London—After a frantic all-night search the police today recovered 170 of 240 tubes of deadly drugs which vanished yesterday while enroute to a hospital in the crowded east end district of London.

The tubes contained Novum-Gel, idion, one of the most potent poisons known. Police are energetically pursuing their search for the remaining seventy tubes of poison.

Children, it was said, are especially in danger of being poisoned by the drug, as the tubes in which it is contained are packed in pretty orange colored boxes similar to candy boxes.

Krecher, who discovered the fire, walked to the front of the house and told the audience to leave quietly. Gilmore went out on the stage and helped calm the audience while Foster accompanied their exit with smart remarks which kept the audience in laughter and play a large part in preventing a panic.

Georgetown—Three different tangles of evidence, all pointing opposite directions, today remained to be unraveled by authorities investigating the baffling murder of Mrs. Mayme McGee, 30, who died at Mt. Orab, near here, last Sunday, apparently of a knife-wound in her breast.

Today Robert Kinney, operator of the Crim-Hyatt Detective Bureau of Cincinnati, officially assigned to the case, announced that an analysis of the dead woman's stomach yesterday, showed that it contained a large quantity of deadly poison.

Cummings told of taking an automobile ride with Mr. McGee on Saturday night, the Private Detective announced, and said that after borrowing his (Cummings) pocketbook, she appeared ill, and he immediately took her home.

With the announcement of discovery of poison in the woman's stomach, Louis McGee, 51, her husband, was being held in the county jail today for further questioning by Kinney and Sheriff John McCallum.

Mrs. McGee was found Saturday night, bleeding from a stab wound, by her husband, when he returned home from work.

Washington—Declaring she acted to save her life, Mrs. Annie S. Edwards, mother of three small children, early today shot and killed her husband, John O. Edwards.

Mrs. Edwards told police her husband came to the house intoxicated and when she denied him admittance he beat in the door with an iron wrench. She ran into the street to escape, seizing a pistol from a drawer. He caught her and shouted, "I'll get you now."

She pressed the pistol to his chest and fired, killing him instantly. Several neighbors witnessed the shooting. Mrs. Edwards was released pending investigation.

Columbus—While physicians at the Merry Hospital here were fighting to save the life of John Marlowe, 19, of Columbus, Sheriff Hammond of Logan was enroute today with Bob Williams, 42, of Nelsonville.

Williams will be held pending the outcome of Marlowe's injuries. The Columbus youth, police said, was injured in a fight with Williams at the Marlowe home in Columbus, March 6 after a dispute over a woman at Athens. O. Beauty Parlor Operator, who is said to have been rooming at the Marlowe home, where Williams, also roomed, Marlowe is said to have a fractured skull, and Hospital authorities were told that he was hurt in an automobile accident, when he was first brought there for treatment.

Canton, Ohio. Frank Nunnaker, "one-armed terror" who, crazed by drink, according to authorities, ran amuck in stark and Columbiana Counties for several days recently, is today under lock key.

He was captured in Georgetown, near Salem, yesterday by Stark County sheriff Ed Gibson, four deputies and marshal Frank Guitard of Louisville. Ohio. Two revolvers and 160 rounds of ammunition were found in his possession.

Corinth, N. C.—After 18 hours of toil, a crew of workers early today rescued Jeff Ashworth farmer, who was entombed 40 feet down in a well.

Ashworth was lifted to the top of the well early this morning, after the rescuers, working in shifts of 3, throughout the night and removed one by one the big stones on the sides of the well, which had caved in and imprisoned Ashworth, the young farmer, entombed for a little more than 13 hours, apparently was none the worse this morning, for his harrowing experience, although physicians had to administer aid when he was brought to the surface.

Ashworth was slightly bruised and cramped. He talked to his rescuers as they worked tirelessly throughout the night to reach him.

More than 500 persons had gathered around the well located a few miles from here, when the rescue was made. Shifts of three were relieved every half hour. The rescue work went on under the direction of J. D. Mciver, a neighbor.

Ashworth was trapped when he was being let into the well to clean it out. Suspended by a rope a little more than half way down the 70-foot well, the sides of the well caved in forming a living tomb over him.

Cleveland, O.—Said to be known in Lansing, as A. G. Gordon, a man booked by local detectives as Charles O'Malley is being held for the killing of James Graham, a taxi driver, here seven years ago.

Graham was shot and killed in October 1920, and until recently the crime has been listed as an "unsolved murder."

Gordon, alias O'Malley, was arrested a week ago in Detroit, following a tip to police, said to have come from his estranged wife. For the past three years, Police say, he has been "going straight."

According to Gordon's story, he left his wife immediately following the shooting. He claims he has paid "hush money" ever since, to his wife and also to Toledo and Detroit police. He found employment in Lansing as an auto salesman and gained rapid promotion. Several weeks ago, he says, he "tired of paying further blackmail," and decided to quit. His arrest soon followed.

He is expected to be indicted shortly.

Pekin, Ill.—Accusing the Chinese authorities of faking the incriminating papers found aboard the Panist Lenia, the Soviet embassy in a third note today demanded immediate release of the ship, and of Mme. Borodin and the three diplomatic couriers who were arrested.

The embassy, basing its charges on a thorough investigation of all the circumstances surrounding the seizure, declares that two previous searches of the Lenia failed to disclose any incriminating evidence, even if the Chinese authorities disregarded international practice and searched the courier's pouches. A third search, however, by a white Russian officer, produced the incriminating documents which the couriers had never before seen, according to the Soviet note.

Rio De Janeiro—The American army good will fliers were today forced to postpone until tomorrow their departure from San Luis Carceres because of heavy storms.

Mexico City—Three civilians, including state Deputy Emilio Martinez Mejia, a laborer leader, were killed and one person was wounded, when rebels made an attack at Tepozanco near Vera Cruz.

Three rebels have been executed after a battle at Cotija, Chichacan, the war department announced today.

Rotterdam—The Steamer Ryndal which brought to Europe an American "Floating University" on a college cruise, today was held at quarantine here by the authorities, who stated that cases of bubonic plague had been discovered among members of the crew. The American Professors and students left the ship at Hygre planning to come here March 21 by train.

The Socialist Press in strenuously protesting against the admission of the Americans to the country, on the ground that they might cause the disease to spread.

Columbus, O.—Police today were seeking to learn the circumstances leading to the death of Fred Muntz, 29, Hillsboro, O. whose body was recovered Wednesday night from the Olentangy river here, near the Ohio State university.

Muntz was reported missing Jan. 30 by his sister with whom he resided. He was in ill health at the time of his disappearance according to report.

The body will be returned to Hillsboro for burial.

THE MIAMI COUNTY EXPERIMENT FARM

An exceptionally fine crop of apples was harvested from the orchard, a total of 721 bushels of picks and 63
bushels of drops being secured.
Stayman was the heaviest yielder with Grimes Golden in second place.
Grimes Golden was a prime favorite with the buyers and more could have been disposed of to advantage.
Apples sold more rapidly from this farm than from any of the other county and district farms.

Station horticulturists reported that the quality of the apples was not excelled in any other county or district experiment farm.

A new hog house was built during the year which will be used for farrowing purposes and for winter feeding tests.

The winter feeding test started on December 28 is a comparison of tannage as a supplement for corn with a mixture of tannage 1-2, alfalfa meal 1-4, and linseed oil meal 1-4. Both lots get limestone in addition.

The hog plans have been rearranged
so as to include all the essentials of the "McLean system of hog sanitation." Because of the many plots on the Experiment Farm which can not be pastured from 50 to 100 hogs have been raised on a relatively small acreage in past years. They will continue to be raised on the same acreage but with a very definite plan of sanitation
so as to control parasites.

The present herd boar is a son of Bob T, the grand champion boar at the Ohio State Fair.
For the past 13 years the highest yielding varieties of what have been Gladden 35 bushels, Gypsy 34 bushels and Trumbull 33 bushels.

The past three years Fulhio has been included in the test and has out-yielded all other varieties as an average of these years.

Miami and Big Four have led the oat variety tests with a 14 year average of 56 bushels less per acre than Miami and Big Four.

Spring wheat has yielded an average of 11 bushels per acre as compared with 56 bushels for the highest yielding varieties of oats and 34 bushels for Oederbuhr barley.

As an average the largest yield of wheat has been secured by sowing the last week in September. With one exception a good yield has never been secured in the date seeding test when sown after October 15.

Oats have produced 1273 pounds of feeding nutrients per acre as compared with 1296 pounds for barley.

The smallest as well as the least profitable crops have been secured on the check plots which receive no fertilizer, manure or limestone.

Plots which receive limestone produce hay with considerably more alfalfa in it than is obtained in hay on unlimed plots.

Money invested in acid phosphate applied at the rate of 500 pounds per acre in 4 years has returned 614 percent on the investment; in 90 pounds of Muriate of Potash 327 percent.

Nitrate of Soda has not returned its cost when used on corn, oats, and in most cases on wheat.

On the manured plots a fertilizer of the 0-14-4 type in general has been most profitable.

One ton of limestone per acre each four years has been profitable and has made a higher quality of hay because of the larger proportion of alfalfa.

The average increase secured on all fertilized and manured plots has been 35 bushels of corn worth $10.5; 8 bushels of oats worth $3.20; 15 bushels of wheat with a value of $18.75 and 800 pounds of mixed hay worth $4. The fertilizer has been applied two-fifths on the corn, on-fifth on the oats and two-fifth on wheat.
Experiments at Wooster indicate that the total profit for the rotation would have been greater if a larger proportion had been put on the wheat and less on the other crops.

Perhaps most noteworthy of all events on the Experiment Farm during the year was the trip of seventh and eighth-grade pupils from the rural schools of the county. On the two days of September 29 and October 8 the number that visited the Farm was 556. A mimeographed guide was prepared for them and they were given instruction which fitted in with the agricultural course taught in school.

Another special event was the visit of Canadian farmers on August 28.
One hundred and fifty were in the party which had toured western Ohio and part of Kentucky. They were pleasantly surprised to find such a variety of work as a county experiment Farm.

Thirty Champaign County farmers with their county agent made the annual Champaign County visit.

Two vocational teachers brought 20 students to the farm and made a study of plot work.

No record was kept of the casual visitors from day to day but it was estimated that this number would be somewhere between 150 and 200. The total number of visitors therefore would be between 900 and 1000 persons. With this number of visitors many of whom were young, the lessons of the Experiment Farm can not help but spread.

The county commissioners and county auditor made an inspection trip and were given the previous year's financial report.

Columbus, Ohio—The Indians and Ohio crops of wool growers who are members of the Ohio Wool Growers Association will be marketed cooperatively through the Columbus Warehouse of the organization again this year, and an arrangement announceed today by the executive committee, as the annual meeting of the organization got under way here today.
One hundred and fifty members were to attend the session. About four million pounds of wool raised by 3000 members passed through the Columbus warehouse last year.

Mexico City—British Nationals in Nicaragua feel they are amply protected by the American forces there, and that the presence of the British Cruiser Colombo in Nicaraguan waters is not necessary, Captain Lecky, commander of the Colombo said today on his arrival here. The Colombo is paying a courtesy call to Mexican ports.

The British Cruiser was dispatched to Nicaragua by the British admiralty to serve as a place of refuge for British Nationals in event of an emergency, but left when Captain Lecky deemed such measures as unnecessary.

New Lexington—Parents of Carl Hynus, 21, whose dead body was found late Tuesday at the entrance of the Carney Mine, today could advance no theory for his apparent suicide. The young farmer, it was reported, placed a shotgun on a heavy plank and pushed the trigger with a stick.

REGINALD DENNY
 "The Skinner's Dress Suit"
 "The Skinner's Dress Suit" is a comedy in which Reginald Denny plays a man who is in for a fortune out of a dress-suit that he didn't want in the first place—didn't want for in the second place and wouldn't give up in the last place. It's a delightful, whimsical, stimulating, breezy farce done only as Denny can do it.

THE MIAMI COUNTY
EXPERIMENT FARM

An exceptionally fine crop of apples was harvested from the orchard, a total of 721 bushels of picks and 63 bushels of drops being secured.

Stayman was the heaviest yielder with Grimes Golden in second place. Grimes Golden was a prime favorite with the buyers and more could have been disposed of to advantage. Apples sold more rapidly from this farm than from any of the other county and district farms.

Station horticulturists reported that the quality of the apples was not excelled in any other county or district experiment farm.

A new hog house was built during the year which will be used for farrowing purposes and for winter feeding tests.

The winter feeding test started on December 28 is a comparison of tankage as a supplement for corn with a mixture of tankage 1-2 alfalfa meal 1-4, and linseed oil meal 1-4. Both lots get limestone in addition.

The hog plans have been rearranged so as to include all the essentials of the "McLean system of hog sanitation." Because of the many plots on the Experiment Farm which can not be pastured from 80 to 100 hogs have been raised on a relatively small acreage in past years. They will continue to be raised on the same acreage but with a very definite plan of sanitation so as to control parasites.

The present herd head is a son of Bob T. the grand champion boar at the Ohio State Fair.

For the past 13 years the highest yielding varieties of what have been Gladden 35 bushels, Gypsy 34 bushels and Trumbull 33 bushels.

The past three years Fuhlio has been included in the test and has out-yielded all other varieties as an average of these years.

Miami and Big Four have led the oat variety tests with a 14 year average of 56 bushels less per acre than Miami and Big Four.

Spring wheat has yielded an average of 11 bushels per acre as compared with 56 bushels for the highest yielding varieties of oats and 34 bushels for Odebrucker barley.

As an average the largest yield of wheat has been secured by sowing the last week in September. With one exception a good yield has never been secured in the date seeding test when sown after October 15.

Oats have produced 1273 pounds of feeding nutrients per acre as compared with 1266 pounds for barley.

The smallest as well as the least profitable crops have been secured on the check plots which receive no fertilizer, manure or limestone.

Plots which receive limestone produce hay with considerably more alfalfa in it than is obtained in hay on unlimed plots.

Money expended in acid phosphate applied at the rate of 500 pounds per acre in 4 years has returned 614 percent on the investment, in 90 pounds of Muriate of Potash 327 percent.

Nitrate of Soda has not returned its cost when used on corn, oats, and in most cases on wheat.

On the manured plots a fertilizer of the 0-14-4 type in general has been most profitable.

One ton of limestone per acre each four years has been profitable and has made a higher quality of hay because of the larger proportion of alfalfa.

The average increase secured on all fertilized and manured plots has been 15 bushels of corn worth $10.50, 15 bushels of oats worth $3.20, 15 bushels of wheat with a value of $18.75 and 800 pounds of mixed hay worth $4. The fertilizer has been applied two-fifths on the corn, one-fifth on the oats and two-fifth on wheat.

Experiments at Wooster indicate that the total profit for the rotation would have been greater if a larger proportion had been put on the wheat and less on the other crops.

Perhaps most noteworthy of all events on the Experiment Farm during the year was the trip of seventh and eighth grade pupils from the rural schools of the county. On the two days of September 29 and October 8 the number that visited the Farm was 550. A mimeographed guide was prepared for them and they were given instruction which fitted in with the agricultural course taught in school.

Another special event was the visit of Canadian farmers on August 28. One hundred and fifty were in the party which had toured western Ohio and part of Kentucky. They were pleasantly surprised to find such a variety of work on a county experi-

Thirty Champaign County farmers with their county agent made the annual Champaign County visit.

Two vocational teachers brought 20 students to the farm and made a study of plot work.

No record was kept of the casual visitors from day to day but it was estimated that this number would be somewhere between 150 and 200. The total number of visitors therefore would be between 900 and 1000 persons. With this number of visitors many of whom were young, the lessons of the Experiment Farm can not help but spread.

The county commissioners and county auditor made an inspection trip and were given the previous year's financial report.

Columbus, Ohio—The Indiana and Ohio crops of wool growers who are members of the Ohio Wool Growers Association will be marketed cooperatively through the Columbus Warehouse of the organization again this year, and a arrangement announced today by the executive committee as the annual meeting of the organization got under way here today. One hundred and fifty members were to attend the session. About four million pounds of wool raised by 2000 members passed through the Columbus warehouse last year.

Mexico City—British Nationals in Nicaragua feel they are amply protected by the American forces there, and that the presence of the British cruiser Colombo in Nicaraguan waters is not necessary. Captain Lecky, commander of the Colombo said today on his arrival here. The Colombo is paying a courtesy call to Mexican ports.

The British Cruiser was dispatched to Nicaragua by the British admiralty to serve as a place of refuge for British Nationals in event of an emergency, but left when Captain Lecky deemed such measures as unnecessary.

New Lexington—Parents of Carl Hynus, 21, whose dead body was found late Tuesday at the entrance of the Carney Mine, today could advance no theory for his apparent suicide. The young farmer, it was reported, placed a shotgun on a heavy plank and pushed the trigger with a stick.

THE C. H. S. OPERETTA

From the outlook of the rehearsal no going on the operetta "Lola" is going to be exceptionally good. The Chorus and Solo work is under the able supervision of Miss Tenney the director of Music in the Covington High School. The Dramatic work is under direction of Miss Helen Hoffinger. Miss Hoffinger has been making special effort in making the Dramatization part of the operetta a great success. The characters selected are each fit for their part perfectly. To see the beauty of the scenes and the effective costuming you must spend the evening with us at the Auditorium April 1st. Watch this paper next week for the casts and further announcements.

REVIEW—STUDIES IN THE CHRIS-

TIAN LIFE

GOLDEN TEXT—If ye love Me keep My commandments—John 14:15.

PRIMARY TOPIC—What Jesus Wants Us to Do.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Christian Way of Living.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What It Means to Be a Christian.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Marks of a True Christian.

The following methods of review are suggested:

I. A Descriptive Essay Method.

Each member of the class should be assigned to the task a week ahead of the preparation of an essay on the topics involved in the quarterly lessons, as for example: What constitutes a true Christian. Following Christ. The prayer life of a Christian. The Christian and his Bible. The home life of a Christian. Christ according to the Christian and the missionary obligation.

II. The Question Review Method.

The teacher will prepare a list of questions dealing with the various phases of the quarter's lessons. These will be written on slips of paper and the members of the class will draw them. As examples of questions note the following: What does following Christ involve? What is the Christian's responsibility as to his Bible? What is the Christian's obligation as to the members of the home? What is the Christian's obligation as to the evangelization of the world? What is the Christian's hope? Is Christ coming again? Will there be a resurrection of the body?

III. The Summary Method.

This method can always be used to good advantage with the advanced classes. The outstanding fact or facts should be grasped and the principal teaching of the quarter's lessons stated. Suggestions:

Lesson for January 2.

Jesus first calls men to be His disciples. He then calls them to have fellowship in His service. Those who receive this two-fold call will walk as He walked.

Lesson for January 9.

That one who really follows Christ shall be hated and opposed. Having fellowship with Christ, he will love his enemies, do good to those who hate him, bless them that curse him, pray for those which spitefully use him.

Lesson for January 16.

The Bible furnishes the Christian with full knowledge of God and man's obligation to Him. The only way to be able to stand firm and true in the coming perilous times is to be thoroughly grounded in the knowledge of the Scriptures.

Lesson for January 23.

Jesus, though divine, resorted much to prayer. If he needed this fellowship, how much more do His followers need it.

Lesson for January 30.

Followers of Jesus may expect temptations, but divine help is available for every need.

Lesson for February 6.

To every believer has been given certain talents such as gifts for service, knowledge, time, money, to be used for the honor of His Lord. A time of reckoning is coming at which reward will be given for fidelity, and judgment meted out for infidelity.

Lesson for February 13.

The home is the oldest and most important institution in the world. The most effective way of making strong and pure the church, society and the nation is to make the home Christian.

Lesson for February 20.

The subject of the kingdom is under solemn obligation to permeate society and let his light shine so that the heavenly fathers may be glorified.

Lesson for February 27.

Every believer has two natures—the flesh and the spirit. The only way to overcome the flesh is to be filled with the Spirit.

Lesson for March 6.

The Lord permitted persecution to fall upon the church to cause the disciples to be scattered in order for the widening of the testimony.

Lesson for March 13.

Christ has imposed upon every disciple the obligation of witnessing for Him to all the people of the world.
