla, and her best friend Pattie, stumble into the old deserted house where they claim they are to meet Bart, Jikki's secret fiancee and the Rev. Pete.

Later, as Jikki and Bart's wedding ceremony is about to begin, Mrs. Duddley Fuddy, Jikki's aunt and her son, Dillingham, come to stop the wedding. Del, Jikki's original beau, wants her back. To add to the confusion, Granny Karp and her boy, Bruno, tell horrible tales of horror which involve a mad doctor and his vampire girl friend who haunt the house.

These characters suddenly appear and turn out to be bank robbers along with Granny and Bruno. The play has a surprise ending as it reveals all the spooks and shinanigans were only a gag to scare Jane and Ellen into studying.

And some asked why Linda is popular!

Is this the clean-shaven Steve whom we all know and LOVE?

Winkle, just whom do you think you are?

"STOP THE WEDDING"

"Let me out! Let me out!!"

"Hey, Stop the wedding"

Members of the cast were, ROW ONE: S. Stacy, K. Angle, K. Canedy, B. Rudy, S. Dull, R. Lamb, B. Graves, D. Landes, V. Petry, O. Bagwell. SECOND ROW: Miss Trost, director, M. Wilson, B. Huffman, B. Phillis, L. Carney.

On March 22, the Junior Class presented to a capacity crowd, "Stop the Wedding." The audience was amazed when Popcorn Jones bound through the gym and onto the stage to stop the wedding between Lorrie Wilson, daughter of the prominent Mayor Wilson, and Clarence.

As the play progressed, a campaign began to get the Mayor re-elected. All of the college students got together and made their own plans for the election. The Mayor was re-elected, but had a new set of regulations to work with.

As the play closes, the wedding scene is set again. This time between Lorrie and Popcorn. Once again the wedding is not completed as Popcorn decides to re-join the Navy.

"Really, Clarence!"

JUNIORS PRESENT

Tessie True emotionally involved over her love life.

Mr. Weikert makes his entrance to the prom.

Song and dance duet by Doug and Denise.

"GONE WITH THE WIND"

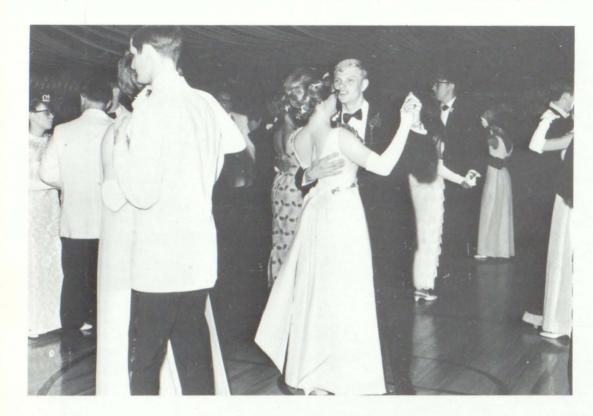

The only empty table in the place!!!

On the eve of May 17, the Junior Class presented a night entitled "Gone With the Wind." As the evening began the Juniors and Seniors attended a banquet held in the high school gym. The gym was decorated as the yard of "Tara" the famed mansion of "Gone With the Wind". The guests were welcomed to "Tara" by Mr. and Mrs. O'Hara portrayed by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Weikert. A toast was made to the seniors and the banquet was begun. Dinner was served in a smorgasbord fashion. Fathers of the junior class dressed as slaves and carried trays and served desert to the guests. After the meal, a melodrama was presented along with a duet of song and dance. The entertainment marked the end of the banquet and all went home for a quick change into clothes for the dance.

Behind the scenes, the serving crew is working industrially.

ON PROM NIGHT.

Vicki and Tim dance to the wonderful music of Johnny McCoy's Orchestra.

On the romantic lawn of the "Tara" Plantation, couples danced to the wonderful music provided by the Johnny McCoy Orchestra. Lighted hurricane lamps decorated the tables, and cookies and punch were served by junior parents from the refreshment stand. A rock garden with bubbling water decorated a portion of the "Tara" lawn.

The evening was climaxed by a riverboat ride down the Ohio River. Even though the rain and fog dampened the evening, the riverboat ride proved fun and exciting. Music was provided by a combo from Versailles, Ohio. Breakfast of rolls, milk, and soft drinks supplied nourishment for the prom travelers. After the five buses returned to the high school at 7:30 a.m. Saturday morning, tired kids dragged themselves off the buses and to their cars for their last jog homeward.

Teachers and students alike enjoyed the prom.

Music was provided from the porch of "Tara" by the Johnny McCoy Orchestra.

The faculty enjoys the dance.

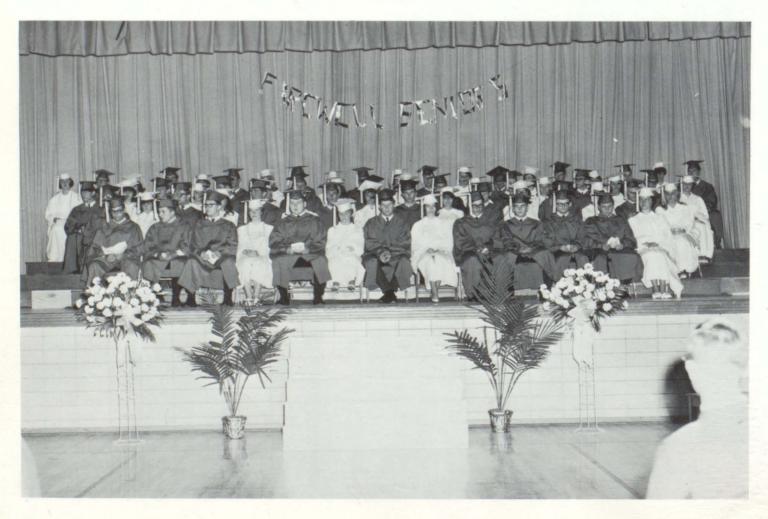

Everyone enjoyed an evening at "Tara"!

GRADUATION - 1968

The ninety ninth annual Commencement of Covington High School was held May 26, 1968. Sixty-seven seniors were graduated on this day. After the seniors marched in to "Pomp and Circumstance" played by Marcia Sarver, Mr. J. F. Ladd, acting superintendent, made a few opening remarks. This was followed by Jane Sellman's valedictory address entitled "In Ourselves The Future Lies." The mixed ensemble then performed a number. Deborah Schilling continued the program with her salutatory speech entitled "Today We Follow; Tomorrow We Lead", which was followed by Linda Finfrock singing "The Sound of Music". Chuck Deal, class President, gave the class history. The class song, "The Impossible Dream" was then sung by the class. The presentation of special awards was made. Jane Sellman received the Valedictorian trophy, a one year subscription to "Readers' Digest" and a certificate of Admission with Distinction to the University of Cincinnati. Deborah Schilling received the Salutatorian trophy. Cheryl Subler received the Athena Club's Outstanding Senior Girl Award. Diplomas were then presented by Mr. Lowell Yingst, School Board President. Mr. Carl Schackow, principal, presented the Class of 1968 and they sang the "Alma Mater".

CLASS OF 1968

Baccalaureate was held Sunday afternoon in the High School auditorium. The Rev. Glenn Swope gave the Invocation and the Bible lesson. An anthem was sung by the St. John's Lutheran Church choir. The Rev. George M. Stadler of St. John's gave the sermon, while the prayer and Benediction were given by Rev. Miller of the First Church of the Brethren.

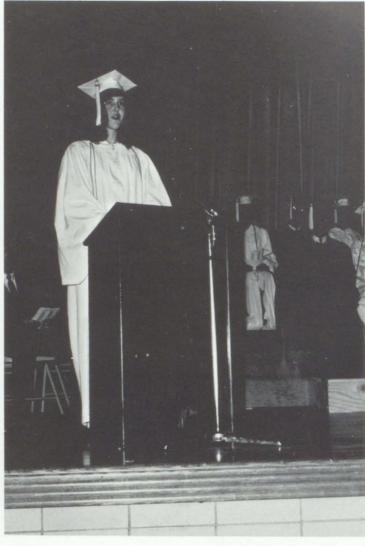

Seniors anxiously await the big moment.

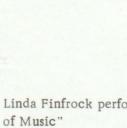

Jane Sellman, Valedictorian, giving her address "In Ourselves The Future Lies."

Deborah Schilling, Salutatorian, giving her address "Today We Follow; Tomorrow We Lead."

SENIORS RETURN TO

LITTLE KIDS HAVE BIG APPETITES!

CHILDHOOD DAYS.

Seniors playing one of the old favorite games.

On Wednesday, May 22, 1968, the Senior parents sponsored the "KID PARTY" at the Covington American Legion. The seniors came dressed as little "kids" and received big lollipops as favors. After a smorgasbord dinner, all the "kids" played games such as drop the hankie, red rover, and farmer in the dell. An ill-fated game of musical chairs preceded a guessing game where the seniors tried to identify baby pictures of the individual members of the class.

A game of drop the hankie proves to be very interesting.

Red rover, red rover let the seniors come over.

C.H.S. STUDENTS EARN

This section is set aside to honor those students who have worked especially hard to achieve these awards.

Chuck Deal, Jane Sellman, and Paul Laughman are shown here with speech teacher Miss Trost. They were the winners of the Voice of Democracy speech contest sponsored by the V.F.W. The speeches were entitled Freedom's Challenge. Chuck Deal won the first prize of a 100-dollar savings bond, Jane Sellman won a 50-dollar bond as second prize and Paul Laughman won the third prize bond of 25 dollars.

The Outstanding Service Award, presented by Mr. Louis Apwisch, is given to students who contributed most to their fellow students, the school, and the community during their four high school years. This year's winners were Jane Sellman and Herb Gragg.

Susan Myers won a White Sewing Machine, presented to her by Mr. Faler of Falers Sewing Machine Company of Piqua, Ohio. This gift was presented during a style show given by the second period home ec. class before the Christmas holidays.

SPECIAL HONORS.

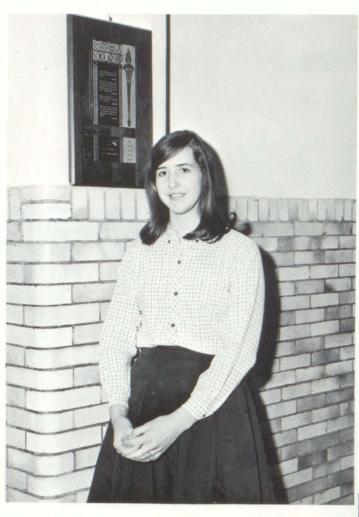

Paul Kenworthy and Chuck Deal, delegates to Buckeye Boy's State.

On June 8-16, Paul Kenworthy and Chuck Deal attended Boy's State at Ohio University in Athens, Ohio. They spent eight days in a course of political government training. The boys were sponsored by the Covington A. B. Cole Post of the American Legion.

Buckeye Girl's State convened on June 17 at Capital University in Columbus, Ohio. Christa Grise and Betty Yount were chosen by the Covington Women's Legion Auxilliary. They learned governmental procedures and met many people.

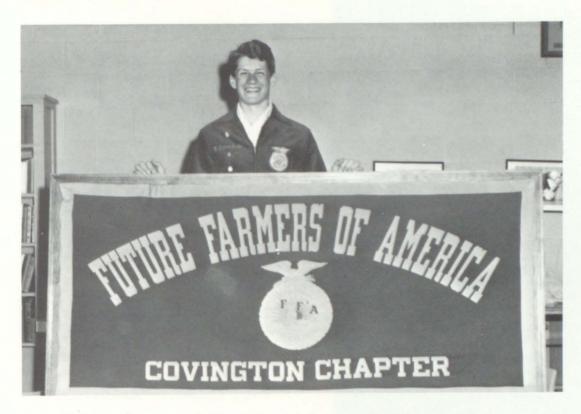

Delegates to Girl's State, Christa Grise and Betty Yount.

Deborah Schilling took the National Merit Scholarship test in the spring of her junior year. Juniors all over the country participated in the test. Out of all of these participants, Deb was in the top 2 percent. For being in the top 2 percent she was awarded a certificate of commendation.

Jane Sellman was chosen the "Good Citizen" of Covington High School by the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution. This award is based on the demonstration of the qualities of dependability, leadership, service, patriotism, and scholarship. Jane is shown here with the certificate she was awarded.

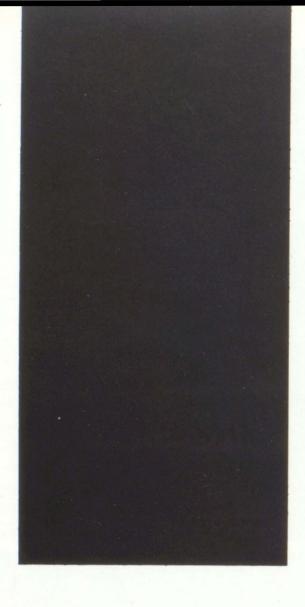

Daryl Landes earned the State Farmer's Degree, which is an award given to outstanding Agriculture students.

Linda Finfrock was voted, by all band members, to receive the John Phillip Sousa Band Award. The award is determined by the leadership, dependability, and leadership of the individual senior band members. Linda certainly deserved this special honor for her outstanding service to the Covington High School Band.

The most outstanding characteristic of this year's team was their determination. Many times during the season, these boys were not able to compete with boys who were physically larger, but the boys never let it bother them and tried harder. For the season, Ed Shilt was high point man with 242 points, while Herb Stevenson had the most rebounds, pulling down 180. Dave Sweigart sank the most foul shots recording 58%. Even though their record was not the best, one cannot measure a team by their won-lost record. The improvement of the basic fundamentals of these boys will show up in later years.

WHAT IS CROSS COUNTRY?

Even though not many people come to cheer the cross country team, the boys worked hard to make the season as successful as possible. The cross country team this year consisted of Bob Penny, Steve Derth, Jim Rumble, Mike Stacy, and Mark Stadler. The course over which the boys ran was a rough obstacle course. The number of points is found by the order in which the boys finish, the team with the least number of points is the winner. Although our scoring was high, competition must be considered.
