Brilliant Weekly Allowance
Father—You promised me you would give me more money if you hadn't done that. A few weeks ago you said, "Son—no, it shows how weak the allowance system is for you.
"Proved integrity
"Yes, I can give you a job. You can gather the eggs yourself but you aren't worth it.
"You can't trust me with anything, but you might make a few dollars for 14 years and save a lot of luck in the end.

In No Sense Innocent
With a sly grin and a high jive tone of the man, the way you did the sentence in the matter of the story,
"Look here," he began, angrily, "how dare you tell my wife what I told you not to tell me?"

The Irish girl eyed him steadily. "Sure—of Old Joe," she replied calmly, "I only told you not to go where you came from or in that way. Only told her that it was the way to get the breakfast ready to look at the clock."—

Recipes

Grapenuts Bread
1 cup grape nuts, 1 pint of milk, 2 eggs, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 cup flour in which a large amount of the milk and brown sugar and 1 teaspoon salt. Bake 1 hour in moderate oven.

Sunday Night Salad
Cut all ingredients into very small pieces. Four cold boiled potatoes, one cup chopped celery, one cup chopped nuts, one cup herring salad and a cup of mayonnaise. Toss in well with a dash of lemon juice. Serve on a bed of lettuce and croutons.

Peach Marmalade
2 peaches
1 cup strained pineapple juice
5 cups sugar
Sift peach juice and cut into little cubes. Boil these over heat. Put the strained pineapple juice and the peaches chopped down and let stand overnight. Cook slowly in the morning three quarters of an hour. Cool and place in glasses.

MRS. McPHERSON MAKES A HIT IN NEW YORK

Two Hundred "Hit the Trout" in New York Dorchester Meetings; Evagist Leaves for Syracuse and Rochester

G. R. D. STEVENS

New York, Feb. 21.—Through with eight days of triumph on the East Coast—along Broadway, Mrs. Alice Sample McPher- son, member of the evangelistic troupe, today shakes the dust and soil of this city from her feet and goes to Syracuse, N. Y. to start another series of meetings. She goes with the echoes of dozens of tent crowds and the satisfaction which comes from bringing 200 conversions and the concern of church officials with enough money taken in from "free will offerings" to pay for some of the seven servants who helped her.

She delayed her departure today hoping to have the opportunity to make a tour of the New York area before she returns to New York in a week, carrying her "four square" gospel to Syracuse and Rochester. Chances are she may go for her Florida.

On her first acts in New York was to make a sentimental journey to a White Way restaurant, but when she found she had become the same age of these girls, she made a hearty return to the nursery in the Millin.

During December, Mrs. McPher-son, a former club leader and the father of Past. White McPher-son, came out of his retirement long enough to assist in the city of Denver, Mrs. McPher-son, to show her where her young club leader can pay the law and her husband the respect she feels for him. When the crowds recognized her, she took a new interest in the club.

"It has been a delight to watch the growth of the McPher-son girls," said Rev. Harold Harris and John A. McCreary.

Some fellows are splendid devilish but for two things—Real feel.

Two Hundred "Hit the Trail" in New York During Mass Meeting of Girls to Leave for Europe Today

(Miss. D. E. Swinkens)

New York, Feb. 25—With the wind blowing furiously and the street lamps glowing brightly, a large crowd gathered today in the lobby of the Grand Central Station in New York. The crowd was composed of a group of girls, all of whom were members of the U.S. Women's National Service. They were preparing to leave for Europe, where they would serve as nurses. The girls were dressed in their uniforms and were holding their bags tightly. Some of them were crying, while others were smiling. The weather was cold and the wind was blowing hard, but the girls were determined to carry out their mission. They were led by their captain, who gave them a final pep talk before they went on their way. The scene was感人 and everyone was moved by the bravery and dedication of the girls. They were true heroes, and their sacrifice will not be forgotten.

THE STILLWATER VALLEY NEWS

Late News Flashes

CLEVELAND—Twin sisters spanned the gap between the past and the future today when they rode to work in the new automobile. The sisters, Mary and Jane, were the first to use the new vehicle in Cleveland. The car was a Model T Ford, and it was the first automobile to be sold in the city. The sisters were excited to be riding in the new car, and they were happy to be able to help their family by driving to work. They were also happy to be able to use the car to get around town. The car was a big improvement over the old horse-drawn carriages, and it was much more efficient. The sisters were happy to be part of the new era of transportation.

CLEVELAND—A group of 500 people slept overnight in the lobby of the Hotel Cleveland last night. The people were attending a meeting, and they were too tired to go home. The meeting was a success, and the people were happy to be able to stay in the hotel for the night. The hotel was crowded, and there was a lot of noise. The people were happy to be able to sleep in the lobby, and they were thankful to the hotel staff for letting them stay.

To Fane Chinese Babies

Efforts to stop the abandonment of babies in China are being made by the officials of the Chinese government, who have established a demonstration station at which abandoned babies can be left in secret by parents who cannot or will not care for them. This station is located in the city of Shanghai, where there are many abandoned babies. The station is staffed by trained nurses and doctors, who care for the babies and try to find adoptive parents. The station is also used as a school for nurses and doctors, who are taught how to care for abandoned babies. The station is open to the public, and anyone can visit it and see the babies. The station is also used as a shelter for homeless children, who are taken care of by the nurses and doctors. The station is open to the public, and anyone can visit it and see the children.
