HEART ATTACK IS FATAL TO AED TROTWOOD PASTOR

Rev. David Garber, aged resident of Trotwood, and a director of the Farmers and Citizens bank, Trotwood, fell dead last night at 8:30 at his home in Trotwood when addressing the quarterly meeting of the town council.

The Rev. Mr. Garber was the pastor of the church since he was called to the pulpit.

The funeral service was held at the church.

PARTY AT MASONS

Mrs. W. C. T. U. M. ERTS

The W. C. T. U. met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. C. U. Brown.

The County President of the W. C. U.

Miss Mauw, was present and gave a very interesting report of the work of the W. C. T. U. work in Trotwood.

The ladies took a coffee break and then decided to serve the ladies present to the Sunday School in the Trotwood School.

The ladies served a good meal and everyone seemed to be enjoying themselves.

During the pleasant social hour delicious refreshments were served.

New Beauty Specialist

At Donahan’s Barber Shop

The Daugherty beauty parlor, which has been closed for a few days will be reopened next Monday. Mrs. Louise Worsh of Columbus, will be in charge.

Miss Worsh has had a wide experience covering the past seven years in the large cities, and she is unusually competent in her profession.

Ladies wishing the services of a beauty specialist need not go out of town. This shop is fitted with the most modern appliances for the work. Everything is electrically operated and all articles are sterilized.

Ladies with long or short hair will appreciate our new electric hair dryer, and we are prepared to care for all kinds of scalp of facial treatment also.

Visit our shop and investigate the service we offer you.

Sisters Join Hands in Serving ‘Public Usual As Telephone Operators

HELEN BILLER and MARIA BILLER served three years in World War service, and are now in the ranks of the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Every one of the sisters and a pair of sisters-in-law, thrice in all, are members of the opening service of the Barge Street central office, Cleveland.

These girls have joined together in forming that part of Our Lady of the Barge Street, which is charged by the St. Vincent de Paul telephone service and according to reports are doing a real job.

In every case one of the sisters becomes as expert first and becomes as expert as anyone else in the work that the others naturally follow. A number of the girls have already taken the job just the same.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Sunday, November 21, 1924
9:30 a.m.—The Bible school meets 9:30—Morning worship and sermon.
10:45 a.m.—The Young people meet 10:45—Evening worship and sermon.

The lesson title in the Bible school is "Jesus Resuming the Covenant". Do we keep our part of the covenant? Are we true to our trust? Study carefully the lesson. "Jesus Resumes the Covenant," Luke 7:39-45.

We especially strive this three weeks about from the school and the church last Sunday to review the primary work. If God be our God, serve him. Choose ye this day whom ye will serve." Joshua 24:15. Those not attached to the other schools of the town are most cordially invited to come with us.

The Rev. A. S. Kaye of Neoga, Ill. will supply the pulpit, both morning and evening. He is reputed to be an excellent preacher.

Every member and friend of the church should be here.

The Thanksgiving service will be held on November 25 at 10:30 a.m. Doctor O. S. Thomas will preach the sermon. A fine service is anticipated. It is a community service. Dr. Thomas should have a large audience.

"Reader尤 its gone with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise, give thanks unto his name; for Jehovah is good; his loving kindness endures forever." Psalm 100:4-5.

Evening worship—7:00.

"There is a suggestive topic for today's school that is "Dancing a short cut for God." Choose ye this day whom ye will serve." Deut. 30:16.

The subject of the morning sermon will be "First Votes and Our Voice." The subject for the sermon of the evening will be "Evaluation, in the Joyful Sound?"

In addition to the special numbers by our choir we are glad to announce Ruthfrey and Miss Miriam Miller will favor us with a duet.

The Rev. Mr. Miller will conduct the Thanksgiving Day and will be the beginning of what may be called the Thanksgiving Week, let us make a day of praise and worship of our Lord in His temple.

PEACE HILL CHURCHES
CHRISTIAN CHURCH
Morning worship will be conducted by the Rev. A. W. Root. There will be no evening service. Sunday school as usual at 9:15.

The Rev. Mr. Root conducted our service on Thursday evening, and his closing words were as follows, "Continence for the Prevention of Wickedness and vice by the Friends of Religion and Good order."

Pleasant Hill Church will have a public service at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday, and we trust that all members of the church and friends will attend. The services will be conducted by the Rev. Mr. Root.

The subject for the morning will be "Living Independent of the Crowd," Mark Shalmon.

There will be no C. W. meeting at 7 p.m. on Monday of the peace conference at Watthill, B. L. will be given by Virgil的成本, Mark Shalmon, Dan West and Raymond Dexter. These young men worked through the East during the late summer and will bring us something very much worth while. Let us all use this opportunity to learn more about this great subject of Peace.

J. C. flora, Pastor.

BRETHREN CHURCH
H. C. Martin, Pastor.

Sunday will be another busy day. Your place is in Sunday School at 9:30. The Program Committee has been working hard to prepare a fine program. Sunday school and morning service will be identical. You will not want to miss this. Be there, it's the best of the best.

In the evening the pastors will speak from the subject "These Things Shall Be," what these words impress you most? There are three main ideas. Start with the first one. Then, the beautiful story, and the wonderful story. Make a guess this comes and see if you were right. Everybody is welcome.

UNION CHURCH AT WEBSTER

There will be no service in the Union Church Sunday evening of the Thanksgiving Sunday, the Rev. Mr. Martin will conduct the services for which all are invited.
