STAR WITNESS' LIFE THREATENED

Attorney Appeals For Protection of Mrs. Lorraine Wiseman-Sellaff Star Witness in McPherson Case

(U. N. S. Dispatch)

Los Angeles, Oct. 12—Mysterious death threats were made today against Mrs. Lorraine Wiseman-Sellaff, confessed perpetrator of "Miss X" hoax, following her testimony at the preliminary hearing of Alvin Karpis, during which she detailed grave accusations at Mrs. McPherson and her mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy.

As a result of these threats, S. S. Hahn, attorney for Mrs. Wiseman-Sellaff, appealed for protection for the state's star witness. Detectives closely guarded Mrs. Wiseman-Sellaff during the day.

A man telephoned him at his office Hahn declared, and told him "something will happen to Mrs. Wiseman if she don't look out."

An unsigned letter, believed to have been written by a woman, was sent to the attorney's office stating "this woman will pay dearly for what she is doing."

Miss Bernice Morris, secretary, to the late R. A. McKinley, blind Long Beach attorney, killed in an automobile accident two months ago while attempting to produce kidnappers and a desert shack for Mrs. McPherson, will be the witness called following Mrs. Wiseman-Sellaff.

VINCENNES PUBLISHER BEFORE GRAND JURY TODAY

(U. N. S. Dispatch)

Adams, Vincennes publisher, to appear before the Marion-county grand jury at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon with the books, documents, papers, photographs and any other exhibits in his possession having to do with corruptness of official misconduct in Marion county.

Remy also issued forthwith subpoenas for six witnesses but made public the names of only three of them—all once lieutenants of D. C. Stephenson, former grand dragon of the Indiana K. K. K. whose charges, flung from his prison cell at the state prison, where he is now serving a life sentence for murder, precipitated the present political embroglio.

The Stephenson henchmen subpoenaed were:

Earl Kleck, of Evansville, Ind., and Earl Gentry and Court Asher of Muncie, Ind.

SEVENTEEN SPEED DEMONS IN GREAT RACE TODAY

World's Champion Driver To Be Decided This Afternoon.

(U. N. S. Dispatch)

Rockingham Speedway, Salem, N. H. Oct. 12—While the country today was celebrating the discovery of America by Columbus, automobile fadom of the East was making a Klonidie rush to this monster spruce sander in the valley of woods and farms just above the Massachusetts-New Hampshire boundary line to discover before nightfall America's automobile racing champion. The weather was fair today and there was the zip of autumn in the air.

The advantage lies with Harry Hartz, who is leading for 1926 championship honors, but Peter de Paolo and Frank Lockhart also have a chance for the coveted honor. The trio are close together in the number of points earned in various championship events this year. The title goes to the winner of today's 200-mile grind. Harts did 136.3 miles per hour to qualify.

Before the big race came two 25-mile dashes, but the great crowd that began to drive early by automobile and special trains saw in these dashes only appetizers for the 200-mile melodrama.

Lockhart, young flash from the Pacific coast, who amazed the world on Memorial Day by winning the 500-mile race at Indianapolis, was the center of much interest today.

Ralph Hepburn who was nearly killed recently at a Charlotte, N. C. speedway was out for his first big start since his accident.

Earl Cooper, who won the 200-mile race here last July, was also on the track, as were the "four horsemen," Leon Durray, Bob McDonough, Dave Lewis and Peter Kreiss. They derive their nickname from the fact that they are all using the same type of racing car.

In all, seventeen speed demons were on the board track today.

PERSHING IS CHOICE OF WORLD WAR VETERANS

(U. N. S. Dispatch)

Sesqui Auditorium, Philadelphia, Oct. 12—Pershing and Paris!

The election will not take place until Friday. The convention site will not be chosen until tomorrow. But everything is "in the bag."

The convention demonstrated its overwhelming preference for General Pershing when "Black Jack" made his first appearance on the platform today. A demonstration with state banners similar to those of national political conventions even was started.

Speaker after speaker, including two official representatives of the French government, referred to Paris as the site of the 1927 convention, the delegates stood upon their chairs and cheered.

Washington, Oct. 12—Change of station and command was ordered today by the war department for Brigadier General William E. Gilmore from office as chief of air corps to McCook field, Dayton, Ohio, to the material division effective about October 25.

CHAMPIONS HONORED

St. Louis Oct. 12—With a casualty list of two dead and more than a score injured, this city gave its final cheer for the world's champions and today returned to a normal state of mind.

Forty thousand persons jammed Sportsman's park last night when a public reception was held for the conquering heroes and sent up a cheer as the baseball celebrities appeared on a platform construction in the center of the diamond.

Alexander, Thevenon, Southworth and others were acclaimed by a multitude of fans who met the train that brought the champions from New York. The celebration was lacking in one respect—the absence of Rogers Hornsby, who departed earlier in the evening for Austin, Texas to attend the funeral of his mother.

The reception was the final demonstration of the fans. During Sunday night's outburst, two persons were fatally injured and about 80 others were injured in traffic accidents.

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS

Columbus, Ohio, October 12—A total of 22,227 claims were filed with the Industrial Commission of Ohio during the month of September. This is an increase of 4,784 over the month previous. The number of death claims filed during September was 107, or 3 more than during the month of August. Receipts from all sources during the month of September totalled $2,158,639.81. This is $1,464,123.91 more than during the month of August. Disbursements during September totalled $1,138,210.49 or $153,100.63 more than for the month preceding. At the close of business September 30th there was a balance in the State Insurance Fund of $50,235,485.58, of which approximately $48,000,000 was reserved for claims allowed but not paid, and other encumbrances.

G. F. Schlesinger, director of highways asks cooperation of the public in preserving the markers and warning signs along state highways. Warning signs and signals are carefully erected at points of danger for the protection of human life. Notwithstanding this, vandals have defaced and injured many of these safeguards to such an extent in many cases that their value is entirely lost. In some cases the wording on the signs has been altered so as to change their meaning in response to a particularly low and degenerate form of wit. Schlesinger stated the Highway Department was making every effort to reduce the number of accidents and make the roads safe for travel, and that Ohio was recognized everywhere as one of the best marked States in the Union.

Many signs are destroyed by accident, no doubt, but these cases should be reported at once in order that replacement can be made.

Rainy, wet weather is playing havoc with the late potato crop in Ohio, and unless some dry weather comes before a freeze there is going to be a tremendous loss to farmers of the State, and subsequent high prices for potatoes. There are hundreds of thousands of bushels yet in the field and most of them should be out of the ground at this time, but digging them is impossible in the muddy fields. It will require a week or more of good weather before many farmers can remove their crop from the grounds, and unless this comes within another two weeks most of the crop will be ruined. Those being dug now shows signs of rot and decay because of the wet grounds.

Realization that the announced policy of the Democratic leaders is to destroy the protective tariff and the accompanying remembrance of the terrible industrial conditions in Ohio and the nation, as a result of the last Democratic tariff, has awakened the business men of Ohio within the last few days to the importance of Senator Frank B. Willis' continuance in the Senate as never before.

The last Democratic tariff was enacted in October 1913. By Christmas 7,000 men were walking the streets in Columbus alone and factories were shutting down or running on greatly curtailed capacity, all over the State. By the following July 61,000 men were out of employment in Cleveland and most large Ohio cities had issued bonds to re-establish soup houses. The war interrupted these conditions, but as soon as the war was over, they again became the rule in 1919 and 1920. Only the passage of the tariff acts started the country to wards an industrial level never reached at any time heretofore in the history of the country. The Democratic senator from Ohio voted against every tariff duty included in these bills. This realization in the minds of business men and labor leaders of the State, who do not want present prosperity conditions interfered with at all, has brought a surge of support to Senator Willis that is interpreted by political observers to make absolutely certain his certain success on Nov. 2nd.

STATE AUTHORITIES AIDING CHICAGO CLEANUP CAMPAIGN

Open Warfare in Chicago Streets Results in Two Deaths.

(I. N. S. Dispatch)

Chicago, Oct. 12—Every law-enforcement agency in Cook county, reinforced by state and federal authorities, had joined forces today to forestall further casualties in gangland's "war of extermination," which reopened here yesterday in a amazing spectacle of wholesale murder.

Within thirty minutes after gangster machine guns had mowed down six men in the street in front of Holy Name cathedral, killing two and probably wounding a third, Chief of Police Morgan Collins, Chief of Detectives Wm. Shoemaker and four assistant state's attorneys were in secret conference, devising plans to prevent further bloodshed.

Today, four separate investigations were under way in an effort to unravel the maze of contributory factors that led to this latest rampage of gangland. Federal agents, coroner's deputies, police officials and the staff of the state's attorney's office were conducting their own inquiries.

The authorities are convinced the attack was just another chapter in the bitter feud of "Scar-face Al" Capone's Cicero gang and the Weiss-Drucci combine, who have been waging a relentless war for control of the beer and alcohol traffic of Cook county.

Police have been expecting such a flare-up since it was learned that a "peace parley" between Capone and Weiss, held at a downtown hotel three weeks ago, had failed.

Squads of detectives were scouring the badlands of Cicero today in search of Capone and members of his Gang.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Curtis had as guests Sunday Mr. Levi Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Williamson and son Willie and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Williamson of Bellefontaine.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Williamson remained for a few days visit.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian Church will meet Wednesday night at 7 o'clock.

NEW TRIAL NOT LIKELY IN DAUGHTERY CASE

Prosecutor is Seriously Disappointed Daughtery Comes Home.

(J. N. S. Dispatch)

New York Oct. 12—A new trial appeared unlikely today in the case of Harry M. Daughtery former attorney-general, and Thomas W. Miller, former alien property custodian, freed yesterday when the jury in the $44,000 conspiracy trial reported a disagreement and was discharged.

United States Attorney Emory R. Buckner, who prosecuted the case, pointed out today that the indictment still stood against both defendants but said he would not know for a month whether or not he would bring them to trial again. Buckner and his assistants plainly showed their disappointment.

Senator Borah in Washington, indicated that Daughtery and Miller will be compelled to testify before the Borah committee in investigate transactions of the alien property custodian's office. The committee is not expected to meet before December.

Daughtery was en route to his home in Columbus, Ohio, today.

EVANGELIST RESTING TODAY

Los Angeles, Oct. 12—Aimee Semple McPherson, the auburn-haired evangelist, and her mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, planned to spend today at the beach during the recess over the legal holiday of their preliminary hearing on charges of conspiring to defeat justice.

When court reopens, Wednesday morning, Mrs. Lorraine Wiseman-Sellaf, witness for the prosecution, will continue her astounding narrative of how Mrs. McPherson hired and coached her to declare publicly that it was she and her sister, "Miss X," and not the Angelus temple pastor who spent ten days with Kenneth Ormiston in a Carmel-by-the-Sea cottage.
