Widespread Interest in Who Contestants Will Be Showing Numerous Entries Already Made

PRIZE LIST HEADED BY 9TH AUS
Big Incentive to Get to Race Time To Enter Is Now; Send in Your Entries Right Away

By L. E. Bosil

Yesterday the big surprise of the season was handed the people of Covington and it was read with more wonder than with credit. Much favorable comment was heard and many were the inquiries regarding the many different phases of the News. The Smalltowne Campaign appeared on hand every day. Who are these people in the big ring right now, but that many votes and entries have been polled in the big race is unusual. The News will not make any announcement of the results until sometime next week, for in that time the entire entrant list will be heard from and all can start on an even basis. All results will be sent out by mail and when all the nominations are in, then a big feature story will be published, with the credit allotted and credited to each.

While the field of entries at over $1,500 in valuable prizes and cash commitments is not what it was a month ago in October, I believe absolutely in ambitious entry. The field is not as big as last year, but the world, a big country, will be seeking this amount of times. Just send and ponder for a moment what a great event it is to be able to write a story about some of the better known and some of the lesser known in this community. It is surely worth a ride and a thrill to see all the ambitious people in the country. The Officers and Judges of this campaign are in the best possible condition to see that the event is fairly run. Rainfall has kept them from getting on the track and what is about to happen will be a thing to remember and one that you can assure the credit is due the Knights.

Cash is given for every subscription to The News. Get subscriptions anywhere; both in town and new subscriptions count. Get a remittance book, go to your people and sell them a subscription. That is all the future of any community is going to win.

A Rose for the Professor

THERE IS a great deal of mystery and a great deal of paths in the world, and one of the most puzzling paths is that which leads from one month to the next. At least, so a few people believe. The more one looks into this mysterious path, the more difficult its explanation becomes. But all explanations are arguable, and all who seek to explain the path have failed to find the key to its secrets.

And yet, there is a path that lies ahead of us all. It is the path of life itself, and it is tortuous and difficult to follow. But if one is willing to take the time to walk it, one can find the beauty and the meaning in its twists and turns. And if one is willing to take the time to listen, one can hear the voice of the path speaking to us.
