PRICE—ONE CENT

"KING BEN" IS UNDER $50,000 BOND

Head of House of David Caught Last Night

Has Been in Hiding For Years And Protected by Cult

$50,000 Bond Provided for His Temporary Release

(U. N. S. Dispatch)

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Nov. 17—King Benjamin Farnell, arrested here in a raid following tips from a neighboring farmer and one of his alleged women victims, was to be arraigned in justice court this morning.

The notorious leader of the Israelite House of David, was arrested with eight of his followers at midnight last night, by Inspector Ira H. Marmion and 15 of his state troopers, in the administration building of the Shiloh colony.

Wearing only his underwear and a heavy sweater, King Ben appeared obviously a sick man and since his arrest he has set mute in his cell in the Berrien county jail, his eyes downcast and refusing to answer any of the many queries of his questioners. He still wore his long, gray, flowing whiskers.

Efforts of his followers early today to get him out on small bond were balked by Prosecutor George Bookmatter, who demanded $50,000 for his release.

"King Ben's" arrest followed a four-year international search which grew out of sensational charges that were brought against him by girl members of his cult. During all this time the cult leader has been under the protection of his followers at the House of David, according to tips furnished Allen G. Straight, state commissioner of public safety.

The statement today of William J. Barnard, of Paw Paw, Mich., the cult leader's attorney, was that Ben has not been in the colony but has been traveling about the country, was denied by Straight.

"We have definite information that Ben has been hiding in Shiloh all this time," said Straight. "Here's how we got the tip that led to his arrest: 'Mrs. Bessie Woodworth, a former girl ward of Farnell, who was ousted from the colony after alleged maltreatment by him, complained to a neighboring farmer near Benton Harbor and told the man Ben still was in hiding there."

"About a week ago, the farmer wrote me concerning this information and I ordered Inspector Marmion, with 15 troopers, to make the raid last night."

"My orders were to conduct the raid as quietly as possible and report of axe smashing and the finding of women companions with him in nude and seminude attire are to be discounted."

The eight cultists arrested with King Ben in the raid were:

Harry Thomas Woodworth, 45, the House of David lawyer; Leonard Rowe, 38; Thomas Wilson, 50, farmer; Joseph Couch 51, laborer; Millard Wilson, 27, street-car motor-man; Mrs. Annabella Askerlund 28; Mrs. Helen Bloom 21; and Myrtle Turk, the "prophet's attendant."

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Nov. 17—"King" Benjamin Farnell, ruler of the House of David was back at the colony today under $50,000 bail and with deputy sheriffs guarding him, following his arrest in a raid on the colony last night.

King Ben went to court today for the first time in his life. He was arraigned before Miss Elizabeth Forhan, justice of the peace, on charges brought four years ago by Ruth Bamford Rede and Gladys Bamford Rubel, former members of the cult. W. J. Barnard, Ben's attorney, visited reading of the warrant and demanded an examination, which was set for December 22. After bail had been furnished, Barnard agreed to the court's provision that deputy sheriffs guard the cult buildings day and night until the examination.

XMAS HEALTH SEALS

The 1926 Xmas Health Seals are here and will be placed on sale in Covington Dec. 1st. Sold by adults only.

Last year children sold seals claiming they were the Xmas Health Seals, upon investigation it was found they were not the seals from the National Tuberculosis Association, remember 40 per cent of the Health Seal sale is left in your own community for welfare work.

The 1926 Seal Sale paid for the baby weighing station at the community weighing station.

More is planned for the 1926 sale of Xmas Health Seals.

Nashville, Tenn. Nov. 17—Seven persons are dead and 25 others are in more or less serious condition today as the result of two railroad accidents near here last night.

The first wreck occurred at Hendersonville, Tenn., when the Pan-American, Louisville and Nashville passenger train, crashed into an automobile at a grade crossing, killing two and injuring six.

A few hours later, two rail motors, rushing to the scene of the wreck from opposite directions, crashed head on at Portland, Tenn., and five workmen were killed and 19 others injured, some of whom may die.

The injured include Mrs. J. W. Ingram, of Chillicothe, O., a passenger on the Pan-American train.

AMBULANCE CALL

Routzahn Brothers ambulance was called yesterday to remove Mrs. Levi Bowman to Memorial Hospital, Elgin, where she went for operation.

DEATH OF MRS. MARIE LONGENDELPHER

The community and friends were shocked and grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Marie Longendelpher, who passed away early this morning after three-weeks illness from pneumonia.

Mrs. Longendelpher has been in delicate health for sometime, and became an easy victim to pneumonia because of her delicate constitution. She leaves to mourn her loss her sorrowing parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Fletcher, her husband, George Longendelpher and six young children, the oldest eleven. The children are Vera June, Blush Mae, Melvin, George Junior, Glenn and Jimmie. Other relatives also are left, but no brothers or sisters as she was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher.

Mrs. Longendelpher was thirty one years of age, her birthday occurring Nov. 10th. She was born in West Covington, where she lived at the time of her death, just near the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Harrison.

No arrangements have yet been made for the funeral services. Routzahn Brothers have been called as funeral directors.

Chicago Nov. 17—Italy can not avoid war, Ralph Dennis North-western University professor and former vice consul in Russia, told the Association of Commerce today in an address.

"While Mussolini has brought about great economic benefits for his people," said Dennis, "he has at the same time inflamed the national spirit of Italy so that war can not be avoided. The spirit of Mussolini is the spirit of war."

SON BORN

Robert Minton was called home today from the print shop, to welcome the arrival of a son, born at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

(U. N. S. Dispatch)

Cleveland, O., Nov. 17—A score of persons here owe their lives today to the heroism of Theodore Hargrave, 65, who saved ten persons in a burning apartment house but lost his life as a result.

Columbus, O., Nov. 17—Because he killed a woman with his father's automobile, which he had been forbidden to use, and then did not stop, Oscar Heinlein, 14, suicided at the family home here early today by shooting himself through the breast with a shotgun. He had tied a shoe string in the trigger, according to Coroner Murphy.

New York, Nov. 17—The eastern seaboard, from Florida to Maine, was busy today tidying up the debris left by a series hurricane winds and lashing rain which swept the section. Three lives were lost, scores were injured and a large amount of property damage was done.

Hamburg, Germany Nov. 17—The United States cruiser Memphis today collided with the Hamburg-American steamer, Gustav Ruge in the North Sea-Baltic canal. The Memphis received a slightly damaged propeller, which will necessitate her going into drydock at Minsburg for repairs.

Carlinville, Ill., Nov. 17—Poses searched the country side today for two negroes who this morning shot and killed George Staats, 50, night policeman, when he and Patrolman John Kaufman attempted to arrest them for robbing Special Agent James Steiner, of the C. and A. railroad. After killing Staats, the pair fled in a shower of lead from Kaufman's gun.

Batavia, O., Nov. 17—The trail of George Weber, charged with having having shot and killed his 18-month old daughter as she nestled in her mother's arms last Labor Day, was expected to be given to the jury early tomorrow.

The defense started its presentation of the case today. Weber pleaded that he was temporarily insane for a time prior to and after the killing.

Hazleton, Pa., Nov. 17—With six men entombed by flood waters in the Tomhicken colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company, near here, hundreds of workers today turned their efforts toward pumping the water from the workings in time to rescue the miners.

Working throughout the night, mine forces succeeded in constructing brattice work, diverting the flow of flood-water from Cranberry creek into the workings. The banks of the creek broke late yesterday, flooding the colliery.

Newport Ky., Nov. 17—One man was dead here today and a charge of murder was to be placed against another as the culmination of Newport's fifth murder in four weeks.

Mat "Jack" Martin, 28, shot while he was sitting on the edge of a bed with Grace McCoy, 21 formerly of Portsmouth O. in a girl friend's home here last night, died early today in a hospital.

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS

By CHAS. W. RIPE

Columbus, O., Nov. 17.—With the election out of the way discussion is already being heard for legislation that will make possible a new State office building. The last general assembly decided the State needed one bad enough, but along with its many other blunders failed to provide the ways and means for the construction of such a building as is required to house the various State department now outside the State House. Only recently the department of health was compelled to move into new quarters and now State departments may be found from the Union station to far south on High street, and from the river on the west to Oak and Ninth streets on the east. Any one with business at several departments will have a pretty fair taxi bill if he tries to cover them all in one day. There will be opposition to disturbing the funds of the Workmen's Compensation Law as was proposed two years ago, but other ways and means of financing a new office building will be found. Present plans are for the early introduction of such a measure in the two branches of the general assembly so that there will be no more delay than absolutely is necessary in getting the work under Columbus O., Nov. 17.—Southern traffic is already showing an increase over the month of November a year ago, and railroad agents report increased interest in the warmer Southern climate. The demand for tickets to Florida is not nearly so great as a year ago, more interest this year at the present time, chief interest is in the southern fishing and hunting grounds. Reports from the swamps of Louisiana indicate that wild duck and geese are more plentiful than ever, and weather conditions have been very satisfactory. The Gulf of Mexico is always splendid fishing grounds and covers enough territory to provide room for the thousands who journey to the shores of Mississippi towns and winter resorts to enjoy this sport. It is early yet for Florida tourists, but railroad agents do not find the same interest this year in the far Southern state as that of a year ago. And there is no reason to expect there will be during the winter. The best month for the tourists to Florida is in January, but last November found several thousand Ohioans who ventured to the Southern state to invest conditions.

Columbus, O., Nov. 17.—Relatives and friends of unfortunates confined in State hospitals are showing an increased interest, as a result receipts from the pay-patient law totaled $1,886,171 during the last fiscal year. Under the law relatives of these patients are assessed a cost in proportion to their ability to pay. Collections from this source are all turned into the state treasury. The collections for the fiscal year ending June 30, last were almost a half million dollars more than they were in 1923.
