YANKS WIN FIFTH GAME OF SERIES

Today's Game

OFFICIAL BATTERIES
Yankees: Pennock and Seaverd
Cardinals: Sherdel and O'Farrell

Ten Innings

THE SCORE—3 to 2 in favor Yanks

The New York Yankees went in the lead today by winning a ten inning game from the Cardinals. Pennock who did the pitching for the Yanks pitched a tight game from start to finish. This is the last game at St. Louis the teams go back to New York to finish the series.

By Davis J. Walsh
I. N. S. Sports Editor.
(I. N. S. Dispatch)

Sportsman's Park, St. Louis Oct. 7—Somewhat chastened by the melancholy events of yesterday but vocally undefeated and unchanged, St. Louis this afternoon sent more than 37,000 of its best open-faced citizens to the fifth game of the world series prepared to shout the Cardinals into a decision over the New York Yankees. However, if accomplished and eccentric vocalizing could do it, St. Louis would have won the series in four games.

As it was, the Cards and Yankees were running a dead heat at two all in victories prior to today's game and unless the rampaging Ruth can be restrained, all the shouting from a convention of fish salesmen couldn't be figured to send the Cards back East in the lead.

Our Mr. Ruth played home run or no count yesterday in hitting three out of the park and breaking a dozen competitive records, more or less.

Anytime a gent takes himself seriously, there start running. One stop arguing and start running. One may about him down but one enjoys practically no success in shouting him out.

However, the multitude was there to give the thing the good, old college try and they barked in the ways of as pleasant a sun as early October all too seldom knows. The day was matchless.

So was the piccolo player's rubber cheeks as the band diverted the early comers in the bleachers with earnest and pains-taking harmony. Many of the addicts had again spent a restful night on the flat of their feet outside the gates and needed to be diverted.

Indeed they recovered so slowly that it was feared some of them would have to be shot.

One couldn't prove it, however, by the way they chorled in glad glee as their ball club strolled into view shortly noon. St. Louis was backing its favorite to the last; in spite of yesterday's rather depressing defeat which squared the series and assured New York another view of the proceedings.

The support wasn't altogether of a financial nature, however, for the Yanks ruled 6 to 5 favorite to win today's game, largely because Herb Pennock was due to work.

Bill Sherdel, just about as left-handed as any man can be, was the popular choice to pitch for the Cards. Bill lost a left-handed altercation with Pennock in the series premiere at the Yankee stadium but the young man won himself plenty of prestige. It was believed that if Pennock and Sherdel survived the warm-up test, their duel would resolve itself into a case of pay your money and take your choice.

Mrs. Louis Klopfer, of Pleasant Hill spent Wednesday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Minnich.

FLOOD IS HIGHEST IN BEARDSTOWN HISTORY

(I. N. S. Dispatch)

Beardstown Ills. Oct. 7—A new flood-stage record was set here today when the Illinois river reached a stage of 25.8 feet, feet six inches higher than the crest of the devastating flood of 1922. Eleven hundred additional acres of land are under water, following crumbling late last night of the Kelley Lake levee north of this city.

Misery, privation and desolation stalk the water-stricken streets to-day as the flood waters rush into the city with renewed fury, tying up railroad traffic and causing serious breaks in St. Louis telephone, electric light and water mains.

Main streets are teeming with hosts of all description the only available method of transportation. Storms and rains caused the Illinois river to rise to a height unequalled in the annals of this city.

Desperate flights of railroad officials proved futile today when the flood waters swept over the tracks, making all rail communication with St. Louis impossible and tying up the tracks to Frederick, Ills. on the west line.

The river today rose above the 25.1 foot mark of 1922, making the current flood the most serious in the history of the city.

Death entered the flooded region today when Mrs. C. E. Soule died of pneumonia, contracted as a result of the inundation, physicians stated.

Chill winds from the east added to the misery. That the entire city will be under water within a few hours is the prediction of Forecaster Hayes, of St. Louis.

The peak of the rise will occur Saturday, it was stated.

Every business house in the city is flooded.

American Red Cross relief officials arrived here today to take active charge of relief work.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Miller, of Middletown, are here as the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisher.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

(I. N. S. Dispatch)

New York, Oct. 7—Taking of testimony ended in the $441,000 graft trial of Harry M. Daugherty, former attorney general and Thomas W. Miller, former alien property custodian, drew rapidly to a close today.

Colonel William Rand and Max D. Steuer, defense counsel, were to make their final addresses to the jury today. Judge Mack said the case probably would not go to the jury until Saturday.

New York, Oct. 7—James A. (Bud) Stillman, Jr., son of James A. and Anne U. Stillman, Princeton student is engaged to marry Miss Lena Wilson, 18-year-old daughter of a Scotch-Canadian wood cutter. Miss Wilson is now employed as a maid in the Grand Anse, Quebec, lodge of Mrs. Stillman. They expect to be married soon after Bud graduates from Princeton, in June.

Columbus, O. Oct. 7—Alleged shortages totaling 1378.26 are included in the findings for recovery contained in the report, made public here today by State Auditor Joseph Tracy, covering an examination of the records of Butler-county public offices.

St. Louis Oct. 7—The division of the world's series pool of $372,200 for the players will set another record for which the 1926 series has become noted. Figures released here show today. The winning team's players each will receive $4,254.65 and the losing players, $4,129.76 on the basis of 25 divisions in each team.

The previous record in receipts for first four games, in which the players share, was made in 1923, when the Yankees and the Giants divided $363,783.04.

Washington Oct. 7—Government liquor control in Canada has been a failure, Earnest A. Grant, assistant research secretary of the Methodist board of temperance, prohibition and public morals, declared today.

He was sent to Canada to investigate the liquor control system, which has been praised by numerous wets in America as a satisfactory solution of the American prohibition problem.

Cincinnati, O. Oct. 7—About 100 persons narrowly escaped injury when two Cincinnati-Newport (Ky.) street cars were derailed on the central bridge here today.

The cars, proceeding from opposite directions, were forced against steel girder guards when a heavy truck, according to a report made to police, tried to drive between them. The bridge is one which spans the Ohio river at this point.

TWO SERIOUSLY INJURED IN PENNSY WRECK

Buffalo, N. Y. Oct. 7—Two persons were seriously injured and eight more slightly hurt when two coaches of a Pennsylvania passenger train were derailed at Black Creek, four miles north of Cuba, in Cattaraugus county this morning.

The accident occurred at 7 o'clock this morning. A broken rail was the cause.

The two derailed coaches toppled into the old Genesee canal bed. The injured were taken from the wrecked car and removed to Cuba for treatment.

CORONER INVESTIGATES; DEATH DUE TO APOPLEXY

Mrs. Malisa Hall who lives on Pearl Street, near the Presbyterian Church, was found dead in her bed, when the neighbors became alarmed and broke open the door to her home.

Mrs. Hall had been employed by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rench at the Valley Restaurant since last April. Last week she complained of dizziness and a pain in her left eye. Mrs. Rench told her she had better go home and rest until the next morning. Mrs. Hall returned and seemed better, until Tuesday of this week when she again complained of her eye. Yesterday she kept her eye shaded and felt too ill to remain at work for the afternoon. Mrs. Raymond Stoner accompanied her to her home. In the evening Mrs. Rench asked the neighbors to go across and see whether she was all right, as she felt uneasy about her condition. Mrs. Bashore went across the street and saw a light in the kitchen, but knowing Mrs. Hall was very deaf, did not make an attempt to arouse her. Mr. and Mrs. Rench went to Piqua and notified Mrs. Hazel Manning that her mother was not feeling very well. Mrs. Manning came to Covington, but thinking her mother had retired for the night did not go into her home. This morning it became necessary to break open the door, and she was found dead.

Dr. Herbert Kendall was called but it was thought best to call the Miami County coroner who pronounced the death due to apoplexy.

Mrs. Hall was about sixty-five years of age and leaves one son and two daughters to mourn her loss, Mr. E. B. Hall, Chicago, Mrs. Hazel Manning Piqua, Mrs. E. E. Zarbatsky, Montreal Canada. A sister and brother, Mrs. J. H. Chenoweth, Detroit, Mich., and Mr. James Wren, Winchester, Ind., also remain.

Funeral services have not yet been arranged. Routzahn Brothers were called as Funeral Directors.

TAGGING ALL THE BASES

(L. N. S. Dispatch)

By Davis J. Walsh.

When Ruh went to left field after hitting his third home run, he gestured toward the bleachers as an indication of where his next hit was going. "He was calling his shots." In other words, he was playing home run or no count.

Rhem's stop ball that Ruth wafer into the center-field stands was a large laugh. The ball wasn't exactly slow; it was tedious.

Well, anyhow, the Cards found out who was not going to pitch during the next three games.

Ruth played absolutely no favorites. His first homer off Rhem was hit on a curve inside. His second off the same pitcher came on a slow ball, or whatever it was. The third, off Herman Bell, was off a fast ball.

Incidentally, his first cleared the right-field wall, right on the foul line. His second cleared the stands in right center, and his third fell in the bleachers in dead center field.

Hoyt gained the easiest decision in the record of world series play. He pitched a bad ball game and won a perfectly good victory.

Funny what a difference a few hours can make. It was no trick at all to sleep in St. Louis last night.

At that, a lot of the boys have been guilty of wise cracks about Sportsman's park. No fans could have been fairer to a visiting club than the local addicts have been to the Yankees.
They were absolutely sold on Ruth after he hit his second homer, and after he hit the third, the park was his.

Koenig, apparently, is a shortstop who can go far to his right and not at all to his left. He gets everything in back of third base and misses everything around second.

If the Yanks win and even the most biased observers are willing to grant now that this chance is by no means overemphasized, they will be the most unbalanced club that ever won a world's title. They have a shortstop who kicked far and from a very difficult angle and a center fielder who couldn't throw a man out from the pitcher's box.

Combs had a chance to throw a man out on a sacrifice fly to the immediate rear of the infield, and made a very accurate throw to 3rd base.

The Yanks run the bases like the headless horseman of Ichabod Crane fond fancy. Otherwise they would be scoring yet.

A playing manager cannot think and play ball at the same time.
When the Yanks finally were in front so far that all hope had, John McGraw remarked: "If I were Rogers I would rest O'Farrell now." But the man who had caught more than 145 games this season remained in the lineup to the end.

The second-guessers, in fact enjoyed an excellent afternoon. Many of them felt that Hornsby had erred in removing Rhem at such an early moment, particularly with Hoyt going so badly. A second-guesser will be wrong one of these days and they 'll simply have to close up all the haberdasheries.

L Bell's stop that caught Ruth going the wrong way off third base was a Lulu. Either that or a Lillian.

Age of Luxuries

Not to be entirely outdone by reports of purchases of solid gold dinner plates at very high prices, a special order has just been placed in New York by a certain woman for teaspoons of the solid metal at $500 a dozen. In another case an order has been sent in to a well-known concern in New York calling for six fancy goblets wrought in solid gold.
Just what they will cost the purchaser was not known, as the price had not been calculated for the style of goblet wanted. That this is a minor factor in the transaction, however, is indicated by the fact that the order was "signed, sealed and delivered" by the purchaser on the assurance of the selling house that it could be executed as desired.

Chlorine Bomb for Home

A chlorine gas bomb has just been perfected by a couple of chemists of San Francisco by which the same results may be obtained in a treatment at home as that provided by more elaborate apparatus. "All that is necessary" is for the patient suffering from a cold to sit in a closed room for an hour after breaking off the ends of the gas bomb, which is a glass globe filled with pure, filtered chlorine gas. The escaping gas mingles with the air of the room and it is claimed, will cure a "stubborn" cold.

Peru Favors American

The government of Peru has set aside one of its strictest regulations in favor of an American scientist, Dr.
Alfred L. Kroeber of the University of California, who will be permitted to bring to this country relics of the ancient Inca civilization uncovered by an exploring expedition in which he will have the co-operation of Peruvian scientists. A special decree was necessary to suspend the usual provision that archeological objects shall not be exported from the country.

OHIOANS SAVE BILLION DOLLARS

Building and Loan Companies Reach Billion Dollar Mark in Resources

NOT A DOLLAR LOST

Financed Fifty Thousand New Homes in Ohio During the Past Year

Columbus, Ohio. (Special)—Ohio has just set another national record. Its building and loan companies now excel in resources and in depositors the building and loan associations of all other states. General prosperous conditions are reflected in the annual report of Ohio building and loan associations just made, which shows that these institutions have reached the billion dollar mark in resources.

Serving Many People

These institutions are now serving more than two million Ohio people, representing more than one-half of the families in Ohio. More than 90 per cent of their resources is loaned on first mortgage security on Ohio homes. During the past year, fifty thousand homes were financed, a record number for any one year.

Sixty per cent of the savings accounts in these institutions are held by women. Deposits run from $1.00 to $100,000, indicating that

Mr. King is president of the state association of building and loan companies. He is the author of the King Law, under which Ohio building and loan associations are now operating.

building and loan companies receive the wages of the working man and the accumulations of the wealthy. Although these institutions handled several billion dollars last year, not a single depos-itor lost a penny, according to the State Building and Loan Department.

Ohio building and loan associations, which this year are celebrating the reaching of a billion dollars in resources, have operated for more than a half century for one purpose—the safe keeping of savings and the financing of homes.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

A number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wolfe, Sunday, especially honoring the birth-per. They all came with well filled baskets enjoying the day at the Wolfe home. Those present were Mr. and

MRS. FLORY ILL

Mrs. J. W. Flory, who has been in delicate health for sometime, was not so well Monday evening. She is improving a little at this writing, but friends were quite alarmed at her second break down, Monday evening.

Varnish Under Furniture

There are a great many pieces of furniture in all homes that have never been varnished on the bottom or back because these surfaces are not exposed to view. Unvarnished wood readily absorbs moisture from the air.
This causes it to swell and to contract as the wood dries out. Warping and loose joints follow. A coat of varnish on these unseen parts will exclude moisture and prevent trouble.

Sweetness of Sugars

Several professors at the University of Minnesota published a method for determining the relative sweetness of the various sugars, and they find that if the sweetness of cane sugar be represented by 100, fruit sugar becomes 173, grape sugar 74 and milk sugar 16.

Love Can Be Cruel

As a race becomes more practical with age, the credits and debts of love are gone over with more candor and wisdom. Some of the debts are very hard on both sides; some say worse with women than with men. Still, love sometimes slaps a man pretty hard, too.—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

Those Who Lift

There are some men and some women in whose company we are always at our best. While with them we cannot think mean thoughts or speak ungenerous words. Their mere presence is elevation, purification, sanctitude. All the best stops in our nature are drawn out by their intercourse, and we find a music in our souls that was never there before.—Henry Drummond, in "The Alchemy of Influence."

HEARING TO BE RESUMED TOMORROW

Los Angeles, Oct. 6—The preliminary hearing of Amies Semple McPherson, evangelist; her mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, and Mrs. Lorraine Wise man-Bellatt on criminal conspiracy charges will be resumed tomorrow, with all concerned today preparing for the next session.

Yesterday's session was particularly trying to the defense, chiefly because Joe Ryan, diminutive deputy district attorney, who had been on the witness stand for two days, coolly parried every question of the cross-examination by examiner, W. I. Gilbert.

Ryan made no attempt yesterday at impenitence. He came out flat-footed and stated that he believed Mrs. McPherson's story concerning her kidnapping was a monumental hoax. The manner in which he related his investigation at the case around the wreck of Qilbert, chief defense counsel, who accused Ryan of "wise cracking."

WALSH SAYS

by the sensational band, which made a tour of the bleachers playing full in the face of all comers. The favorite ballad seemed to be "There'll be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight."

Everyone knew that already. The Yanks, appearing at 12:25, were greeted with a generous cheer, and the inevitable, "East Side, West Side all around the town."

By that time Sotheron was obliging by pitching to the batters. Then the Yankees flat-wheeled to the cage and Garland Braxton, a left-hander, served them up.

The Yanks, sided by a brisk wind, were seeking long ones in practice, both Combs and Carlisle hitting over the stands in right and Koenig sending in another into the left field stands. Ruth's second contribution was a pop fly and an infield smash.

While the Yankees were indulging in fielding practice, word reached the press stand that Hornsby had decided to which his pitchers and would rely upon Flint Rhem, the fast-ball boy. Huggins, however, stuck with Hoyt.

Rhem began warming up at 1:15 o'clock, just after the Cards had been presented with watches by a local jeweler in commemoration of their achievement in winning the National League pennant. Hoyt then stepped out to warm for the Yanks.

Although the sun stuck gamely to the situation, the air was a bit chill and overcasts were being worn by the best people; also the smartest.

Our Mr. Ruth, who hits them with great enthusiasm in practice and great infrequency in the game, smote one over the right-center field stands, causing a gent in the upper stand to fall off his seat.

Fred Merkle, the well-known pitcher, was in the box at the time. Hoyt took his turn in batting practice, indicating that Huggins had made up his very firm mind.

A SURPRISE PARTY

A surprise party was given for Mrs. Louise O'Rourke, at her home last evening. The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Brant and Mr. and Mrs. Jessie O'Rourke.

A good time was had by all present. Sandwiches and coffee were served as refreshments during the evening.

New York, Oct. 6—Counsel for Harry M. Daugherty, former attorney-general, and Thomas W. Miller, former alien property custodian, on trial on conspiracy charges, expected to finish their testimony tomorrow. The case probably will go to the jury next Monday.

Paris, Oct. 6—The Infanta Beatrice of Spain today suddenly cancelled her passage to America on the Levant and will not accompany Queen Marie of Roumania on her tour. No reason was given for the princess' unexpected action.

Worleys Store is now fitted with a complete course of Door and window glass and will do your glazing for you in a jiffy while you wait.

Mrs. Susan McCurdy and daughter Miss Bessie of Troy, were Monday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Billingsley, at their country home east of Covington.

AKRON JUDGE ON TRIAL

Akron, O. Oct. 6—Impachment proceedings against Common Pleas Judge L. S. Pardee, who is charged by the Ohio Nonpartisan League with exceeding his authority by blocking an aldermanic election, will reach a decision in the court of appeals here today.

Judge Pardee is alleged to have issued injunctions recently which kept the names of candidates from the ballots in the third and fifth wards here.

G. T. Grant, chief defense counsel, has charged that many of the names signed to the petition asking the removal are fictitious. This is substantiated in the testimony of several purported petitioners, who declared they had not signed the document.

IMPROVING

Mrs. Jacob Killian, who dislocated her hip sometime ago is improving very nicely, but will remain at the local Hospital until well enough to be taken home.

The boys had been in a number of other towns before reaching Covington and this was the cause of the lateness of the hour, but Covington knows now it was all for the Pumpkin show at Bradford this week.
