If you could move anywhere in the world, where would it be?

"If I could move anywhere in the world, I would move under the dirt." - Gavin Lutz.

"Moving to Alicante, Spain would be really nice. I could experience all of it's beauty, and also have my dream job there." - Bailey Tipps.

"Rome or Italy. Wait, isn't Rome in Italy?" - Spencer Brumbaugh.

"I want to be a trauma nurse so I'd like to move out to Los Angeles where crazy things happen to people everyday." - Maci White.

"I would invest most of it and make even more money." - Warrick Reck.

"An airplane and then video games." - Bryce Weer.

"I would probably buy more clothes and then the entire 'Ghost Adventures' series." - Hailey Weer.

Season of Careers

Senior Riley Richards smiles for the camera while waiting for the end of lunch bell to ring.

Junior Rachel Lauber laughs as she looks at finger paints the children in her lab did.

Senior Ian Wilson makes rope with twine during his Environmental Occupations lab. Ian has been going to UVCC since his Junior year, and says, "My favorite part about UVCC is that it's not all about school. You get to have lab that is a lot of fun and do a work program at the same time. I only go to school for two hours per day and then go to work," Ian's advice to anyone considering going to UVCC is: 'GO! It's a blast,'

Top Left: Junior Bryce Staudt operates a CNC machine. Top Right: Juniors Brenna Miller and Hailey Houshel laugh as Hailey demonstrates how to take a temperature on Brenna. Bottom Left: Junior Winter Sims takes a picture of her fellow classmate, Junior Madison Otte. Bottom Right: Senior Gavin McReynolds smiles after a great day at UVCC.

The 2018-2019 Buccaneer was printed by Entourage Yearbooks with the help of Ellen Sillery. This year the yearbook was advised by Mrs. Schmitz. The Buccaneer had a press run of 120 copies, and was created using EDonline. All captions were written, compiled, and/or edited by the members of the Yearbook Class. Photos were taken using a Nikon COOLPIX L620 digital camera, or were provided by Ben Robinson of ColorGreen creative, or JoAnn Bitner of Treasured Images. The Buccaneer is 100% self-supporting through ad and book sales. Thank you to all that made this yearbook a success!
