

BUCCANEER

2006 2006 2006

In loving memory of Dan Rindler.

*A heart of gold stopped beating
two shining eyes at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove
He only takes the best.

that will last a lifetime!

ATTITUDE IS EVERYTHING

With all different kinds of students, our school has a lot of attitude to offer. This could be why every day is more interesting than the last. A new year, a new challenge, at CHS,
attitude is everything!

Sam Herron could be the shortest person in the school; however his height only adds to his personality.

Sammy Mattevi, Shelby Snell, and Mindy Schaeffer.

COMING UP...

THE NEXT GENERATION

Wow! Have the times changed or what? Bellbottom pants went out with the 70's, poofy hair in the 80's, and fluorescent outfits went with the 90's. Now, it's our turn to set the "style" for the next generation. Enjoy these years while you can, they go by fast! Memories are the closest link with the past, and friends are friends forever. We are the future!

Brock Iddings displaying a future project.

SENIORS

WE ARE

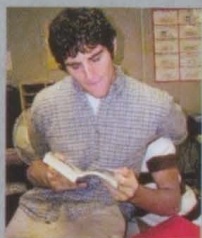

THE FUTURE

MS. BAKER

"They're a good group of kids. Honestly, I wouldn't mind them picking up my trash someday."

MR. MUSSER

"The seniors are all really good friends, it's rare to have such a compatible bunch of kids, and it sounds trite, but they'll be missed."

MR. HAVER

"They are a very diverse group. If they're lucky they'll make great hamburgers someday."

MRS. ROETH

"This group has been one of my favorites. There are a lot of strong personalities and they all get along."

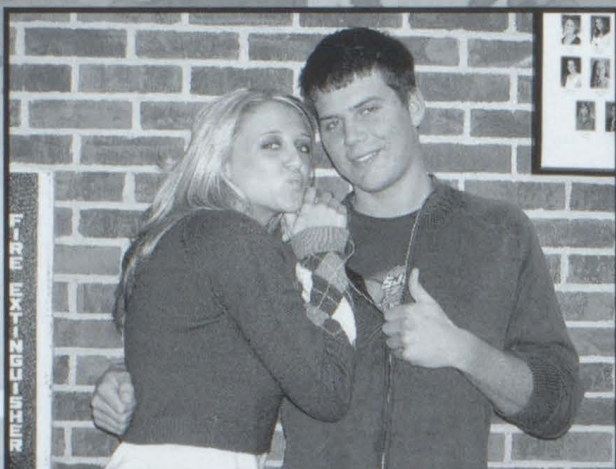

THIS IS OUR TIME TO SHINE

Time is a companion that goes with us on a journey. It reminds us to cherish each moment, because it will never come again. What we leave behind is not as important as how we have lived.

COVINGTON HIGH STAFF AND STUDENTS

NO DREAMER IS EVER TOO SMALL; NO DREAM IS EVER TOO BIG...

COVINGTON HIGH SCHOOL Wow, how do you even begin to describe the kind of students and staff that are wandering the halls everyday at Covington High School? CHS is full of an array of styles, personalities, and minds. For example, a muse machine member, a state champion, and Nintendo gamer could be seen sharing a lunch table. A math teacher, science fossil, and grammar nut all supervise the lunch room while gabbing over the OGT test scores. The differences that we all share make each day more exciting than the last.

Volleyball 2005

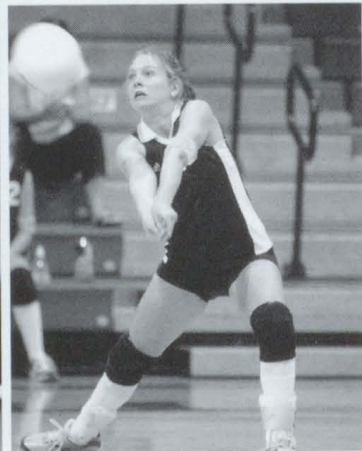

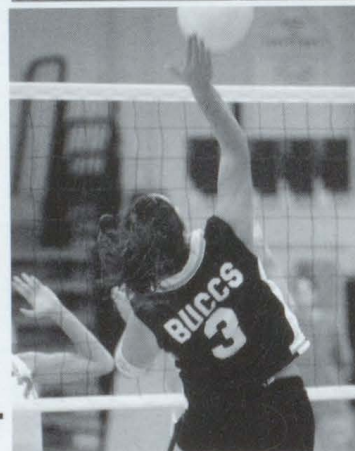

The 2005 Buccaneer volleyball teams had successful seasons. Volleyball is a team sport that requires dedication, hardwork, and lots of communication. The girls this year achieved that as well as a run in the tournament action.

Going The Distance

RUN HARD OR RUN HOME.

"Our Sport Is Your Sport's Punishment"

Junior Chelsea Tebbe shared her experiences on the Girls XC team, 2005: "We had a lot of fun this year: saran wrapping Nate's car, spending the night at Rio Grande, Hueston Woods, and of course, our morning practices. Nate taught us a lot about cross country and tried to tell some good jokes; every once in a while he had some good ones. This season was one of the best, and I'll always remember it."

Nate Gibson, first year cross country coach for the girl's team, said he was greatly impressed. "The girls had an excellent year, I was so impressed by their hard work, effort, and competitiveness. Being a guys coach and having run with guys teams for so long had lead me to the impression that girls didn't work as hard, but that was completely turned around by these girls this year. They never quit; all of them lost between 2 and 4 minutes on their times, and that's amazing! Two of our girls went to regionals, we won a meet, and we had a fantastic season, I'm really proud of these girls."

As coach of the boys for his second year, Nate also commented on their season: "The guys had a productive, learning year. They were all so young but they always kept going and never quit. They would go out and run and just keep getting better without regressing, that, in a young team, is awesome."

Girls Cross Country

TRAVIS MEYER

"I had a good time running this year, and I'm definitely looking forward to next year.

Nate really makes running cross country fun, and we're all glad to have him as our coach."

ZACK GIBSON

"We did Jane Fonda aerobics with Mr. Foster during our first practice, the guys in front of course, it was crazy. The whole season was exhilarating, and as usual, Hueston Woods was awesome."

ANDY HITTLE

"One of my numbers, at the Tour de Sewer actually, was 333, not really significant in any way, except to me, it was pretty lucky. Playing chicken in Hueston Woods and messing around with Nate was awesome."

KING AND QUEEN

Seniors Nick Christian and Amanda Furrow receive their titles as Homecoming King and Queen for 2005.

Homecoming: The Breakdown

In order to be on the Homecoming court, students of the senior class must be nominated by their classmates. Once the nominees have been selected, the entire school votes for one king and queen candidate. Friday of that week, the annual Homecoming parade takes place and at it's conclusion, the queen is announced. The following Saturday at the big bash, the queen announces her king. This tradition has been a part of Covington High School for many years.

COMPREHENSIVE FINANCIAL PLANNING

Jeff Brumbaugh, JD, Certified Financial Planner® licensee

DO YOU WANT TO:

Make more money?

Pay less in taxes?

Save the right way for that new car or new house?

Start your own company?

Jeff Brumbaugh, JD, CFP® is the owner of Troy Financial Group, Inc. and heads the Financial Planning Division. As one of only a few independent Certified Financial Planner® licensees in Miami County, he offers extensive experience in helping people reach their financial goals.

To accomplish this, the first step is to really understand the client and what they want to accomplish for themselves and their family. The second step is to review existing strategies, develop appropriate options, and implement a comprehensive plan that is consistent with their goals. Finally, it is imperative that any plan be constantly monitored and reviewed as life changes occur.

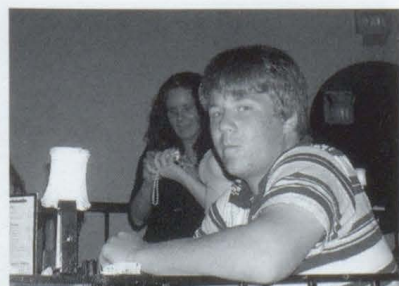

No particular products are pushed, rather Jeff has spent years refining the independent options that are available in the marketplace. With an emphasis on asset allocation and an affiliation with ING, one of the world's largest financial services companies, Jeff offers the following as part of the financial planning process:

- ING Direct – an FDIC-insured bank offering saving accounts, CD's, mortgage and home equity products. The current savings account rate as of May 31, 2006 is 4.25% with no fees and no minimum balances.*
- Investments with little or no market volatility paying 6-6.5% dividends.
- Stocks, bonds, mutual funds, tax credit investments, IRA's and IRA rollovers, §1031 exchanges, and much more.

Often times, knowing who to turn to in a time of need is the most difficult,
but most important, decision you may make.

When it comes to the area of nursing home planning, Medicaid Regulations and a thorough understanding of the Internal Revenue Code, the decision can quickly become overwhelming and making the wrong choice can cost you dearly.

Attorneys have become very much like doctors in their areas of practice. Many attorneys would be considered general practitioners, while others concentrate their knowledge and experience in very specific areas.

Jeff Brumbaugh, of Brumbaugh Law Firm, LPA, Inc. in Troy is an attorney who limits his practice to helping families protect assets and make tough decisions about nursing home issues and with estate and tax planning.

He has dedicated his work to the families of Miami County and many of his clients are referrals from local nursing homes.
