ACTIVITIES

Seventy Eight
Homecoming Week began with the Senior Class electing five candidates. These five girls began their campaigns by hanging posters, passing out pins, and with their managers speaking to the student body. While the students voted on Thursday morning the candidates awaited the outcome with nervous anticipation. The Homecoming parade consisted of cars representing the clubs and classes, and was led by the band. After arriving at Smith Field the candidates waited anxiously for the band to play "The Hands of Time" and the ceremony to begin. The week was climaxed by Miss Letitia Smith being crowned 1977-1978 Homecoming Queen. The evening ended with the queen reigning over the dance, decorated with an "Over the Rainbow" theme and music provided by Schaan Scott of WTUE.

There was another winter sport played by everyone this year. It was called ‘digging oneself out.’ January 26 hosted the worst blizzard of the century. When all that new snow accumulated on top of the 21” already on the ground, people had fun digging out the front door, building tunnels to their car, and zooming to work at a rate of 2 feet per 3 hours and 29 minutes.

Several people lost some weight on the “not a crumb in the house diet.”

The south end of town saved energy by turning off their electricity for a few hours during the blizzard.

By the third day, kids were crying to go away, but not as loudly as their mothers, who were half bald by this time.

But remember: it’s not whether you win or lose; it’s whether you’re still alive in spring.

This year 65 students attended the Upper Valley Joint Vocational School from Covington. Over 1/3 of the Senior Class went; 38 Junior attendance was also high with 27 going.
This year's prom was again traditionally sponsored by the JUNIOR CLASS. It was held at the Piqua Elk's Club on Friday, May 5. This year's theme was "You Light Up My Life." The JUNIORS spent Thursday night and all day Friday decorating the walls and ceiling with stars, foil columns and streamers. A fountain and a rotating mirror ball highlighted the dance floor.

The after-prom, sponsored by the JUNIOR PARENTS started at midnight at the Mayflower Theater in Troy, where the crowd saw the movie "Oh, God." The procession then moved on to Piqua's YMCA, where sandwiches and drinks were served. Pool, basketball, or pingpong could be played while door prizes from local merchants were handed out. The new swimming pool was open for two hours, also a disc jockey was present, playing an endless selection of 45's.

The memorable evening ended at 5:00 a.m. and the revelers drifted home, falling into a contented slumber.
Some preferred to just listen...

refresh themselves...

or whatever else they could find to do...

DOOR PRIZES
This year several Juniors and Seniors once again participated as counselors in the 5th grade camp out at Camp Evergreen on May 15, 16, and 17. Those who were punished were: Scott Angle, Dawn Harrison, Steve Johnson, Sheryl Rapp, Rick Reck, Dick Rice, Andy Runyan, Eric Tisdale, Ann Wirick, and Becky Yaney.
This year the Student Council sponsored Spring Days on May 17, 18, and 19. During the lunch hour on Wednesday, students could participate in a pie eating contest. On Thursday, they could take part in a water balloon tossing contest. On Friday, the championships of these contests were held. In the afternoon there were softball and volleyball games. In softball, the Seniors took on the Faculty and won by a score of 12-6. The seniors went on to play a Junior team. The Juniors showing much skill, finally defeated the confident Seniors.

RAGGEDY ODETTE?

SLEEPING BEAUTY
This year's JUNIOR CLASS conducted many fund-raising projects in order to sponsor the JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM, held on May 5. In September they sold T-shirts with graduation years printed on the front. In November they held the annual fruit sale. During basketball season the JUNIORS kept everyone happy, selling their delicious popcorn and hotdogs.

On April 14, members of the class presented the JUNIOR CLASS PLAY, under the direction of MISS DORIS TROST with the help of MR. GARY SCARTH, musical director. It was a musical entitled "BOYS AND GIRLS TOGETHER."

At last the PROM arrived. It was staged at the Piqua Elk's Club. The band, BACUS, was very entertaining. The JUNIOR CLASS' PARENTS held the after-prom at the PIQUA Y.M.C.A.

Thanks to the Patrons Who Support the Yearbook
June 13, 1978

I want to thank everyone who helped me this year, especially Sheryl Rapp, Richard Rice, my photographer, and Deb Kiehl, my assistant editor. I'd also like to thank Jerry Shoemaker for all the time he spent at C.H.S. and Mrs. Helen Prichard, my advisor and confidante. Editing this yearbook has been one experience I will never forget. I hope it brings you a smile as you look through the pages and remember, too.
