COVENTRY FISH AND GAME TO ELECT OFFICERS

The Covington Fish and Game Protective Association will hold a regular meeting on the evening of March 4, and elect new officers to fill the vacancies created by resignations.

All members holding membership as of February 28 must be present when the membership is called roll to determine those who have been selling them during the membership meeting. Those not present at the meeting will be asked to prove their presence at the meeting so that a complete and record report can be made.

The total number of members on hand and all collected money turned over to the secretary. This will be added to the newly elected officers that they may start in the new year of the Association with a clean slate.

Those who are interested in serving the Association should be present at the meeting so that proper order may be maintained.

There will be a regular meeting of the Association officers held at the L. T. Arby's office at 8 p.m. on Thursday evening, March 4th, and every officer should be present.

Don't forget the good time that you had if you go to the Town Hall building auditing. Friday, March 5th, for the special being put on by the Fish and Game Association and participants will close the meeting of tomorrow's issue of the News. Look for it, read it, and then come again.

NO BETTER place for you to start than to visit the Fish and Game Association and look through their files.

defective At least fifty-two men are entombed in the mines with all hopes of their rescue abandoned. Nearly a hundred other miners were also trapped in the tunnels suffering from gas. The tragedy was caused by the explosion of one of the gases in one of the chambers of the mine, and the year’s work was thus a failure.

Miners in Minersville, Utah, have returned to work at 1:30 this afternoon. The management of the C.W. Jeffries mines states that it fears the death toll will total 150.

Cohoon City—Authority officers are seeking two bandits who staged a hold up attempt to rob the Elk Camp in Cohoon City and escaped with $500 in gold in Cohoon City.

When Mrs. Richards returned from her work, she found the house in disorder, and her money was missing. Two minutes later, two men came to the house and demanded the money. Mrs. Richards ordered them to "give me the rest of the money." She had already taken all the cash and they departed.

The miner’s bitter, and an extensive search which was without results or hope, is still being carried on.

CALVIN W. TRAGUE Calvin w. Trague, son of Mrs. Joseph A. and Mrs. A. Trague, was born near Pleasant Hill, 10 a.m. on Saturday, August 21, 1909. He was laid to rest on August 29, 1909, at the age of 8 years.

On Sept. 29, 1909, he was united in marriage to Mary A. Trague, to which union was born one son, who died in infancy, and one daughter, Mrs. J. Trague, who survives him.

The greater part of his life was spent in the homes of Union and Walker counties. He married his first wife, a daughter of John and Eve Nix of Walker county, and is survived by his two children.

The first game of the evening will be played between the Cohoon City and Tipton teams, with the Cohoon team leading by the members of the seventh and eighth grades of Minersville grammar school, under the direction of Miss Katharine Myers, Supervisor of music.

The story of the opera is a modified version of the fairy tale Jack and the Beanstalk—Jack, a student in love, who is led to believe he has a bean and is true to his wife and devotion to his work.

The Ogro from Cloudy Land comes to earth and finds a big house and a pretty wife. He is happy and content, but the Ogro from Cloudy Land is dissatisfied with his lot.
