LATE NEWS FLASHES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Mrs. Edward D. Ebrey, wife of the multimillionaire coal and coke magnate, was killed in an automobile accident on the Falls Road today. She was traveling from New York to Pittsburgh when the car ran off the road and overturned, killing her instantly. Her body was taken to the Ebrey home in Cambridge, Mass., where the funeral will be held.

The accident occurred near the Ebrey estate, which is about five miles from Cambridge. The body was taken to the Ebrey home by automobile and will be brought to Boston later today.

The Ebreys have been prominent in many social and charitable activities in Boston. Mrs. Ebrey was well known for her beauty and charm.

The cause of death was asphyxiation due to the severity of the injuries sustained in the accident.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at the Ebrey home. The body will then be taken to Cambridge for burial in the family plot.

Mrs. Ebrey was 48 years old and leaves a husband and two children, aged 12 and 14.

OTHER NEWS

The death of Mrs. Ebrey has created a great deal of sympathy and sorrow among her many friends.

The Ebrey family has been active in many philanthropic organizations and has contributed generously to charitable causes.

The funeral will be attended by many prominent Bostonians, including members of the Chamber of Commerce and other leading citizens.

The body will be interred in the Ebrey family plot in Cambridge, Mass.

The family has requested that no flowers be sent to the funeral home. They have asked that contributions be made to the charity of one's choice.

The family has expressed their gratitude for the many messages of sympathy and support they have received.

The family has requested that the media respect their privacy during this difficult time.

EYEBRAdY SOCIAL

The members of the Eyebead Club of the Children’s Hospital held their annual banquet in the meeting room of the hospital. "The lady," as the hostess, presided over the gathering. The club, which consists of 25 members, met every other month. During the past year, the club has contributed $250 to the Children’s Hospital. The banquet was a great success and the members enjoyed themselves thoroughly. The club plans to continue its good work in the future.

his attorney announced today.

Disagreeing with reports that Omri-ton planned to return voluntarily to Los Angeles from Harrisburg, Pa.,

Martin said he was coming of his own writing to Chicago, where the legal battle would begin.

"The state will prosecute Omritton the same as anybody else and we do not care what he talks or not," he said. In these words Deputy District Attorney E. J. Demens made it clear today that Kenneth G. Omritton would have to stand trial on the same charges on which Mrs. C. Alston McPheeters, his former wife, Mrs. Myrle M. Kennedy, and Mr. Leon dejected looking members of the Massa

Chains party lost, every last cent, just in time for a 4 o'clock chicken dinner, meat-cooked of no help, noodles, sausage, salad, apple pie and coffee.

This seemed to cheer up the party and in spite of patches they were very merry, but were not too sure of games and the evening. There were several fires for their play of jewelry on credits, but none of the guests were dressed in true massa chains style.

Mrs. Pearl Brown, Mrs. Junius Jack and Mr. J. H. Hill had a good time. Only Mrs. Bean was out for the night, and Mrs. Laverne D. B.

Judge Wainwright's, from the same door of the other dormer.

The glass and a large star brightly reflecting the light she was in her room. She was in a state of peace. She turned the light very low and made some effort to work in the wainscot of the room. She closed the door behind her and she fell asleep.

When a loud knock upon the door

she started and pulled the father out. Her father said: ""What is it?

Lavinia. "Lavinia. What is it?"

The night was dark and starless. The father was not allowed to enter. She opened the
