Our Goals

- To Educate students on the dangers of drinking and driving and other drug/safety related issues
- To help students realize that they can have fun without drinking or drugs
- To help students make positive choices in life

The vice president of the club, Kayleigh Cecil, says her favorite part about being in S.A.D.D. club was doing the Mock car crash last year.

S.A.D.D. club Secretary Alex Gast thinks it is important to be in the club because it teaches people not to make stupid decisions.

Club treasurer Ryan Boehringer says he is in S.A.D.D. club because he encourages people to make the right choices.

The S.A.D.D. club sponsored an event on April 24th at the firehouse with the junior and senior classes. The students took the field trip in late April before prom to learn more about the dangers of drinking and driving.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Senior Jenna Rindler explains the requirements to be inducted into the National Honor Society.

The National Honor Society (NHS) is the nation's premier organizations established to recognize outstanding high school and middle level students. More than just an honor roll, NHS and NJHS serve to honor those students who have demonstrated excellence in the areas of Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character. These characteristics have been associated with membership in the organization since their beginnings in 1921 and 1929.

Today, it is estimated that more than one million students participate in activities of the NHS. NHS chapters are found in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, many U.S. Territories, and Canada. Chapter membership not only recognizes students for their accomplishments, but challenges them to develop further through active involvement in school activities and community service.

The Homecoming Dance

Katie Blair, Audrey Brinkman, Olivia Moody, and Emily Katafiasz (kneeling) get into the Renaissance spirit by hanging out with the Virgin Queen, Elizabeth I (center), and her court retinue.

The Senior English classes traveled to the Ohio Ren Fest on Thursday, September 27, 2012. Sadly, the Renaissance Festival will no longer be sponsoring a student day, so this is the last class to enjoy the field trip.

The Mudde Showe

The Senior Boys aren't too cool to enjoy yelling out in Beowulf's defense during the Mudde Showe. Usually a crowd pleaser, some students in this year's class enjoyed the Mudde Showe fully by sitting in the front and getting muddy.
