PRAYER IN CHRISTIAN LIFE

LESSON TEXT—Mark 1:35, 14:22-42; Matt. 9:12
 GOLDEN TEXT—Ask and it shall be given you, seek and ye shall find, knock and it shall be opened unto you
 PRIMARY TOPIC—Talking to God
 JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Teaches Us How to Pray
 INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Learning From Jesus How to Pray
 YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—What Jesus Taught by Prayer

1. Jesus Praying in a Solitary Place (Mark 1:35)

After a series of most strenuous efforts Jesus retired to a lonely place to pray. He who the day before had shown His mighty power in casting out devils and humbling disease men needed to be alone with God. In order to do this He arose a long time before daylight. The very best time to pray is in the morning when our physical powers have been renewed. If the Son of God needed this time for prayer, this renewal of spiritual strength in communion with the Heavenly Father, how much more should we seek help by retiring to the solitary place.

2. Jesus Praying in Getsemane (Mark 14:32-42)

In this time of crisis He took with Him Peter, James and John. The first prayer (v. 35-38).
 (1) His posture (v. 35).
 He fell on his face prostrate on the ground. In the hour of great need we naturally prostrate ourselves before God.

(2) His petition (v. 38).
 "Take away this cup from me." By the cup is meant His death on the cross. No doubt it was most grievous for Him to face this shame, but Jesus is on, knowing that for this (John 12:27, 28; of Heb. 2:14).

(3) His resignation (v. 36).
 His will was in subjection to the Father. He knew that His death on the cross was the will of God, the Father; for He was the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.

(4) The disciples rebuked (v. 37).
 He singled out Peter since he had been the most conspicuous in a plea for His joyous (John 13:38).

(5) Extortion to the disciples (v. 38).
 "Watch and pray lest ye enter into temptation." The only way to be able to stand in the time of trial is to be watching and praying.

2. The second prayer (v. 39, 40).
 He withdrew the second time from the disciples and uttered the same words in prayer. This was not vain repetition. It is proper to repeat our requests. He found the disciples asleep again. Their shame and confusion were more marked than at first.

3. The third prayer (v. 41, 42).
 He uttered the same words in the third prayer (Matt. 26:44).
 He tells the disciples to sleep on and take their rest as the hour had now come for His betrayal. There is such a thing as being asleep when late. If the disciples had been praying they would not have fallen asleep.

III. Jesus Giving a Model Prayer (Matt. 6:9-13).

This model was given in response to the disciples' request that the Lord teach them how to pray (Luke 11:10). It is not therefore the Lord's prayer, but the model prayer for the disciples. It involves:

1. A right relationship (v. 9).
 "Father Father." Only those who become children of God by faith in Jesus Christ (Gal. 3:26) can pray aright. One must be a child of God before he can be in communion with God.

2. A right attitude (vs. 9, 10).
 "Hallowed be Thy name." When one realizes that he has been delivered from the power of darkness and translated into the kingdom of His Son (Col. 1:13) by being made a child of God, he cannot help pouring out his soul in gratitude and praise, intensely longing for the kingdom, the righteous rule of Christ to come on the earth.

3. A right spirit (v. 11-13).
 "God that of trust which looks to God for the supply of daily bread. We Brussels—Empress Charlotte, the widow of Maximilian, former brief time Emperor of Mexico, died at her Chateau in the outskirts of Brussels on seven o'clock this morning. Pneumonia was the immediate cause of death.

King Albert and Queen Elisabeth arrived at the Chateau Bouchout soon after Charlotte had expired.

She leaves a fortune of approximately $3,000,000 to be divided among six heirs.

The funeral of the empress will be held at 11 o'clock Saturday from Laeken Cathedral, where she will be buried. Full Royal honors will be given.

Washington—The danger of war with Mexico, which has been lurking in the shadows of the land-law dispute, has virtually been dispelled.

This was generally accepted in Washington today, following secretary of State Kellogg's announcement of last night, committing the administration to settlement of the Mexican dispute by arbitration. Kellogg said he "welcomed" the Robinson Resolution, which declares it to be the sense of the senate that the controversy should be adjusted by peaceable means.

Washington—Investigation is under way here today to determine responsibility for the death of four persons who were killed Tuesday by a Baltimore and Ohio train near here. The victims were Herman Clausen, 40 his son Carl, 14, and two sons-in-law Arthur Moehring and Dave King, all of whom were riding in the machine when it was struck.

Lorain O.—Five men are in custody here for investigation in connection with the death of James Beattie, 61, shipyard worker. Coroner Miles E. Perry, of Elyria, declared that the man had been killed by a blow on the head. Associates of Beattie stated that he had fallen down a hatchway.

Obituary

SAMUEL JAMES PINKERTON

Funeral services over the remains of the late Samuel J. Pinkerton of West Milton were held in the home on Hamilton Street of that town Sunday, Jan. 9th, at 2:30 P. M., with Pastor J. P. Martin of West Carroll officiating. Mr. Martin brought forcibly to the minds of his hearers that there would be a resurrection of the dead, the great majority of which would be given back to the arms of their loved ones here in the flesh and that this parting was only for a time that under the rule of our great King, Christ Jesus, a resurrection of race is due, restoring all who will, to perfections of body and mind the like of which we have never experienced.

Many beautiful floral tributes were sent in sympathy from various parts of the very large one of the most beautiful a country large wreath which was sent by the employees of the St. Louis and Hannibal Ry. The pall bearers were four sons a son-in-law C.R. Bonnell of Dayton, O. and Mrs. Pinkerton's brother; H. J. Heiberger of Columbus, O. The body was laid to rest in Riverside Cemetery, West Milton.

Mr. Pinkerton was of Scotch Irish parentage born near Londonderry, Ireland, June 22-1857. He came to this country when quite a young man and engaged in structural engineering.

He with his brother the late John Pinkerton of Toronto, Canada, also an engineer were pioneer railroad men of the North west and builders of various roads throughout the west. Among them the Canadian Pacific Ry. West of Port Arthur; the Algonquin and Eastern Ry. the St. Paul and Manitoba Ry and the International and Great Northern Ry through Texas.

Later Mr. Pinkerton was connected with the Mo. Pac. Ry. The C. H. and D. Ry. The B. and O. Ry. and at the time of his death with the St. Louis and Hannibal, Mo. It will be remembered that he was located here for nearly fifteen years and employed as supervisor on the C. H. and D. Ry. and D. T. and C. Ry.

Mr. Pinkerton made many friends throughout this part of the country by his quiet but amusing disposition. A good neighbor but unassuming, a kind father and husband.

Mr. Pinkerton was united in marriage to Lillian R. Heiberger of Columbus, O. in 1894. Six children were born to them, George R. Pinkerton of Owosso, Mich., Ed S. Pinkerton of Devils Lake N. D., Mrs. C. R. Bonnell of Dayton, O. Frank R. Pinkerton of West Milton, and Gerald and Harriet who reside with their mother in West Milton. He is survived also by one sister Mrs. Ysobel Piercy of Hamilton, Ont. Canada.

Mr. Pinkerton spent the holidays with his family and on the way back to Hannibal contracted a cold which quickly developed into pneumonia. A weak heart hastened his death which occurred Jan. 4th at Hannibal, Mo. George and Edward Pinkerton accompanied the remains of their father as far as Bradford where it was given in charge of Routzahn Brothers Undertakers of this place.

Mr. Pinkerton's death was a great shock to his family and many friends throughout the country.

GOOD COW FOR SALE I recently noticed such a sign printed on a board in front of a farmers home. It stayed there for more than three weeks. Surely this man wished to dispose of the cow—but his method took him a long time to find a buyer. A fifty cent ad in this paper would have brought him a dozen buyers in a day or two and the feed he would have saved would have paid much more than the ad.

Defiance, O.—"Come on you Buck eye; here's your old Wolverine!"

With this defy Ambrose Keene, 83 year old hiker of Dundee, Mich. challenged Alex Van Praag, 73, champion old age walker of Ohio, to a contest from one to fifteen miles.

Van Praag has been champion walker of Defiance county since back; 1878, to be specific.

Keene says he is 6 feet 2 inches in his sox and weighs 118 pounds the same way.

"I am as limber as a rag," he declared in his challenge. "And can turn hand springs or stand straight and touch the floor with my fingers without bending my knees."

To date the Buckeye man has not indicated what he will do about the Wolverine's "woof woof."

Hudson Bay appears with the announcement here that the last link in a new railroad to the bay will be completed next summer.

The announcement was made by Rankin Le-lie, vice-president of the On-To-The-Bay association of Canada who said that money for the final link has been appropriated and that the work will start in the spring.

More than 700 miles of the railroad, which runs from Winnipeg to Port Nelson, around the west side of Lake Winnipeg, already has been built and the grade is completed for the remaining 90 miles, he said.

Stocking Effects Should Be Subtle, Says Expert

THIS IS THE CORRECT IDEA

TO THIS LUCILLE SAYS NO!

EDWARD FRESCHL, PRESIDENT OF THE HOSEHOSE SOCIETY CO

NEW YORK.—"The stocking should appear to be a softly colored bloom on the limbs," writes Lucile of Paris, the famous couturiere.

"Never should the stockings attract attention by loud colors or fantastic designs. Bizarre effects in hosiery, shocking! Jamais de la vie. If the grace and beautiful proportions of the wearer cause admiration, ah, that is another thing. That cannot be helped. What would you?"

"Subtlety is the note. A hint, a delicate flash of color, as if a ray-light had been thrown on the silk. The million of the eye answers with a like the very faintest of a perfect cuticle. The effect is ethereal.

"That is the perfect ideal in hose. When I created the tints which I named Fanchon, Celeste, and Maxine for the Hosiery Society company, I had that in mind and agreed on this with President Freschl of the company. A woman does not need a long array of different colored hose, like the rows of pastels in an artist's color box. A few tints and those absolutely correct give the wearer the cachet of personality and authoritative taste always.

"Hose should lend a flattering touch of grace to the ankles and should repeat the lighter note of the costume. The stockings that more could be added? Labored effects are wrong. One should please without appearing to try to please. That is the way women conquer. When one appears to struggle to please, one is lost. Maxine is to be worn with tan, beige, or brown. Celeste gives that note of le ne sais quoi to dark costumes. Fanchon complements the jewels and bright colors of evening wear. To be suave, enticing as the glance of beauty, but without a hint of effort or straining for attention, that is the secret of art in dress."
