WHEN THE DOOR OPENED

With David Niven—Robert Cale—Valter McGrail—Frank Keeenen and Margaret Livingston

He swept only pears, and found happiness! A fugitive who found himself in the wilderness. He bade all women—he fed from civilization to escape them—but Cupid captured him in the wilds of the North woods. A wanderer who found the wilderness a paradise. The man who was bidden to harrass. The romance of one who trims in these woods.

COMEDY “East Side West Side”
American-Chinese Telephone Exchange Is As Modern in Every Way as Any Office in Ohio

How would you like to pick the names and telephone number of the party you wish to call from the page here?

Well, glory be, it doesn't have to be done here in Ohio but out in San Francisco where there is a Chinese telephone exchange, the page where the Chinese telephone directory prevails a blessing to those who can read Chinese. The Chinese operators at the Chinese telephone office is just as up-to-date as any in America, the Dwight being of the same type as is in use in Ohio and the operators, under the same training as their American sister. There is one place where it might have a "little on an American -dine and that is that the Chinese do not understand and speak both American and Chinese.

Some of the operators in this Chinese telephone office have all the make up in traffic which an American telephone operator, such as warship, is expected to know. The line by the picture of the operator all by herself. The Chinese telephone office in San Francisco is one of the only kind in the world, outside China.

Obituary

Henry Elwesworth Pincock

Mr. Henry Elwesworth Pincock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pincock, is now residing in West Mil., the grandfather at that time to his many grandchildren of the Mills.

He was the third of eight children, his mother dying when he was eight years old. He came to his home at the age of twenty-six years, and in October of the same year, he was married to Miss Millicent Conway, who cared for him until he was twenty-six years of age. In return for this, in later years, he tenderly cared for Mrs. Pincock, a son would care for a mother. At the age of sixty he went to Indiana to live with an only brother, and there he died.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Pincock; five sons and two daughters, and one sister.

Mr. Pincock was a beloved friend to many and was a respected member of the community.
