Dedicated to Mr. C. S. Phillips

In Grateful Recognition of Self
We are exceedingly proud to dedicate this yearbook to . . .

Mr. C. S. Phillip

Because he is our friend . . . encouraging, advising, and contributing his warm understanding whenever we need him . . .

Because he has guided us enthusiastically and often lent us the strength for success . . .
Dear Fellow Classmates,

The 1972 Yearbook is finally bound and complete at last, containing all the important memories of the past year. The memories may be good or bad, happy or sad, but the staff hopes we have included all of them for you; and I, as editor, wish to thank the staff and especially Mrs. Pritchard for all their efforts. It is through their cooperation, that these long hours have been filled with happy reflections.

Reflections of the past are constantly creeping into our minds. As the years and experiences progress, these memories become a living part of us. 1972 was a very good year with many happy memories. Because we know everything isn't expected to be handed to us on a silver platter, we also suffer a few hardships. As each of us grow older, we learn to live with our joys and sorrows. The memorable activities which will be remembered by all who are leaving Covington High School, there will be many. The sorrows, we hope, will be few.

A yearbook never forgets, and we hope as you glance through this book, you recognize the wonderful memories and friends; to seek reflections of years gone by.

Mary Ann Cook
Editor-in-Chief
Water dripping thru the ceilings, chalk dust atmosphere, stuffed lockers that won't close, hallways crammed with students . . . provide the framework of our intellectual growth.
Mornings start the noisy crowds and the unfinished conversations that were left dangling from the day before . . .
Not only learning takes place in the classroom, but it is also here that friendships are made, problems shared and ideas expressed...
Students learning, playing, preparing socially — each leaves his own impressions on the school . . .
Classrooms are not just for book learning; they are friends, work, study, and relaxation. It is here people realize life . . .
it is a place of spirit and growth.
Friendships, pride, shared emotions, disappointments, and achievements
we are C.H.S.
The six hour school day is not the only time for learning and growth. It dominates activities beyond the classroom.

It is a week of energy, tension and anxiety, climaxing on Friday night. It is the unity of coaches, the team and the crowd.
the lonely, painfulness of defeat and the elation of victory.
...individual emotions shared to create spirit.
... taking a sheet of music and placing your heart into it.
Homecoming . . .
anticipation and excitement . . .
shared joy and the congratulations
of friends.
Winter brings . . .
the tenseness and hopes of a crowd in closely packed stands . . .
the thrill and excitement of basketball . . .
... the friendship of working together ...
. . . the dedication of an unselfish individual the determination and drive that results in satisfaction and overwhelming pride...
knowing you were the best...
That's My Cousin
