Obituary

PATRICIA LOU LONG
By Edith Morton Bahrer

On the morning of July 1, 1925, a darling baby girl came to bless the union of Hubert and Neva Holloway Long. The blue of heaven shone in the baby's eyes and the golden hair was the color of a ray of sunshine. God had sent one of his tiny creations down with a message of gladness which only a baby can bring.

The little one called Patricia Lou,
was soon brightening the home of parents and grandparents with the radiance of her smile and the cunning sounds and words which fell from infant lips. Within her few short months of babyhood "Patty" Lou had endured herself to many by the childish friendliness of her disposition and the evident promises of a keen mind.

However, the Heavenly father deemed best to make brief her stay among us. We caught only a glimpse of what the baby girl might have become in maturity.

The disease which manifested itself only in the last five months of her life blighted the blossoming bud of childhood, and after only nineteen months and a few days of earthly presence Patty Lou has returned to Heaven to be cradled by the angels.
So tenderly have loving hands ministered to baby's needs during her seige of illness, so hopefully have parents secured the best of professional care for the little daughter. But all in vain! The new home, so gladly opened to welcome the first born, has been denied the fulfillment of dreams cherished by this young father and mother for the welfare of their daughter.

A deep sorrow lies, too, in the hearts of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Holloway and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long, for to Patty Lou they have given the rare devotion and love claimed by the first and only grandchild.

As the months and years pass
without the babe and there lingers
only the memory of a happiness once theirs may they say with the poet:

Hush! For a sunbeam has faded
'Neath the dim gray clouds of the even'
And an angel has taken Patty Lou
From earth for a garden in Heaven

A life has gone out from amongst us.

A life that was so sweet, though
so short.

Our darling ship has steered safely
And steadily straight into port.

Two star shining eyes are darkened
Two soft little hands are now cold
And forever stilled are the beatings
Of one little heart of gold.

We will miss Patty Lou, yes we will miss her.

With her little voice so sweet.
Yes, we will listen faintly
For the sound of her pattering feet.

Life is nothing but sorrow
Nothing but trouble and care.
Nothing but passionate anguish.
Confusion, regret and despair.

Good-bye little Patty Lou, darling.
Your ship of life is at rest.
Your little troubles are over.
Our Father knoweth the best.

We leave you at peace on his bosom
And go on our daily way.
With a prayer that we may meet
you
In His palace of love some day.

CARD OF THANKS

The family wishes to express their sincere thanks for the many tokens
of sympathy; the beautiful flowers;
and assistance rendered.

LADIES AID
The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian Church will meet at the home of Mrs. W. W. Whitmer on Friday evening at 7:00 o'clock.
All members are invited to attend.

Old Indian Tradition of Wyoming Springs

The Big Horn hot springs in Wyoming, among the largest in the world are a favored haunt of the Great Spirit and possessors of miraculous powers
if old Indian myths are to be believed.

Today large numbers of Shoshones, Arapahoes and Crows camp in numbers near the springs, invoking the aid of the Great Spirit in ridding them of their ailments. They also believe these waters will bring them protection against evil.

Harry Lange, an old Indian fighter,
recently visited the springs and recalled that 50 years before he, as a member of a scouting party with a cavalry detachment guided by Arapa-hoes, had crossed the Big Horn, at the present site of Thermopolis. Lange said they threw themselves into the pools below the big spring and went through religious rituals. They urged the soldiers to do likewise, declaring the waters were blessed by the Great Spirit and that bathing in them would ward off evil.

A legend almost as old as the Shoshone tribe itself says that back in the beginning of things Ishawom, a chief who ruled all the Indians of this section, alone knew of the springs and visited them annually, thus keeping his power and health. But when old age finally came he directed his braves to take him to these waters and allow him to die in them so his spirit would be blessed by the Great Spirit.

Ishawom's only son, Wapitti, was a weakling who apparently would never be able to assume his father's leadership. But as he died Ishawom confided to Wapitti the secret of finding the Great Spirit's favor by bathing in the hot springs. It was thus that Wapitti became strong and eventually an even greater chief than his father.

Generations later the great Shoshone chief, Washakie, submitting to the advance of the palefaces, ceded the Big Horn hot springs to the United States and the state of Wyoming on condition that a portion of their waters be reserved for free use by the tribes and stock of both portions.

FIRE ALARM CAUSES MANY TO LEAVE CHURCH

Half of Audience Rushed from the Gettysburg Methodist Church When Fire Truck Rushed Past and Some One Called Fire No Fire Was to Be Found Greenville Band Plays
to Quiet Crowd.

A near panic occurred during a protracted meeting that was being held in the Methodist church at Gettysburg Sunday night; and half of the audience rushed into the street
when a fire truck went past, and some one in the church yelled "fire."

Despite the fact that the church
was one at the time, there was a rush for the door. Luckily no one was hurt. The fire was reported as being in the big Petersime incubator factory, and that was what started the rush of the people. It turned out to be a false alarm, as it was only some trash burning.
The Greenville concert band, that attended the meeting, and gave a concert before the sermon began,
helped to quiet the audience by playing during the time the people were endeavoring to get out of the church.
Later they all came back and enjoyed the music and the sermon—

Chief Tony Tommy Greet's "The Florida Special"

Tony Tommy, chief of the Seminoles, was right on hand to greet Engineer Ralph Holmes of the Florida East Coast Railway when the Florida Special, famous crash train, slid to the station at Miami only 48 hours out of New York.

"Civilization flies on wings of steel and truly has come into the Land of the Seminoles" the chief said.

The first coming time was made possible by a sixty million dollar program of expansion and development, including the double track from Miami to Jacksonville, the new line from Jacksonville to Tallahassee, and the new line from Tallahassee to Panama City.

The railway, and the rapid growth of Florida, he said, made it imperative that the Seminoles must abandon their old ways of living for the new. He said they were now living with civilization, and the new life was better.

SENATE REFUSES TO RE-CONSIDER WORLD COURT

Washington, Feb. 9.—The Senate voted overwhelmingly this afternoon against reconsidering the questions of American adherence to the World Court.

A motion by Senator Trammell, of Florida, to discharge the Senate Foreign relations committee from further action on his resolution withdrawing the United States from the court was tabled by a vote of 59 to 10. The action of tabling in the Senate kills any proposal so treated. Both Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the minority leader and Senator Borah, of Idaho, leader of the Anti-Court fight, urged this action.

In early life he united with the Evangelical Lutheran church in Green county. In 1884 he moved to Miami County. On Jan. 23, 1887 he transferred his membership by letter to the Cumberland Presbyterian church, Covington, Ohio. He has maintained his interest in, and fidelity to his church all these years of his life.

He was the last of this large family to enter into the better life.

He leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Cordelia, his son Orion, six grandchildren, numerous nephews and nieces, and a host of friends. He was a faithful husband, a kind father, and a jovial friend.

DORCAS CLASS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Mae Metzger entertained the 81 members of the Dorcas Class, last evening, at her home on High St.

A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by the Ladies, one new member, Mrs. Tremble welcomed among them at the business session.

A menu of brick ice cream, red and white cakes and candy hearts were served as refreshments.

Valentines were drawn from a large heart, prizes given for two who could first put together a cut up heart which was won by Mrs. Henry Apple.

A beautiful friendship card was presented by the class to two members who will soon leave for their new homes, Mrs. Minnie Rice and Mrs. Emma McMakin. Mrs. Rachel Neth and Mrs. Ella O'Donnell, making the presentation speeches. They were also presented with an egg beater, a sack hammer, tube of glue pencil and string, all of which were some token of their leaving the Dorcas Class.

Mrs. Rice will go to Troy and Mrs. McMakin to Ploma, and the class regrets very much to lose two very faithful and active members.

All enjoyed the entire evening spent with Mrs. Metzger.

Table Manners

Colonel Carroll, the queen of Romania's official host, said at a dinner in Denver:

"Table manners should be simple. Nothing is so provincial and ridiculous as to adopt elaborate table manners—elaborate book table manners—for they are bound to be wrong."

"Etiquette book table manners: They always make me think of the young man who said:

"I'm sure proud to take Mamie out to eat. Her table manners are grand. Always holds her chop bone in her handkerchief so as not to grease her fingers."

Le-Nurus Braves Jungle

Riches are promised as the reward for Mrs. Charles Booth, who braved the jungles of New Guinea alone. With her husband she joined the gold rush to Bulolo river, and he left her with carriers in the jungle while he pushed ahead. His carriers deserted her and for three weeks she went on alone, then recruited new helpers, rejoined her husband and stated claims that now promise to give the two a fortune. She was a nurse in Queensland, Australia, when the married Booth, a wounded ex-soldier, and soon afterward went with him to New Guinea.

Dietary and kitchenettes in modern flats and apartments suggest the idea that if they'd sold food cooperatives in the settlement, they'd be complete.

MAKING OUR HOMES CHRISTIAN

LESSON TEXT—Eph. 5:22-34.
GOLDEN TEXT—Let us love one another for love is of God.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The Child at Home.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Obedience at Home.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Unselfishness in the Home.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—How to Make Our Homes Christian.

I. The Importance of the Home.
The oldest and most important institution in the world is the family. It is the foundation stone upon which all other institutions are built. On the measure that the home is kept pure and strong will the church, society and the nation be pure and strong.

II. The Makers of the Home.
The foundation upon which the home is built is marriage, and the makers of the home are the man and the woman united in holy wedlock.

III. The Obligations of the Members of the Home.

(1) The husband (Eph. 5:25-32).

(a) The husband is to love his wife (v. 25). Observe—

a. The measure of this love is the love of Christ for His church. Christ loved the church so that He gave Himself for it. His was a self-emptying love. The obligation enjoined upon the husband is to manifest that self-emptying love toward his wife.

b. The purpose of this love (v. 26, 27).

The purpose of the husband's self-emptying is the perfection of his wife's character.

c. The ground of this love (v. 28, 30).

After all, the ground of the husband's love for his wife is his own self. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

(2) The husband is to be joined unto his wife (v. 31).

When the time comes for a man to establish a home, he leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife. This results in the creation of the new unity of society.

2. The wife (Eph. 5:22-24).

She is to be subject to her own husband. This is not an arbitrary matter, but it is according to the divine arrangement. It is to be "as unto the Lord." It is important to inquire as to what this of subjection is enjoined. In order to understand this, we must grasp the figure which the apostle introduces of Christ and the church, Christ loving the church as without ulterior motive, as true love "seeketh not its own." Since Christ gave Himself for the church, He thus lifted the church into union with Himself and became to it Lord in the power of His love. The church responds to this love by lovingly recognizing the Lordship of Christ. Just as the church graciously comes under the guidance and direction of Jesus Christ so the wife responds to the love of her husband.

Headship of the man is the divine order. Headship never suggests "boss-ship" nor government. Observe with reference to this subjection—
(a) The motive (v. 22). "As unto the Lord."
(b) The ground (v. 23). "The husband is the head of the wife."
(c) The extent of (v. 24). "In everything."
8. The children (6:1-3).
The divine purpose in the union of the male and the female in the bonds of holy wedlock is the propagation of the race. When God pronounced His benediction upon the first pair He said, "Be fruitful and multiply."
(1) Obedience to parents (v. 1).
The ground of this obedience is the fact that the parents stand in the place of God to the child.
(2) Honor the parents (v. 2).
Obedience to parents is limited to the period of immaturity. When the children take their place in the establishment of new units in society they are no longer under obligation to obey their parents. Two gracious promises are attached to this commitment, that it may be well with those and that thou mayest live long on the earth.
4. The parents (v. 4).
Doubtless the word "fathers" was intended to be inclusive of the "mothers."
(1) Provoke not your children to wrath.
This doubtless means that in the exercise of parental authority there should be avoidance of irritation.
(2) To bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.
Nurture doubtless means to educate and admonition means discipline.

Late News Flashes

Grounded

Fierce gales drove the steamer Selys Eddy ashore at Wood Hole in Vineyard Sound, Mass. The ship was declared a total loss.

WAR ZONE SPREADING

Washington.—The Chinese war zone is spreading, according to dispatches to the State Department today.

Consul Myers at Yunnan-Fu reported that a revolt had broken out in the province of Yunnan, hitherto but little affected by the civil strife, and that "fighting appears inevitable." There are 6,000 troops in the city.

Eight Americans in Yunnan-Fu, according to the Dispatch.

Passed Over Riches

in Search for Gold

California and the Klondike are richest in gold rush lores, but northern Minnesota, too, has a place in the annals of man's search for the precious yellow metal. In 1866 more than 2,000 prospectors fought their way over snow-covered ground, through a country without a roadway, lashing their dog teams in a frantic race to stake claims and dig for gold, chasing a phantom that eluded them and ignoring in their frenzied search the predators one that, in years to come, was to make the range the richest iron country in the world.

This gold rush to the Lake Vermillion district is the first of many romantic events in the story of man's attempt to wrest the district's treasures from the earth.

Long before fur traders had brought stories to the little settlement of Duluth of the existence of valuable metals. But the Indians made no attempt at exploration, content with displaying to the traders and the miscellaneous samples of gold-threaded quartz. Hundreds of years before, according to legend, four Indians, sitting about a campfire on the shores of Lake Superior, heated stones only to have them melt into masses of copper. Reluctant over their discovery, they were examining it, when a voice, apparently from the lake, thundered: "I am the Father of the Waters. You are robbing me. Depart!"

The legend is that the four Indians were stricken with such fright that death came within a few hours—Minneapolis Journal.

Historical Inaccuracies

There are mistakes in the picture that have been painted to depict Washington making his famous crossing of the Delaware river just before his victory at the battle of Trenton. Writing in an article in Liberty, Hugh Furston says, "Artists who have painted the scene made two blunders. The flag they painted is not at all like the flag borne by the Americans. The boats show even a greater error. Those actually used were specially constructed rafts for the cannon and horses; but the painters drew ordinary rowboats. The boats were of a unique type known as Durham boats. They were one boat built to haul one down the river. These boats were shaped like broad canoes and were more than 40 feet long, pointed bow, and ideal for hauling troops and supplies over the river."

Washington.—Business conditions in America are "as solid as rock," Henry Ford declared today after a visit with President Coolidge at the White House he called to pay his respects to the President.

Ford looks for no diminution of industrial prosperity in the near future. He declared that prohibition ought to be here to stay. Alcohol is not good for anyone he asserted.

A survey among his own employees showed that they have done much better work without alcohol he said.

Ford leaves this afternoon to visit Thomas A. Edison, who will be 80 years old on Friday.

London.—Great Britain will acquit the league of nations with developments in the Chinese negotiations but it does not intend to ask the league to mediate, it was stated officially today.

Cleveland.—"Two-Gun" Murphy, Star operator of the federal narcotic service and enigma of dope peddlers throughout the Middle-west, staged another spectacular raid here early today capturing opium and other narcotics valued at more than $4,000. Two Chinese were arrested.

The opium was found sealed in the walls of a building which is believed to be the distributing point for a large group of narcotic smugglers.

Murphy raided an opium den here Monday and captured a white woman and four Chinese, besides a large quantity of drugs. It was one of the few times in the history of the service that Chinese failed to spirit away any white female "guests" when a raid was made.

Chicago.—Nineteen of the thirty-one Staff doctors of the United States army speedway hospital in Maywood are under investigation in connection with alleged wholesale traffic in liquor prescriptions according to a copy of a report appearing in the Herald-Examiner today.

They are to be questioned concerning the alleged sale of thousands of prescription blanks to bootlegging druggists at $3 each, the article states.

Each physician, it is charged, disposed of his entire quota, 100 blanks each quarter, in this way, adding $1,200 a year to his income.

Columbus, O.—Charles N. Bixler's game of hide and seek with Ohio authorities is at an end today following his safe delivery at the Ohio penitentiary by J. W. Cook, Sheriff of Allen county.

Bixler, formerly of Fostoria, who pleaded guilty to grand larceny at Lima Monday, escaped from Sheriff Cook's Toledo early in January and was captured Sunday at the home of his sweetheart near upper Sandusky.

He was a trusty at the Lima jail, while awaiting trial for the theft of an automobile at Akron. After prevailing on Sheriff Cook to take him, to Toledo "where fugitives were in hiding," Bixler escaped from the interurban station.

An undeviated note from Bixler to the girl, found by Sheriff Stanbury of Wyandot county, led officers to a hired automobile near her home. Bixler sat in the machine fast asleep.
