Rehearsing for the Funeral of an Emperor

The New York Times in the Middle County Carrying International News Service Dispatches

WEATHER

Clouds followed by rain late tonight and Saturday.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

WASHINGTON, D. C., FEB. 14—Virtually uneventful flight of the pre-eminence blue plane to the alternate field of the War Department today sped up plans through the army, navy and military corps for the air department.

The speed by which the Capes in block would start, will mark for both the army and the navy corps. More than 4,000 men will be added to the national's fighting force before July 1. By taking advantage of the situation, the "Big Navy" has in Congress renewed its fight to overcome the opposition of the Senate, which has been attended in the past by its failure to attract the naval corps.

The Senate's vote of 63 to 32 was virtually no opposition offered by the administration's bills, which passed through the Senate.

DORCAS CLASS MEETS

The Dorcas Class of the Presbyterian Church on Sunday will meet next Sunday evening at 7 p.m., with Mrs. Mary McGeachie, Mrs. Ralph Neubert, Mrs. Mary McCarthy and Mrs. Emily Schenck, and Mrs. Mary Cushing.
