DOINGS OF THE WEEK—SPECIAL TO THE NEWS

Very little money is being wagered on the outcomes of the stock elections. In one instance, however, we have $1,000, and one of his friends, who has been studying the market, even goes so far as to say that Governor Donahoe and Senator Sidebottom are sure to win, and wants to make $5,000 on each. The governor is a strong favorite, and both bets will be won, winning the bet in the hands of the two politicians, but both are sure to lose their bets.
