Giant Ship First to Cross Mountains
Since Shenandoah Disaster. Will Test Ford's Mast at Dearborn.

(U. N. S. Dispatch)

Lakehurst, N. J., Oct. 14.—With fair weather predicted along her route, the dirigible Los Angeles hopped off for Detroit at 11:05 a. m. today from the naval air station here.

Forty-four persons were aboard the airship, including Rear Admiral William Moffat, chief of the bureau of aeronautics. The ship's destination is the Ford airport in Detroit, where a mooring mast enough to hold the Los Angeles has been erected.

The flight today began the first extensive cross country dirigible trip since the ill-fated Shenandoah, sister ship of the Los Angeles, crashed into the valley at Ava, Ohio, September 3, 1925. The route to be taken by the Los Angeles was to be almost the same as that followed by the Shenandoah.

Commander. C. E. Rosendahl, in command of the Los Angeles, is one of the survivors of the Shenandoah disaster. He sketched out four tentative routes for today's flight. Rosendahl said he would not be certain which he would follow until he had tested weather conditions on the first leg of the flight. The ship is due back here in three days.

The big air vessel took off under ideal weather conditions. There was scarcely any breeze. A large crowd below cheered forth a bon voyage.

STUEBENVILLE MAYOR PERMANENTLY REMOVED

Decision Given Today By Judge Paisley in Common Pleas Court.

I. N. S. Sports Editor.

Stuebenville, O., Oct. 14.—Mayor John S. H. Patton was permanently removed from office this morning by the court of common pleas. The decision was rendered by Judge J. S. Paisley on an ouster suit charging the official with dereliction of duty.

Dr. E. J. C. Sader, physician and acting mayor during the period that the mayor has been suspended, automatically became the new head of the city administration.

Mayor Patton was suspended two months ago when a petition signed by 425 persons was filed, alleging that he had failed to enforce vice laws and had otherwise been remiss in the performance of his duties.

The petition was sponsored by the ministerial association, who took an active part in the hearing of the ouster suit.

Sheriff Blaine D. Carter also was removed from office at the same time but has not faced charges, as he has been absent from the city since his removal.

The defense set up the claim that the petitioners were not qualified voters but this was overruled by Judge Paisley.

The case marks the first permanent removal of a mayor to be recorded since the Ohio ouster law became effective taking such steps out of the hands of the governor.

The decision oustering Patton will be taken immediately to the court of appeals for a ruling, the former mayor stated.

The decision of the common pleas judge cited the fact that the mayor is invested with powers which give him control over the police department; and that he could have discharged any policeman who failed to do his duty. It also called attention to the fact that the evidence showed Patton was intoxicated and no testimony had been introduced to controvert this allegation, which the court declared must, therefore, be accepted as truth.

ONE MAN KILLED TWO ARE INJURED

When Seven Bandits Hold Up Mail Truck.

(I. N. S. Dispatch)

Elizabeth, N. J., Oct. 14.—One man was shot and killed, another wounded and a motorcycle policeman injured here today when seven armed bandits held up a United States mail truck.

The bandits then broke into the mail truck, seized several pouches of mail enroute to Elizabethport and escaped. It is not known what the value of the loot was.

The dead man is John Enne, of Elizabeth. He was the driver of the truck. His helper, Patrick S. Quinn, also of Elizabeth, was shot in the arm and will recover.

The motorcycle policeman was Jacob Christman. He was escorting the truck when one of the two bandits cars ran him down, seriously injuring him.

Enne was shot through the head and died in the Elizabeth general hospital at 10 a. m., forty-five minutes after the shooting. Christman and Quinn were taken to the Alexian Brothers hospital here.

After running down Christman, four of the bandits opened fire on the truck driver and his helper, while the other broke open the rear of the truck and seized the pouches.

An official of the Elizabethport Banking Company admitted that one of the pouches stolen contained approximately $16000 in cash being transferred by registered mail from the federal reserve bank in New York to the local bank.

The bandits overtook the truck in two large closed cars. As one of the automobiles ran down Jacob Christman, the motorcycle policeman, throwing him to the roadway, the other was driven opposite the truck and the bandits opened fire on the two men on the seat.

The bandits in the other car, after turning their machine gun on Christman, wounding him three times, ripped open the door of the mail car, seized the pouches and drove rapidly away. The second car disappeared in another direction.

Police said that, as far as they knew, today's holdup was the first in the eastern part of the country in which a machine gun had been used.

The gun, a Thompson .45 caliber, was found in the street when police arrived. Several bullets were still unfired.

Another pay roll amounting to $1,700 in cash was also stolen, according to the People's National Bank to which it was consigned.

Hope that the bandits might be captured followed word telephoned in from various towns that the two cars passed through and were being pursued by two motorcycle policemen.

The bandits were first sighted in Newark, when they passed a traffic block, and the motorcycle man took up the chase. They were reported traveling at a tremendous rate, of speed through Millburn, Dayton, Livingston, Summit and Madison, the policemen not far behind.

FIRES SWEEPING NEW SOUTH WALES COAST

Country ablaze for 100 miles—Settlers
Forces to Flee From Homes,
Strong Winds Fanning
Flames

(I. N. S. Dispatch)

London, Oct. 14—Disastrous bush fires are sweeping the New South Wales coast, driving settlers from their homes and destroying valuable timber and burning herds, alive, according to a Sydney dispatch to the Evening News.

A message from Brisbane says that city is encircled by flaming bush and that every hill within fifteen miles is ablaze. It is indicated that it is not anticipated that the fires will reach the city limits of Brisbane.

Two dispatches state that the fires are most devastating in the country north of Sydney. The country between Lismore and Port Macquarie for a distance of a hundred miles is ablaze, with a nine-mile frontage of flames between Myrtle Creek and Elagrawan.

Strong winds are fanning the flames and dry grass and timber are furnishing tinder-like fuel.

The spread of the fire has been so rapid that settlers have been forced to flee without taking much of their property with them, any of them seeing their homes in flames as they fled.

Entire settlements are believed to have been destroyed by the fire.

Cattle and live stock have fled in panic before the flames and huge losses are mounting to owners of cattle.

The losses in timberland will run into huge figures, it is feared. Although every effort is being made to check the sweep of the flames, human efforts have proved puny when pitted against the forces of nature.

AUTHORITIES ARE CONVINCED CHILD WAS MURDERED

Sheriff Begins Search for Clues to Mystery Murder of Little Tot.

(E. N. S. Dispatch)

Jefferson, O. Oct. 14—"I am convinced that Isabel Zandarski was murdered and her body secretly taken to the swamp where it was found," declared Sheriff H. D. Hunnum, of Ash-tabula county.

The sheriff based this conclusion on additional evidence revealed by physicians here who have performed a second autopsy, disclosing that three of the child's ribs had been broken prior to death.

An effort to clear up the mystery which has veiled the affair since the child disappeared during the night of September 21, from her parent's home at East Orwell, the sheriff has requested aid of Cleveland detectives.

The original postmortem showed that Isabel had met death due to a blow at the base of the skull, which had caused a fracture.

The body, discovered Tuesday by Floyd Congdon, a hunter, in a tamarack swamp was so badly decomposed that identification was made only through the child's clothing.

Frank Knurick, 18, uncle of the girl, who spent the night of her disappearance in a room adjoining hers, still is held in the county jail here for questioning. He adheres to his original story, that he heard nothing untoward during the night.

Anthony and Josephine Zandarski, parents of the child, also continue to disclaim any knowledge of what happened to their daughter. The latter admit having punished the child just prior to putting her to bed, the night of the crime.

BOY'S BASKET

The prospects of a basketball team this year are as good as ever for C. H. S. The first practice was held Wednesday night and a large number turned out for this season's work. Though there is not so much material left from last year, several dark horses have turned up.

Under the expert coaching of Prof. Poe, Covington will retain its old position in the basketball world. Covington hasn't lost its fighting spirit yet and is going to give the teams of the neighborhood towns a hard run.

We have with us from last year's team, two old standbys. Deal who will probably make a valuable center. Smith also is right on the job and will be a guard of merit. There are also other fellows who can play basketball this year, including Walcott, McFadden, Alberty, Berryhill, Boyer, Buchanan, Cool, Rhoades, Wilks, Warner, Shafer, Augustine, and last, but not least, Rothermal, who has come out this year for the first time.

Among the lower classmen who are doing good work this year are Wilson, Shafer, Johnson, Flick, Sanders, Muttner, Weneman and our heavy weight champion, Helman. Several Freshmen have come out and will probably be good players with several years practice.

Miss Gracie Rensch was one of the Covington visitors at the Bradford Pumpkin Show last evening.

Philadelphia Oct. 14—The American Legion today rejected the world court this reversing its action taken last year at Omaha.

The refusal to reaffirm support of President Coolidge and the senate in seeking American adherence to the court protocol as asked by the resolutions committee was based on the argument that the world court had become a political issue and, as much could not be approved or condemned by the legion under its constitution.

STEPHENSON TESTIFYING IN INDIANA SCANDAL CASE

By Carl L. Harris
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

Indianapolis Oct. 14—A second appearance of D. C. Stephenson, potentate of Indiana's alleged super-government, before the Marion county grand jury in session here to probe the charges of corruption in high places of state and city governments loomed today on the investigation horizon, clouded and befogged with charges and counter charges, whispered conferences, secret meetings and sudden goings and comings of the principal actors in this drama.

Although it was the consensus of opinion today that the former grand klegale of the Indiana K. K. K. had failed to "blow 'em out of the water" in the brief 50 minutes during which he was closeted with the Marion county grand jury here yesterday, there was indications today that the "old man" might be returned here again from the state penitentiary at Michigan City to answer specific questions concerning charges voiced by Floyd Christian, of Noblesville, his former attorney.

Christians statement was made late yesterday and it came as virtually the only bright spot in a day of disappointment for the committee, headed by Thomas H. Adams, Vincennes, Ind., publisher which is pushing the probe.

In it Christian declared that, while acting as Stephenson's counsel during his trial for murder for the death of Madge Oberholzer, for which he is now serving a life sentence, he saw in Stephenson's possession a cancelled check for $5,000 made payable to Governor Ed Jackson.

He also saw, according to his statement, a letter bearing what was claimed to be the signature of Mayor John Duval, of Indianapolis, in which the mayor guaranteed Stephenson favors in return for his support in the election.

It is these documents, among others, which Adams and his committee claim to have in their possession in photo-static copies and Christian's statement corroborating Adams's was generally hailed as a ten-strike for the prosecution, not only through the fact itself but also because of Christian's high standing throughout the city. This, Adams felt, and his point was generally conceded, would lend great additional weight to the entire probe, which had entred on something of an unstable and uncertain career today.

The appearance of Stephenson before the grand jury and at the civil hearing yesterday had been an occasion fought for and looked forward to for days. Stephenson himself, through his friends, declared that, if he could once get outside the walls of the penitentiary, he would tell a story to all who might want to listen which would shake the entire state.

Governor Jackson today categorically denied that he had ever received any checks or moneys from Stephenson.

D. C. Stephenson never at any time gave me a check or any sum as a gift for campaign purposes and any statement that he did is absolutely false," the governor stated.
