We, the Yearbook Staff of Covington High School, in order to form a more perfect yearbook, establish happiness, insure domestic freedom, provide for the common need, promote the Buccaneer Spirit and secure the blessing of memories to ourselves and the student body do ordain and establish this yearbook for the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Six.

Spirit of 1776

The school year started a week later than planned so that the school cafeteria could be completed.

After a summer of various activities . . . Junfors running the concession stand at the park . . . band camp . . . football practice in the hot August sun . . . cheerleading camp.

School started September 2.

Mis. Blackmose . . . a new English teacher

Fangs, for the memories

The homecoming pep rally got off to a good start with the coaches being hit with pies, which got the spirit moving and we won the game by a score of 9-6.

Candidates Susan Long and Cindy Fields, take down their posters.

Captain Dave Doty speaks to the Student Body.

Homecoming 1975 was a success with our Buccs winning by a score of 9-6.

Jane Dunn was crowned queen by last year's queen Gail Dennings. Queen Jane reigned over the traditional Homecoming Dance sponsored by the Student Council.

Music was provided by Al Morgan of WTUE.

Steve Hunt, Pam Zimmerlin, Jerry Fisher, Cindy Fields, Grant Dennings, Gail Dennings, Jane Dunn, Rocky Yingst, Susie Long, Mike Leonard, Tracy Miller, Ralph Chester. In Front - Jerrod Shell and Pain Perkins.

Robin goes up for the serve.

Mrs. Blackmore's best side

The American military victory at Saratoga was matched by diplomatic victories: the treaty of amity and commerce and the treaty of alliance with France. Benjamin Franklin and Arthur Lee signed treaties in France and were greeted by cheering patriots on their return.

Philadelphia was the center of political control of the Colonies during the Revolutionary period. The Continental Congress met here twice, and after the Revolution, the city served as the seat of the Congress under the Articles of Confederation.

The Capitol building in Washington, D.C., was started in 1793. By 1800, it had been sufficiently completed so that the government could move here from Philadelphia. The completed north wing housed the House of Representatives, the Senate and the Supreme Court.

The Buccaneer has grown out of a compelling need to capture, preserve, and extend the rich memories of the school year. How wonderful it will be to ponder these pages in years to come.

I extend my sincere congratulations to the yearbook staff and best wishes to the graduates.

Mr. Irvin
Superintendent

The 1976 yearbook provides a visual and nostalgic look at the many activities and individuals that made the 1975-76 school year a very exciting experience for all of us. The year of 1976 marks the bicentennial anniversary of our nation, and the parades, celebrations and other special occasions are historically recorded in the photographic exhibits of the Buccaneer.

Thus, the Buccaneer contributes to our total high school education by providing a moment of reflection and self analysis by which we can better understand our school peers and environment.

Congratulations to the Buccaneer staff and advisor for an excellent production.

News of the signing of the Declaration of Independence spread from Philadelphia's Independence Hall throughout the colonies. Jubilant crowds gathered and armies paraded. The patriots had sought a new nation, with "full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, and establish Commerce."

ORGANIZATIONS

Washington's Army retreated across New Jersey and it dwindled as it went, but by Christmas of 1776, the Americans were 8,000 strong. They crossed the Delaware, where the Hessians, camped at Trenton on the East Bank, were caught off guard, and 900 of them were captured.
