COVINGTON, OHIO THURSDAY, AUGUST 14, 1930

HENRY FINNEY

Succeeed at Noon Today

Covington's Oldest Mail Carrier Col-

Led to His Reward.

Henry Finney, 62, who has had his success in the post office for twenty-four years, died Monday afternoon at 4:30. Mrs. Martin Finney was the oldest carrier in the冉邦al service for twenty-four years he had lived until Sept. 1.

The family has rented a

Wau

mon a house in their present home for them. His father, Mr. Martin Finney also lived for a year in the service for twenty-four years. He died.

He seemed at times to slightly grow restful, but soon layed uncertain directions and bringing glad to his sufferings this morning.

Mr. Finney was born in Sep. 13th.

9th and married to Mrs. Martin Finney. He was the oldest carrier on the Rural

In the service for twenty-four years.

He passed away.

There are left to mourn his him.

children, Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Bugge, Mrs. Clarence Henness-son and Mrs. C. E. Grembush; two grand children, Mary Catherine Bugge and Lucy Catherine Grembush.

Two brothers, Frank P. of North Mauchuk, Indiana, and Robert P. of Covington, two sisters, Mrs. George Johnson of, of Covington, and Mrs. Martin Finney, survive him. He is survived by proving him in death. One of the sisters, Mrs. John Johnson of, was away just eight years ago, during the epidemic of influenza of the family circle.

There are also many other relatives and friends who will be touched by this.

The sympathy of the community goes out to the family in their loss.

The funeral services have not as yet been arranged. Mr. Geo. W. Millie is the funeral director.

STATE FAIR FOR 1926 WILL BREAK RECORDS.

Will Excel in Diversity and Number of Exhibits

Colombus, Ohio—(Special)—Considering the small progress of the last three years, the Ohio State Fair for August 20th to September 4th, will surpass in importance every previous fair. In the large, diversity of exhibits, in the number of di-cult and interesting record breaking, will be in evidence. The increase in the number of stalls for both the prize list and the class for record breaking, will be marked.

Volume makes possible these values.
