STATE RESTS IN HALL-MILLS CASE

All State Witnesses Have Testified; State Rests Case; Defense To Open at Once

Strong Points Are Recorded

By J. L. KILGALLEN

(C. N. S. Dispatch)

SOMERVILLE N. J., Nov. 19.—All the principal state witnesses having testified the state will probably rest its case today against Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, the wealthy minister's widow, and her two brothers, Willis and Henry Stevens, who are accused of the heinous murder of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and his attractive young choir singer, Mrs. Eleanor Mills.

The only thing that might delay the state in resting its case would be the appearance of the mysterious "Mrs. S" as a witness.

Simpson indicated today that he is pleased with what the state has so far brought out in this melodramatic trial. He feels he has demonstrated the following points:

1. Placed all three of the defendants at the scene of the crime through the testimony of Mrs. Gibson.

2. Introduced a calling card found near the bodies which experts declared bore finger-prints of Willis Stevens.

3. Established a jealousy motive. Witnesses testified Mrs. Hall knew about the love affair between Rev. Hall and Mrs. Mills.

4. Smashed two alibis. Mr. and Mrs. John S. Dickson, of North Plainfield, N. J., said Willis Stevens did not remain in his home on the night of the murder, as he claimed he did, but came to their home about 8:30, seeking the Parker home, which is near the murder scene. Mrs. Marie Desmarrest testified Henry Stevens was not at his home in Lavelette, N. J., on the morning after the murder, as he claimed he was, but was in New Brunswick.

5. Introduced evidence of bribery. Mrs. Desmarrest swore she was offered $2,500 by Felix di Martini, private detective employed by Mrs. Hall to "forget" she had seen Henry Stevens in New Brunswick the morning after the murder. Henry L. Dickman, former New Jersey state trooper, testified he was paid $2,500 to "skip" the state following his questioning of Henry Stevens as to a $2-calibre pistol.

The defense will probably open its case late today and has at least eight witnesses who will be used to controvert testimony given by the witnesses for the state.

MRS. GIBSON IN COURT IN DRAMATIC CLIMAX OF HALL-MILLS CASE

Mrs. James Gibson, star witness in the Hall-Mills murder case, is shown non a bed in the courtroom at Somerville N. J., where her testimony formed the dramatic climax to the trial. Senator Alexander Simpson, special prosecutor, is shown asking her questions. Beyond the bed are the defense attorneys, and beyond them WILLIE STEVENS, the defendants.

(C. N. S. Dispatch)

Chicago, Nov. 19.—Evidence said by police to link him with Aimee Semple McPherson, Los Angeles evangelist, was branded today in a letter said to have been signed by Kenneth G. Ormiston, missing radio operator, as the "bunk."

With this Ormiston, according to Edward H. Martin, his Chicago attorney, dismissed the "dear darling man" letter said to have been written to him by Aimee herself and also the trunkful of lingerie.

The letter and the lingerie comprise the main links in what District Attorney Asa G. Keyes, of Los Angeles believes to be a chain of evidence discrediting Aimee's story of having been kidnapped.

The Los Angeles prosecutor has built up what he believes to be a bronzed case against the woman evangelist, tending to show she lived with Ormiston in the seclusion of a Carmel California, cottage during at least a part of the time she claims was spent as the captive of kidnappers.

Ormiston said he did not know whether or not the trunk found in New York was his property.

"As for the contents," the letter said, "I know of no more gullible reader of the scandal sheets."

"Had I been the recipient of the missive in question," he said, "I am quite certain I would have failed to grasp its import. At any rate, I did not receive it."

UNION THANKSGIVING SERVICES

The union Thanksgiving services will be held on Thanksgiving morning, Nov. 25 at the Presbyterian church. Dr. Thomas of the Christian church will deliver the sermon. The townspeople and members of all the denominations are invited to join in the Thanksgiving service.

Mexico City, Nov. 19.—Although the Mexican government remains silent, it is generally known that officials are considerably aroused over the inferred charges of Secretary of State Kellogg that Mexico has been supporting the Nicaraguan revolution.

ATHENEUM CLUB MEETS

The Athenaeum Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. John Howsman, Thursday, Nov. 18th, Mrs. J. D. Hoffman acting as assistant hostess. One new voice responded to roll call and Mrs. John Orr was welcomed into the club.

The subjects, "The Post Office Department," by Mrs. A. O. Grooms, "The Navy Department and Marine Corps," by Mrs. Frank Harry, "Air Force, Army and Marines," by Mrs. Herbert Hedrick were handled in a capable manner.

Quite a few interesting incidents on the Post Office Department was related by several of the members.

A delicious luncheon was served by the hostesses. On Dec. 2nd, the club will meet with Mrs. Mae Hill, with Miss Helen Ulery, assisting hostess.

W. C. T. U. MEETS

The W. C. T. U. met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. C. Shuman.

During the pleasant social hour following delicious refreshments were served.

OBITUARY

(C. N. S. Dispatch)

By GEORGE R. HOLMES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Extremely grave complications may arise out of the state department's establishment of a virtual American protectorate over Nicaragua. An open clash with Mexico is one of them.

American marines are occupying Nicaraguan coastal ports and American warships are patrolling Nicaraguan waters under orders to prevent gun-running and any more revolutionary fighting in the little republic. There is an embargo on arms and ammunition from the United States and all other Central American countries, save Mexico whose political liberals sympathize with the rebellious liberals of Nicaragua.

If Mexico chooses to stand stiffly upon its sovereign prerogatives and send arms into Nicaragua and American armed forces carry out their orders to prevent the entrance of such shipments something far more serious may ensue between the United States and Mexico than the diplomatic controversy now going on concerning land and petroleum laws.

The situation is admitted to be extremely delicate. Dispatches from Mexico City today told of keen resentment there over the summary action of the state department in establishing American naval forces in Nicaragua on a more or less permanent basis and more particularly over accusations of "bolshivism" and "communism" levelled against the Calles government by the state department.

Ostensibly, the American marines and warships are to be kept in Nicaraguan territory to "protect American lives and property" and to "discourage further revolutionary activity" by Nicaraguan liberals. Actually, these forces are to maintain in the presidential palace Adolfo Diaz, who was elevated to that position last week under the auspices of the state department's representatives at Managua, the capital.

Meanwhile, there were unmistakable indications today that a storm is brewing in congress over the establishment of another American protectorate in Central America.

Batavia, O. Nov. 19.—Fred Moore, 23, operator of a trolley car over the spur line of the Cincinnati, Georgetown and Portsmouth Traction company, today was reported to be rapidly recovering from injuries sustained Thursday when the trolley jumped the tracks and plunged down a steep grade near here.
