BIG POSSE SEARCHING FOR BANDITS

Los Angeles Makes Trip in 16 Hours, 35 Minutes

1,000 MEN MARCHING TOWARD HIDING PLACE

Airplanes Flying Above, While Posses Scour Country-Side for Bandit Gang.

BULLETIN (I. N. S. Dispatch)

Somerville, N. J. Oct. 15—Major Mark C. Kimberling, in charge of the man hunt for the eight machine-gun bandits who yesterday shot their way out of Elizabeth, N. J., with $300-000 in registered mail loot, after killing one man and injuring three others announced this afternoon that it may take three days of intensive effort to comb the Watchung mountain section where the men are believed to be hiding.

Nearly 1,000 men, heavily armed are engaged in the dangerous hunt.
The bandits are believed entrenched some where in the mountain fastnesses, equipped with machine guns, automatics and sawed-off shotguns, ready to shoot themselves to freedom if the opportunity presents itself.

(I. N. S. Dispatch)

Plainsfield, N. J. Oct. 15—Two hundred armed men, ready to shoot to kill, marched toward the Watchung mountain near here early today, closing in on the eight machine-gun des-perados who killed one man and wounded three others in a $300,000 mail truck robbery yesterday at Elizabeth, N. J.

Airplanes equipped with tear bombs and hand grenades and manned by state troopers were to fly over the mountains in an effort to locate the killers. The fugitives were believed to be hiding in the mountains, although Major Mark C. Kimberling, directing the man-hunt, received word from Morrisstown shortly before midnight that the occupants of two automobiles which sped through that city had staged a running gun fight.

Police are posted on 13 roads around an area of about 180 square miles. The 200 armed men began to sweep this territory at dawn.
All through the night, hundreds of police and deputized citizens in every part of New Jersey were feverishly alert, guarding every road and lane, but daybreak found the bandits still at large.

"Shoot on sight and shoot to kill," was Major Kimberling's order.
He warned farmers to arm themselves and guard their houses. So, thoroughly had the alarm been spread that it was not believed the bandits could capture.

The state troops were stationed along the principal thoroughfares in posts of three men. The posts were linked together by telephone. Red lanterns were hung at road intersections and every vehicle and pedestrian was stopped and questioned.
Police believe two notorious robbers may be involved, James J. "Killer" Cunniffe and John "Bum" Rodgers, who were sought for the murders of Frank Kearney, lumberman and his son Robert near New Brunswick, October 4. The Kearneys were slain when they refused to give two bandits a ride in their automobile.

Major Kimberling said he would not be surprised if the desperate gang had a headquarters in the Watchung hills and numbered 20 or 30 men. The heavily-armed troopers, carrying riot guns and gas bombs in addition to their rifles and pistols, have formed a cordon around a thirty mile area. Because of the speedy alarm sent out yesterday, it is not believed the bandits could have escaped from this region.

SUSPECTS KILL OFFICER WHO STOPS THEM

Shot Through Head and Heart, by Men in Automobile, Last Night.

Chillicothe, O. Oct. 15—Every peace officer available in this county today was seeking the slayers of Dan Garrett, 54, who was assassinated late last night by three holdup suspects.

The veteran officer accosted the trio, who were riding in a car bearing Ohio license number 1,042,101.
Without warning, two of them opened fire, the policeman dying almost instantly, with a bullet in his head and another in his heart. The three then abandoned the car and separated, disappearing in the darkness.

Garrett gained local fame two years ago when he successfully shot it out with a Cleveland bank robber. Tipped off that the bandit was headed this way, Garrett lay in wait. The robber shot Garrett through the shoulder with his first bullet. The officer continued to fire until the bandit used his final bullet to commit suicide rather than face capture.

The license number has been identified as that issued to John Hickman 30 and Montrose Hickman, 22, of Columbus, formerly of Pomeroy.

Columbus, O. Oct. 15—John Hickman, 30, and his brother Montrose Hickman, 22, to whom was issued the automobile license tag found on the car in which the slayers of Dan Garrett, Chillicothe police officer, were riding, are wanted here for alleged participation in several gasoline filling station holdups, Detective Chief W. G. Shelenberger said today.

Pomeroy, O. Oct. 15—The Mason Pomeroy Ferry Company was named defendant in a $25,000 damage suit filed today as the result of the tragedy of September 27, in which five persons were drowned when a skiff in which they were crossing the Ohio river from Mason to this city capsized.

The suit was brought by Anna R.
Bridgway as administratrix of the estate of Adelia C. Foulk, one of those drowned.

Dr. H. E. Sturum of Piona spent Thursday afternoon with Dr. G. H.
Lengrad, local Chiropractor.

er, 71, who passed away Thursday at the residence, and at 1:30 at the

MANY SEE MARTIN LUTHER

The picture at the Auditorium last evening, giving the life of Martin Luther, was very well attended. The Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran Church were responsible for its production here.

Many were stirred by seeing before them the exciting times of change through the standing for right and truth of the most real of all historical heroes, the christian reformer.

Luther's awakening from his life as a monk when finding a copy of the Holy Scripture, from which he never again could lose sight, "The just shall live by faith," was all realistic in last night's pictures.

The stairs at St. Paul's, Rome, where he ascended upon his knees, dying penance, but with each step the great texts of the Bible pounding upon his heart, "The just shall live by faith; without the works of the law."

The entire picture was one to be remembered by both young and old in our day of laxity. Luther's service was to the people who were under the greatest bondage, and his life still has a message in devotion and uprightness for the things that are true.

DIRIGIBLE RETURNS TODAY

Detroit, Oct. 15—The giant navy dirigible Los Angeles will leave its mooring mast at the Ford airport at 3:30 p. m. today, cruise over the city and then head eastward for Lakehurst, N. J., its home port.

The proposed trip to Selfridge field Mount Clemens, Mich., and the overnight stay at the Ford airport were cancelled and the homeward trip decided upon because of "favorable weather" conditions, it was announced by Lieutenant Charles E. Rosen-dahl, the ship's commander, and Admiral Wm. A. Moffett, who accompanied the Los Angeles to Detroit.

The return route of the Los Angeles has been changed from the route used in coming, to permit citizens of different cities to view the dirigible as it flies on its way to Lakehurst, Admiral Moffett said.

LOS ANGELES ARRIVES AT AIRPORT SAFELY

Made Trip in 16 Hours and 35 minutes
To Detroit

(I. N. S. Dispatch)

Detroit, Oct. 15—The Los Angeles, America's largest airship, arrived at Ford airport at 3:30 a. m. today completing the journey from Lakehurst N. J., in 16 hours and 35 minutes.

It was lashed to the mooring mast at Ford airport at 5:30 a. m., as 4,000 spectators lined the roads nearby.
The crowd had waited since midnight and grew steadily heavier the Los Angeles came into sight from the southeast, in the direction of Toledo, Ohio.

The time consumed in mooring the huge airship was due on to mishap but only a desire of naval and airport officials to go slowly and safely.

The great airship was only a short distance away from the field when it was sighted. The throbbing of its engines was the first sign it was near. Then the crowd noted the great dirigible's black outline against the stars. The night was deeply dark barely discernible until a big searchlight was turned on it.

Instantly it flashed into a shining silver mass that flashed magnificently against the darkness.

Cleveland, Oct. 15—Thousands of Ohioans who remained up half the night to see the Los Angeles en route to Detroit breathed a sigh of relief when word was received of the safe arrival early today of the huge dirigible, after a memorable battle in the clouds above Ohio through the night with a stiff northerly gale off Lake Erie. The gale blew the Los Angeles off her course twice and delayed her schedule several hours.

The big ship lost her course over Columbia county and missed Sandusky, Ohio, where she was scheduled to appear and where hundreds of citizens waited to catch a glimpse of the craft. She passed Akron, the world center of dirigible construction, an hour late, where the booming of whistles and the ringing of bells marked her passage. A radio station there was in communication with the officers in charge of the dirigible.

Too many of our members were conspicuous by their absence from last Sunday services. May the attendance be usually large this Sunday.
We have just seen the great Re-stood for something—Protestantism stands for something yet today. What does it stand for? Same phase of this question will be the theme of the morning sermon. A cordial welcome.

You are invited to study it in our

SEVENTY ENTRIES AT PRESENT IN BIG BABY SHOW

The Baby Show at the Bradford Pumpkin Show has always been the main attraction. This year the Committee wished to make it better than ever. Stimulated through the regular Baby Station held bi-weekly in Bradford under the direction of Miss Hag Tisdale, County Public Health Nurse, and due to the energy of Miss Kathernman, Committee woman in charge, the show is not a beauty contest but a contest for the healthiest baby, in reality an infant health demonstration.

Entries number over seventy. Mothers are anxious to learn how healthy their babies are. Each baby is weighed, measured, a medical history of feeding taken and the baby given a physical examination.

Dr. Porter J. Crawford of Troy is the judge of the contest and makes the physical examinations. Judging is done by points and not by personal opinion. The examinations are made Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. On Saturday, the Mothers will bring their babies, receive their score cards, and the winning baby will be announced.
Thirty-three babies were examined on Wednesday. Miss Tisdale, Miss Kathernman, Mrs. Hendricks, Mrs. E. J. Snyder and Mrs. Robinson are assisting.

Some of the points considered in judging the health of the baby are:
height and weight, length of time breast fed, whether fed equally, and not too frequent, condition of bowels and stools, rendering of birth certificate, then all the conditions of physical health as head, eyes, glands, number of teeth, signs of rickets, pinhead abdomen skin muscles and growth.

Mothers so far are being encouraged for the length of time they have nursed their babies. Infants given breast milk regularly for nine months receive a perfect score of twenty.

Wonderful Accuracy

The bureau of standards says that in high-grade tool and gauge shops measurements are regularly made to ten-thousandths and hundred-thousandths of an inch. At the bureau of standards precision gauge blocks are tested to an accuracy of from one to five-millionths of an inch by light interference methods. The "ultra-mi-crorometer" is capable of detecting difference of one-billionth of an inch.

Discovered Something

A man was sentenced to five years in prison for forging a will. As he passed through the prison gates to begin to serve his sentence he amazed prison officials by breaking into loud laughter. "I've just discovered," the forger explained, "that I'm the victim of a proverb. My plight illustrates the old saying, 'When there's a will there's a way.'"

Qualified Praise

"So that college professor spoke favorably of our son," said the fond mother. "Sort of favorably," answered the father. "He said there was no danger of his growing up to be one of those pedants who never know anything except what they get in books."—Washington Star.

THINK CHILD WAS KILLED BY CATTLE

Three-year-old Tot, who had been Corrected by Mother, Left Bed and Wandered to Pasture where cattle Trampled Him to Death. Mystery of Her Disappearance Now thought to Be Solved.

Jefferson, O. Oct. 15.—The wall of mystery surrounding the circumstances surrounding the death of Isabel Zanderski, 3, whose body was found in a tamarack swamp at Orwell, Monday, after having been missing since September 22, was believed to have been pierced today.

Sheriff H. D. Hannum and two Cleveland detectives who have been aiding him in attempting to solve the mucklunds mystery announced this morning that new evidence indicates that the child was trampled to death beneath the hoofs of a herd of cattle.
"While it might seem improbable that such a small child would leave her bed in the night and start out through the swamps, we now believe that new evidence tends to show she did do this," the sheriff said. "A third autopsy has revealed all the ribs on the left side of her body torn loose from the backbone. The round deep hole at the base of her skull looks like that of a cow's horn."

Frank Knurick, 18, uncle of the girl, who has been held in the Jefferson county jail since the body was found, was released from custody last night. "The sheriff," he declared, declared that Knurick had steadfastly held to his original story of his movements the night Isabel disappeared. The detectives again questioned Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Zanderski and then announced: "If the girl was killed, we will have to look outside the family for the fiend."

Music of Insect's Wings

The common house fly sounds the note F in flying. This means that its

The honey bee sounds A, implying 440

Balls Used in Voting

Voting by balls dates back to the time of the Greeks and Romans. A black ball was a vote against a candidate, a white one for him. This sys-

Our word "ballot" itself is from the French "ballotte," meaning a little ball.

MIAMI COUNTY FARMER IS KILLED BY AUTO DRIVEN BY GREENVILLE MAN

Mark Van Kirk, Father of Seven Children, Dies in a Short Time After Being Hit by a Car Driven by William Hunt, of Greenville. Accident is Unavoidable—Occurred Wednesday Evening Near West Milton.

Mark Van Kirk, 42, a farmer living near West Milton, was so badly injured Wednesday night when hit by an auto, driven by William Hunt, of Greenville, that he died an hour and a half later.

The tragic accident happened at a cross road, a mile and a half west of West Milton, on the West Milton-Greenville pike, at about 5:30 o'clock. Mr. Van Kirk, who was a farmer, had been drilling wheat in a field near his home, and had unhitched his team and started for his home. He was walking behind the team, driving it with the lines, and did not stop when he came to the crossing of the Greenville-West Milton pike, as he evidently did not hear, or see the machine of William Hunt, of Greenville, approaching.

Mr. Hunt did not see the team until it was in the center of the crossing, and he was almost on to it. He swerved his car, and missed the horses, and would have gotten by the victim without trouble, but the latter became confused and jumped back, directly into the path of the car.

The men in the Hunt car ran at once to him, to find him unconscious, with his head crushed, a broken arm and leg, and other cuts and bruises. He was placed in a car and taken home and a surgeon called. Later the injured man was taken to the office of a surgeon at West Milton, but his injuries proved fatal, and he passed away.

Mr. Hunt, who was driving the machine, was badly broken up over the unfortunate accident. It was altogether unavoidable, and he was exonerated of all responsibility in the matter. He did all that was possible for the injured man. It was a deplorable tragedy, especially to the wife of the victim, who is left to face the world with seven children, one of them only a few weeks old.

biles who swooped down on the mail truck yesterday, killed John Ense, driver of the mail truck and wounded John Quinn, the assistant driver, and Motorcycle Policeman Jacob Christman, who was guarding the shipment. A deadly spray of machine-gun bullets scattered the crowd that rushed into the street at the sound of the first volley.

Two motorcycle policemen followed the bandit's car as they whizzed out of town at terrific speed but were outdistanced.

Postmaster Charles E. Bishop, of Elizabeth, said the robbery could not have been planned with the connivance of any postal employee, since not even he knew that the large payroll was to be shipped at that time.

Today's movement of the pursuing forces followed the report that, late last night, an automobile roared up the Cheney Road to the summit of the mountain. The car has not returned and there is no other way it could have been taken out without being seen.
