CHINESE CITY UNDER MARTIAL LAW

Crisis Near in Chinese Uprising—Condition Worst Since 1900 When Boxers Rebelled—Foreigners are in Danger—Appeal for Aid.

(L. N. S. Dispatch)

Tientsin, China, Nov. 23—With Hankow placed under martial law, reports from there indicate the Yangtze-river city is faced with the gravest crisis that has occurred in China since the disturbances accompanying the Boxer rebellion in 1900.

The situation there is reported as growing worse daily with a general strike threatened for December 4th, as a Chinese protest against the employment of foreigners in government.

The foreign residents have made urgent appeals to their respective governments asking for increased protection. The British Colony has requested that 500 British marines be rushed there.

Meanwhile, all preparations are being made in the foreign concessions for any eventuality. Special constables are being enrolled and the women and children are being conducted to places of safety.

1,300,000 SETS OF LICENSES NOW BEING DISTRIBUTED

Columbus, O., Nov. 23—Approximately 1,300,000 sets of Ohio's 1927 auto license plates are being distributed by the state automobile registration department among about 450 agencies throughout the state where these licenses will be placed on starting December 10th, Col. Chalmers Wilson chief of the department announced here today.

Last year's automobile tag sales in Ohio totaled about 1,325,000 sets for pleasure cars and 175,000 for trucks. Sales for the year 1927 were estimated today at 10 to 15 percent more than 1926.

GOVERNMENT SCORES VICTORY IN TEA POT DOME CASE

Washington, Nov. 23—The government scored a decisive victory today in its first big test of strength with the "million dollar" legal defense of ex-Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall and Edward L. Dohney, on trial for alleged conspiracy to defraud the government out of naval oil reserves.

Justice A. A. Hoehling, in a lengthy opinion read at the opening of the trial this morning, held that Dohney's testimony before the senate oil investigating committee three years ago concerning the $100,000 he "loaned" to Fall was admissible as evidence in the present trial.

Women are Hiking 44 Miles on Wager

"Crazy" Willie Stevens Not So Crazy as Witness.

Willie Stevens, one of the three defendants in the trial at Somerville, N. J., for the Hall-Hills murders, belied his nickname of "Crazy" when he took the stand in his own defense and came out better under cross-examination than experts had done. He testified to a complete alibi.

Started This Morning from Providence to Boston To See Which Can Out-Walk the Other

(L. N. S. Dispatch)

Boston, Nov. 23—Two of the foremost women athletes in America, Miss Eleanor Sears and Miss Elizabeth Ryan, international tennis star, were walking neck-and-neck this forenoon in a grueling hike from Providence to Boston.

At Norwood, 13 miles from the finish, the pair were far ahead of Miss Sear's previous time for the city to city walk made last year in 10 hrs and 27 min. Going through Norwood, Miss Ryan was setting the pace. A real wager is said to hang on the hike, resulting from the defeat of the Back Bay woman suffered on the tennis court at the hands of Miss Ryan.

Miss Sears is said to have admitted her opponent's superiority on the courts but claimed she could outwalk the tennis luminary. Miss Ryan thought otherwise and today's hike resulted. Neither hiker would admit the wager, however.

The party left Providence on the 44 mile grind at 12:55 a. m.

Accompanying Miss Sears and Miss Ryan as alternating pacemakers were Guy Leonard, Boston; Jack Lott, Chicago; Harry Sheldon, New York; Frederick Seymour, Charleston and Dan Casey, Boston.

Coming into Norwood, the hikers were making better than five miles an hour and both were going strong. Miss Sears wore heavy shoes and woolen stockings.

An automobile carrying coffee, chocolate and sandwiches followed the hikers.

Walking conditions were ideal. The air was crisp and this forenoon the sun was shining.

MANY SEE LEONARD SEPPALA AND HIS FAMOUS DOG TEAM

A large crowd of people gathered uptown at the noon hour to see the famous Leonard Seppala and his dog team that carried relief to the stricken people of Alaska in 125 during the diphtheria epidemic.

They arrived in Covington at 12:30 and stopped on the public square where the large truck was completely surrounded by townspeople and the children. There were 22 dogs in the team, and very intelligent animals they are. The leader is 11 years old and has won many trophies and performed more unusual feats than than any dog living, so his master declared. One of them was leading the team over the trackless wastes of the Bering sea on that daring trip in 1925 when the world watched in wonder and admiration.

Mr. Seppala gave a short but interesting lecture on the dangers and trials of the far north.

The big truck is carrying him and his hunkies into all the Miami Valley towns through the courtesy of the Rike Krumler Co of Dayton.

Santa Claus and his rein deers will be here Saturday, December 11.

THREE BURNED TO DEATH

(L. N. S. Dispatch)

New York, Nov. 23—Samuel Wetman, 35, and his sons, Hyman, 10, and Isador, 6, were burned to death in fire which swept a Chery tenement early today.

Mrs. Mary Gelfand, 40, sprained her wrist when she jumped from a window and Michael Donato, 41, was burned severely. The fire was accompanied by a mysterious explosion and officials began an investigation of its origin. 75 other tenants escaped on ladders and over the roof.

"HARMONY BREAKFAST"

(L. N. S. Dispatch)

Washington, Nov. 23—President Coolidge gave a "harmony breakfast" this morning at the White House, attended by a dozen members of the senate.

Included among the guests was Senator Hendrick Shipstead, the sole Farmer-Labor member of Minnesota, whose vote in the 70th senate may conceivably decide whether the Republicans or Democrats will control the chamber.

Mrs. Leo Thomas, of Troy, was in Covington yesterday calling at the Hospital to see Mrs. Howard Giffin. Mrs. Thomas brought Mrs. Giffin a dozen beautiful chrysanthemums.

GIGANTIC BOOTLEGGING PLOT UNCOVERED; 51 PERSONS

(L. N. S. Dispatch)

Boston, Nov. 23—Arrests in New York and Boston were forecast today in connection with the alleged gigantic bootlegging plot uncovered by federal prohibition authorities.

Lewis H. Rothchild, 23, youngest bank vice president in the United States and former Andover and Princeton football player, is named with 50 others in indictments, according to word from New York.

A steamship warped into U Boston dock last July laden apparently with cement. The steamship was the Cretan and she carried an enormous amount of alcohol cargo. The uncovering of the cargo was the beginning of the uncovering of the alleged gigantic scheme.

The 51 persons indicted are charged with conspiracy to smuggle into the United States 83,000 gallons of alcohol, valued at $900,000.

MRS. HALL AGAIN ON THE WITNESS STAND

(L. N. S. Dispatch)

Somerville, N. J., Nov. 23—Mrs. Francis Stevens Hall resumed the witness stand at the Hall-Mills trial at 10:16 this morning for cross-examination.

A cool, indifferent expression on her pallid face, the black-garbed defendant calmly surveyed Prosecutor Alexander Simpson as he launched his verbal barrage.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

Obituary

Jennie Johnson was born at Bradford O. April 17, 1868, being the second child of Lucinda and William Johnson.

Her girlhood was spent in this vicinity. At the age of eighteen years, she was united in marriage to John Buser, who preceded her in death in 1905. In this union were born six children four of whom survive. Two sisters and a brother who reside in Indianapolis are the remaining members of her immediate family namely Mrs. James Entwistle, Mrs. Clay Trusty and Mr. Newton Johnson.

On October 12, 1923, she was united in marriage to Oscar Thompson during her thirtieth year as a resident of this community she endeavored herself to host of neighbors and friends.

Her patience and hopefulness were a constant to her loved ones who were cared for her during her illness.

She peacefully slept away on Monday, Nov. 22 at 10:06 A. M. after an illness of six months duration aged 55 years.

She leaves to mourn her loss four children, Elsie Rinehart of St. Louis, Edith Frey, Newton and Albert Buser of Indianapolis and her devoted husband, Oscar Thompson.

Brief services were held at the home at 8:30 A. M. Wednesday after which the remains were taken to the Christian Church in Indianapolis where final services were held by a large number of her relatives and former friends.

She was laid to rest in Crown Hill cemetery.

On last Friday night, the parlors of the Church of the Brethren were opened to the "Berean Class" of the church school with several invited guests.

A most powerful spiritual uplift and social attraction keenly predominated through out the entire event. At 8:30, a delicious oyster supper and all the palatable things necessary to complete the "Oyster Menu" was served in an orderly manner to the people present, numbering about sixty, after which the program opened with Mrs. Harry Fox acting as toast mistress.

Mrs. D. J. Shellberger very ably presented her paper entitled "Harvest Meditations". The address delivered by Rev. J. C. Flora, of Pleasant Hill, will long be remembered as, one of power; eloquence; and full of practical suggestions. Other responding doing credit to themselves and the organization were: Mr. Ira Gump, Mr. John Overfield, Rev. O. F. McKee, Mrs. J. M. Bashore, Rev. George Moller.

At 9:30 all departed to their homes declaring the occasion one, worthy of praise and long remembrance.

There was one good thing about the longer courtship of old times—it resulted in longer marriage.

From now on until Christmas you will see three carolers singing every day everywhere. They will greet you as you open your mail, as you walk past store windows, or open your newspaper. For the carolers are painted on the 1926 Christmas seals.

They stand against the deep blue of a night sky, lighter toward the top because of the distant glow of the moon—or a star; deepening into the shadows at the horizon.

For garb, they wear scarlet cowls and tight, and bright yellow jerkins. This same costume minstrels donned forgotten years ago as they sang their songs before the roaring, blazing fires of oak-rattled halls during the holiday season.

The caroler on the left touches the strings of a lute; the one on the right sounds the clear note of a trumpet; and between them a third holds a snow-white shield bearing the double-barred cross-world-wide emblem of the tuberculosis association.

"Minstrel" has been a magic word since the dim beginning of the middle ages. It was derived from an old Latin noun, "minstrel" which means "one who serves". Through century after century these singers took their service of joy and help from one grim castle to another, asking no pay except the gifts of those who wished to join with them in carrying messages of happiness.

In just such a spirit have these 20th century minstrels started forth on their pilgrimage. They will take their message of health and Christmas cheer from state to state, city to city, into homes all over the land. And they ask no life at all except that willingly given by those who receive them, according as the song they sing may relax the strings of heart and purse.

The campaign for the sale of these seals will open in Covington on Dec. 1st. The work of distribution will be in charge of a committee of which Mrs. L. T. Arthur is chairman.

United by Radio Harmony

FROM more than fifty candidates, Juanita Rae and Harriet Lee have been selected as the new harmony team at WLS, the Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation, radio station, Chicago. Miss Lee hails from Indianapolis. Her partner is a product of Adrian, Mich. By virtue of their victory over all vocal competition the girls have become members of the station staff. They are now heard blending their voices on all popular programs. Miss Lee plays the piano accompaniment.

It was accidental, this forming of the Rae-Lee partnership. Miss Lee was playing an occasional piano accompaniment at another Chicago station. One evening Miss Rae appeared on the program. On an orchestra "break" while the station was broadcasting from a ballroom removed from the studio, the girls decided to try a duet. They discovered their voices blended in the most perfect harmony.

When WLS announced an open competition to select an additional entertainment feature, Miss Rae and Miss Lee were among the first entrants. So impressed were the station directors with the girls' work that they were immediately booked for appearances pending the outcome of the competition. While the contest brought forward other highly competent teams, no one succeeded in making off with higher honors and the girls were adjudged winners.

BARN BURNS

The large barn on the farm of G. W. Furnas burned to the ground yesterday between 11 and 12 o'clock noon. The fire started from an unknown cause.

Mr. and Mrs. Furnas were away at the time visiting friends north west of Piqua, when the neighbors noticed the barn burning and soon gathered fighting hard to save it. The wind was from the south west which probably saved the house, which was near enough to the barn to catch from the burning barn. The cattle had been fed into the pasture, and none were hurt in any way.

Mr. Furnas estimates his loss at about $3000, which was partly covered by insurance. The grain, hay and tobacco were a total loss, as well as the barn. They desire to thank the neighbors and friends who so kindly helped to fight and save their home from disaster.

DINNER GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Ruhl will entertain to six o'clock dinner, this evening, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Ballou of Louisville, Ky. Mrs. Anna Ballou, Mr. James Sowers and son, James, of Chicago.

Convention to Mark Cooperation Between Business and Government

THE annual convention of the American Petroleum Institute at Tulsa, December 7, 8 and 9, will bring together the largest and most representative gathering of leaders in the petroleum industry that has ever been held. From 1,500 to 2,000 chiefs of corporations, technical experts, actinid authorities, state and national officers, economists and engineers, will consider in the broadest way the questions that relate to permanently supplying fuel to America's 30,000,000 motor cars, and meeting the multitude of other demands on petroleum. Officers of the Institute are shown in the illustration. All rank among the leaders of the industry.

President Coolidge recognized these problems when he created the Federal Oil Conservation Board, nearly two years ago, and commissioned it to study them. This board's report recognized the desirability of a close cooperation between the industry and the government in planning constructive, practical measures. It declared that these must rest chiefly on the initiative of the industry itself.

Since that report was issued, Secretary of Commerce Hoover, a member of the Oil Conservation Board, has declared emphatically in favor of such modification of the anti-trust laws as will open the way to desirable co-operations within the industry, prevent waste and encourage economic.

The aspects of demand, supply, future sources of oil, possible substitututes for it, etc., are at the top of all thought concerning the industry. They will give direction and definite purpose to the considerations at the Tulsa convention, which promises to mark a significant advance toward understanding and mutually helpful co-operations between business and government. Secretary Hoover speaking on this point, said the other day:

"We have to do business in America today is to do it with glass pockets, and show the public what you really have, and what you really are doing. You may take the case of several industries, which have adopted this policy, and observe the very satisfactory results which have been obtained.

"I believe that the oil industry is clean and has nothing to fear from a program such as these other industries have adopted. When one considers the widespread distribution of gasoline and the very limited amount of profit in a gallon of gasoline, surely not over 2 cents a gallon considering everything, it is surprising. It is a wonderfully distributed product.

"You have the annual meeting of the American Petroleum Institute coming to Tulsa in December, and it members of this body can get together and formulate some plan regarding modification of the Sherman anti-trust act, as applied to drilling flush fields, and properly present this plan, I see no reason why it should not receive favorable action at the hands of Congress."

Obituary

Hiram Priest was born in New York State, April 26, 1848 and departed this life, Nov. 22, 1926 at his home in Covington, Ohio at the age of 78 years 6 months and 22 days. He leaves to mourn his loss a loving companion, one brother, Arvin Priest of Indianapolis, Ind. two sisters, Mrs. Lulu Vanschusten of Muskegon Michigan and Mrs. Rebecca Rogers of Easton Rapids Mich.

His boyhood days were spent in New York State. When a young man he and his parents moved to Indiana. At the age of 21 he was united in marriage to Maggie Lockwood who passed away.

Oct. 11, 1896 he was united in marriage to Rebecca Shellberger.

Brother Priest was practically a life time member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was noted for his fine Christian character and wherever he lived he endeared himself to a host of friends.

Many are the tributes of high esteem which he was held by the people of Covington.

Business men and neighbors speak of his having lived the life of a Christian in our midst.

For a number of years he resided in Michigan, but his more recent years were spent in Covington and its vicinity.

In his passing the Church loses a loyal and high appreciated member and our community loses a citizen whose life was an inspiration to all who knew him. His wife loses a companion who was always kind and thoughtfully interested in the welfare of her to whom he was so devoted.

John Thompson Sowers was born July 7, 1846 and passed to his home beyond, Nov. 26, 1926, aged 80 years 4 months and 19 days.

Mr. Sower joined the Cumberland Presbyterian Church when a boy and continued as a member until time of his death.

Volunteered in 147 Reg. O. V. I. when 18 years of age.

March 19 1867 he was united in marriage with Anna Martha Clark, to them were born six children four sons and two daughters; James F., John F. Grace Blanche, Lee and Keith, James F. John F. and Keith survive.

He is also survived by one brother, Sylvester S. Sowers and one sister, Mrs. Anna Ballou. There are also three grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Mr. Sowers for many years was engaged in the grain business.

A large part of his life was spent in Bradford and Covington, although he lived in Chicago for a little more than twenty years.

He was known for his fine character and devotion to his home and loved ones.

He had endeared himself to a host of friends, many of whom with his family remain to mourn his loss.

The people of the town and community to the bereaved in their time unite in extending their sympathy.

Oldest Telephone Men in State Talk It Over

These are the two oldest telephone men, in point of service, in the state of Ohio. They are Thomas Field, Cleveland, on left, and Delos Odell, Springfield, on right. Mr. Field has been in the telephone service for over 46 years while Mr. Odell will soon reach that number of years. They were snapped while talking over their experiences during a recent visit to Cedar Point.

The telephone industry in the United States (including both the operation of the telephone systems and the manufacture of telephone equipment) employs over 400,000 persons, or one out of every 230 of the entire population of the country.

Where Detroit Leads Glasgow, Scotland, and Detroit, Mich., are about the same size but the motor metropolis has four times as many telephones as the Scotch city.

Quickest Market Service by Air

The farmer today has a better market ticker service than the Wall Street broker. James B. Poole, for more than twenty years recognized as the best-informed live-stock market reporter in Chicago, steps to the microphone every morning at 9:30 and via WLS, the Sears-Robert Agricultural Foundation Station, Chicago, gives the farmer the most complete live-stock market report broadcast from any radio station in the country. At 12:30 he is on the air again with ten minutes full of terse advice to farmers on market conditions, and whether to sell quick or hold cattle, hogs and sheep for better prices. This lightning market report service, which gives the farmer the current prices on his produce at the moment he wishes to make his deal, is recognizing farm marketing and making the farmer a better business man, according to Samuel B. Guard, Director of the Foundation.
